About this record

A printed copy of the Treaty of Peace with Turkey, commonly referred to as the Treaty of Lausanne. The treaty was signed on 24 July 1923 and formally ended the conflict between the Ottoman Empire and other nations (including Great Britain) that had begun at the onset of the First World War. The volume was printed and published by HM Stationery Office, London, 1923 (Treaty Series No. 16 (1923). Cmd. 1929). The treaty is printed in the French original and English translation.

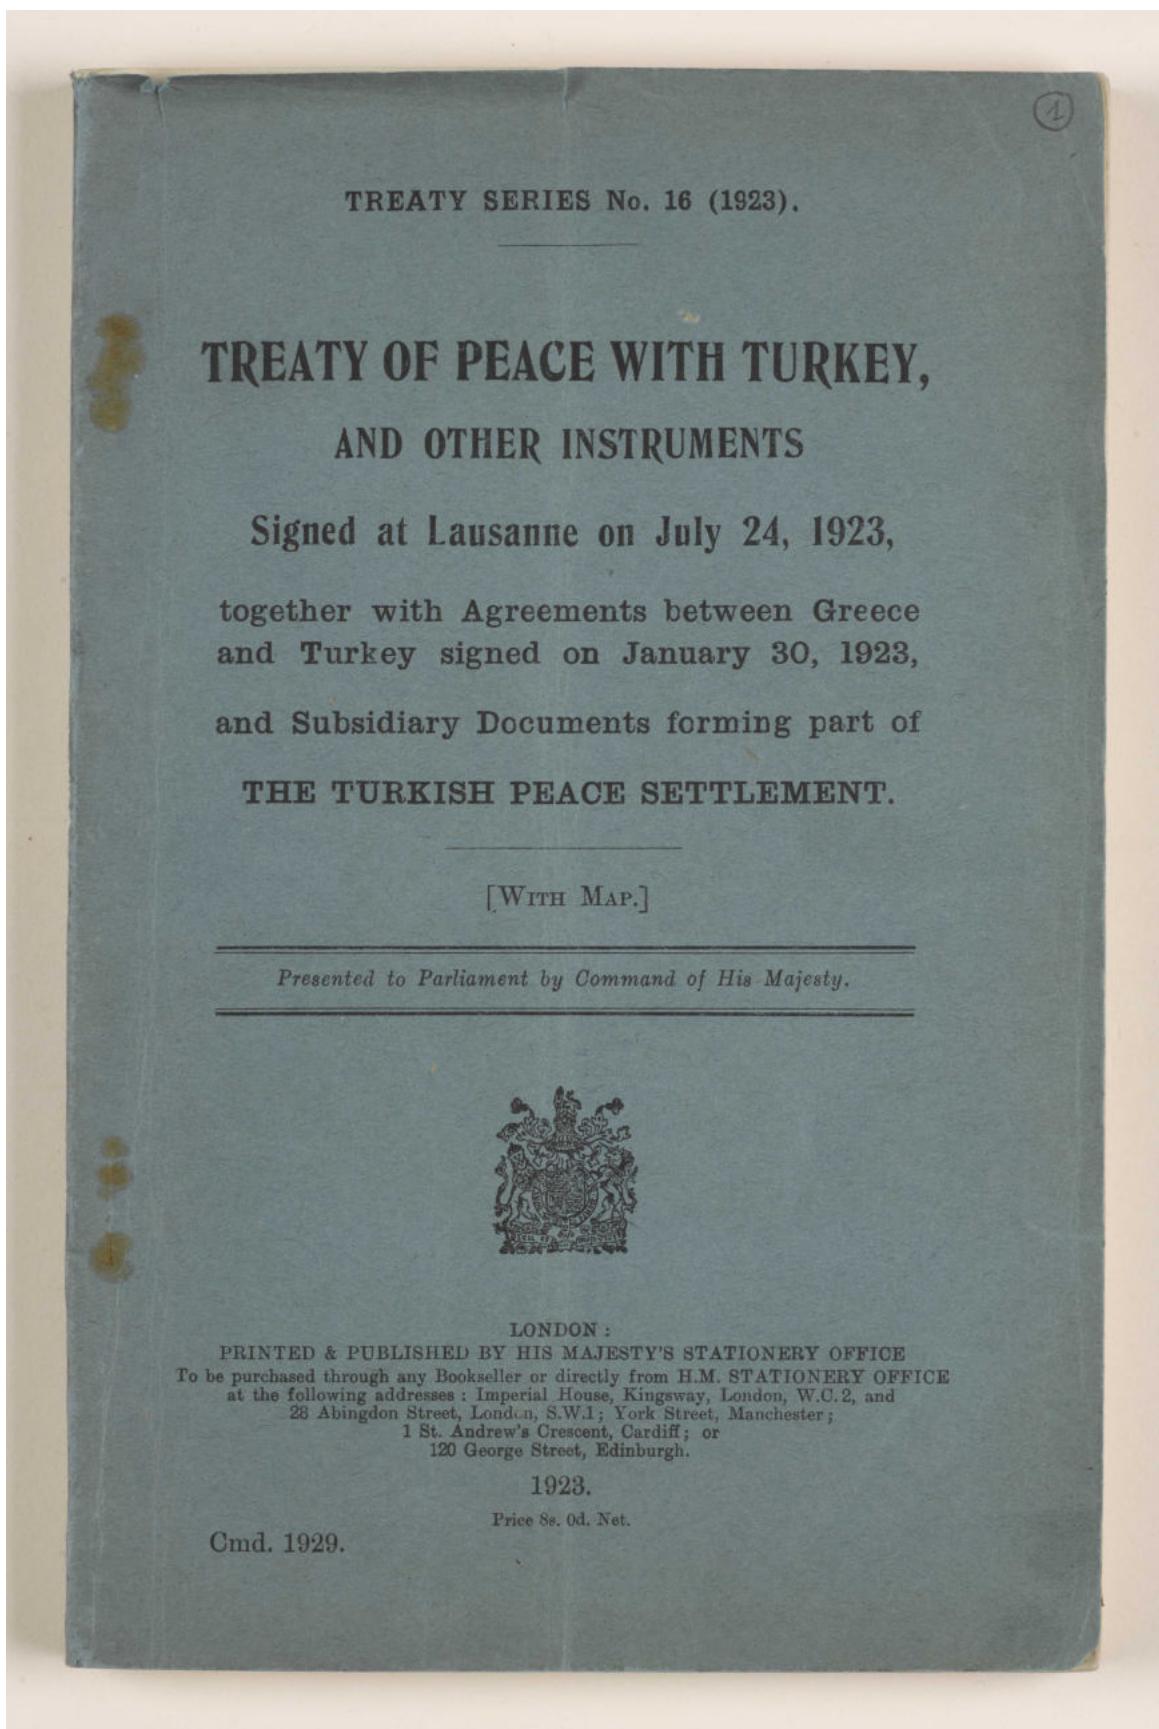

The treaty is divided into seventeen sections (numbered I-XVII): I. Treaty of Peace; II. Straits Convention; III. Convention respecting the Thracian frontier; IV. Convention respecting conditions of Residence and Business and Jurisdiction; V. Commercial Convention; VI. Convention concerning the Exchange of Greek and Turkish Populations, signed at Lausanne January 30, 1923; VII. Agreement between Greece and Turkey respecting the reciprocal restitution of interned civilians and the exchange of prisoners of war, signed at Lausanne 23 January 1923; VIII. Declaration relating to the Amnesty; IX. Declaration relating to Muslim properties in Greece; X. Declaration relating to sanitary matters in Turkey; XI. Declaration relating to the administration of justice in Turkey; XII. Protocol relating to certain concessions granted in the Ottoman Empire; XIII. Protocol relating to the accession of Belgium and Portugal to certain provisions and instruments signed at Lausanne; XIV. Protocol relating to the evacuation of the Turkish territory occupied by the British, French and Italian forces; XV. Protocol relating to the Karagatch [Karaağaç] territory and the Islands of Imbros [Gökçeada] and Tenedos [Bozcaada]; XVI. Protocol relating to the Treaty concluded at Sèvres between the principal Allied Powers and Greece on August 10, 1920, concerning the protection of minorities in Greece, and the Treaty concluded on the same day between the same Powers relating to Thrace; XVII. Protocol relating to signature by the Serb-Croat-Slovene State.

The volume also includes copies of correspondence relating to the treaty, including letters exchanged between the High Commissioner to Constantinople, Sir Horace George Montagu Rumbold, who signed the Treaty of Lausanne on behalf of the British Government, and the Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ismet Pasha [Mustafa İsmet İnönü]. A map of those parts of southeastern Europe affected by the treaty is also enclosed in the volume (f 126).

The volume is accompanied by a loose folio (f 128), entitled 'NOTE ON THE TREATY OF PEACE (TURKEY) BILL, 1924.', originally presented by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to Parliament. The note was printed and published by HM Stationery Office, London, in 1924.

A défaut d'accord entre les deux Gouvernements dans le délai prévu, le litige sera porté devant le Conseil de la Société des Nations.

Les Gouvernements turc et britannique s'engagent réciproquement à ce que, en attendant la décision à prendre au sujet de la frontière, il ne sera procédé à aucun mouvement militaire ou autre, de nature à apporter un changement quelconque dans l'état actuel des territoires dont le sort définitif dépendra de cette décision.

Article 4.

Les frontières décrites par le présent Traité sont tracées sur les cartes au 1/1,000,000<sup>e</sup> annexées au présent Traité. En cas de divergence entre le texte et la carte, c'est le texte qui fera foi.

In the event of no agreement being reached between the two Governments within the time mentioned, the dispute shall be referred to the Council of the League of Nations.

The Turkish and British Governments reciprocally undertake that, pending the decision to be reached on the subject of the frontier, no military or other movement shall take place which might modify in any way the present state of the territories of which the final fate will depend upon that decision.

Article 4

The frontiers described by the present Treaty are traced on the one in a million maps attached to the present Treaty. In case of divergence between the text and the map, the text will prevail.

In particular, the Turkish Government undertakes to furnish, if required, the technical personnel necessary to assist the Boundary Commission in the accomplishment of its duties.

Article 11.

Les procès-verbaux définitifs de délimitation, les cartes et documents annexés seront établis en triple original, dont deux seront transmis aux Gouvernements des États limitrophes et le troisième sera transmis au Gouvernement de la République française, qui en délivrera des expéditions authentiques aux Puissances signataires du présent Traité.

Article 32.

Persons over eighteen years of age, habitually resident in territory detached from Turkey in accordance with the present Treaty, and differing in race from the majority of the population of such territory shall, within two years from the coming into force of the present Treaty, be entitled to opt for the nationality of one of the States in which the majority of the population is of the same race as the person exercising the right to opt, subject to the consent of that State.

or political rights, as, for instance, admission to public employments, functions and honours, or the exercise of professions and industries.

No restrictions shall be imposed on the free use by any Turkish national of any language in private intercourse, in commerce, religion, in the press, or in publications of any kind or at public meetings.

Notwithstanding the existence of the official language, adequate facilities shall be given to Turkish nationals of non-Turkish speech for the oral use of their own language before the Courts.

Article 40.

Turkish nationals belonging to non-Moslem minorities shall enjoy the same treatment and security in law and in fact as other Turkish nationals. In particular, they shall have an equal right to establish, manage and control at their own expense, any charitable, religious and social institutions, any schools and other establishments for instruction and education, with the right to use their own language and to exercise their own religion freely therein.

Article 41.

As regards public instruction, the Turkish Government will grant in those towns and districts, where a considerable proportion of non-Moslem nationals are resident, adequate facilities for ensuring that in the primary schools the instruction shall be given to the children of such Turkish nationals through the medium of their own language. This provision will not prevent the Turkish Government from making the teaching of the Turkish language obligatory in the said schools.

In towns and districts where there is a considerable proportion of Turkish nationals belonging to non-Moslem minorities, these minorities shall be assured an equitable share in the enjoyment and application of the sums which may be provided out of public funds under the State, municipal or other budgets for educational, religious, or charitable purposes.

The sums in question shall be paid to the qualified representatives of the establishments and institutions concerned.

Article 42.

The Turkish Government undertakes to take, as regards non-Moslem minorities, in so far as concerns their family law or personal status, measures permitting the settlement of these questions in accordance with the customs of those minorities.

These measures will be elaborated by special Commissions composed of representatives of the Turkish Government and of representatives of each of the minorities concerned in equal number. In case of divergence, the Turkish Government and the Council of the League of Nations will appoint in agreement an umpire chosen from amongst European lawyers.

Le Gouvernement turc s'engage à accorder toute protection aux églises, synagogues, cimetières et autres établissements religieux des minorités précitées. Toutes facilités et autorisations seront données aux fondations pieuses et aux établissements religieux et charitables des mêmes minorités actuellement existants en Turquie, et le Gouvernement turc ne refusera pas, pour la création de nouveaux établissements religieux et charitables, aucune des facilités nécessaires qui sont garanties aux autres établissements privés de cette nature.

Article 43.

Les ressortissants turcs, appartenant aux minorités non-musulmanes, ne seront pas astreints à accomplir un acte quelconque constituant une violation de leur foi ou de leurs pratiques religieuses, ni frappés d'aucune incapacité s'ils refusent de comparaître devant les tribunaux ou d'accomplir quelque acte légal le jour de leur repos hebdomadaire.

Toutefois, cette disposition ne dispensera pas ces ressortissants turcs des obligations imposées à tous autres ressortissants turcs en vue du maintien de l'ordre public.

Article 44.

La Turquie convient que, dans la mesure où les articles précédents de la présente Section affectent les ressortissants non-musulmans de la Turquie, ces stipulations constituent des obligations d'intérêt international et soient placées sous la garantie de la Société des Nations. Elles ne pourront être modifiées sans l'assentiment de la majorité du Conseil de la Société des Nations. L'Empire britannique, la France, l'Italie et le Japon s'engagent, par les présentes, à ne pas refuser leur assentiment à toute modification desdits articles qui serait consentie en due forme par la majorité du Conseil de la Société des Nations.

La Turquie agrée que tout membre du Conseil de la Société des Nations aura le droit de signaler à l'attention du Conseil toute infraction ou danger d'infraction à l'une quelconque de ces obligations, et que le Conseil pourra procéder de telle façon et donner telles instructions qui paraîtront appropriées et efficaces dans la circonstance.

La Turquie agrée, en outre, qu'en cas de divergence d'opinion sur des questions de droit ou de fait concernant ces articles, entre le Gouvernement turc et l'une quelconque des autres Puissances signataires ou toute autre Puissance, membre du Conseil de la Société des Nations, cette divergence sera considérée comme un différend ayant un caractère international selon les termes de l'Article 14 du Pacte de la Société des Nations. Le Gouvernement turc agrée que tout différend de ce genre sera, si l'autre partie le demande, déféré à la Cour permanente de Justice Internationale. La décision de la Cour permanente sera sans appel et aura la même force et valeur qu'une décision rendue en vertu de l'Article 13 du Pacte.

The Turkish Government undertakes to grant full protection to the churches, synagogues, cemeteries, and other religious establishments of the above-mentioned minorities. All facilities and authorisation will be granted to the pious foundations, and to the religious and charitable institutions of the said minorities at present existing in Turkey, and the Turkish Government will not refuse, for the formation of new religious and charitable institutions, any of the necessary facilities which are guaranteed to other private institutions of that nature.

Article 43.

Turkish nationals belonging to non-Moslem minorities shall not be compelled to perform any act which constitutes a violation of their faith or religious observances, and shall not be placed under any disability by reason of their refusal to attend Courts of Law or to perform any legal business on their weekly day of rest.

This provision, however, shall not exempt such Turkish nationals from such obligations as shall be imposed upon all other Turkish nationals for the preservation of public order.

Article 44.

Turkey agrees that, in so far as the preceding Articles of this Section affect non-Moslem nationals of Turkey, these provisions constitute obligations of international concern and shall be placed under the guarantee of the League of Nations. They shall not be modified without the assent of the majority of the Council of the League of Nations. The British Empire, France, Italy and Japan hereby agree not to withhold their assent to any modification in these Articles which is in due form assented to by a majority of the Council of the League of Nations.

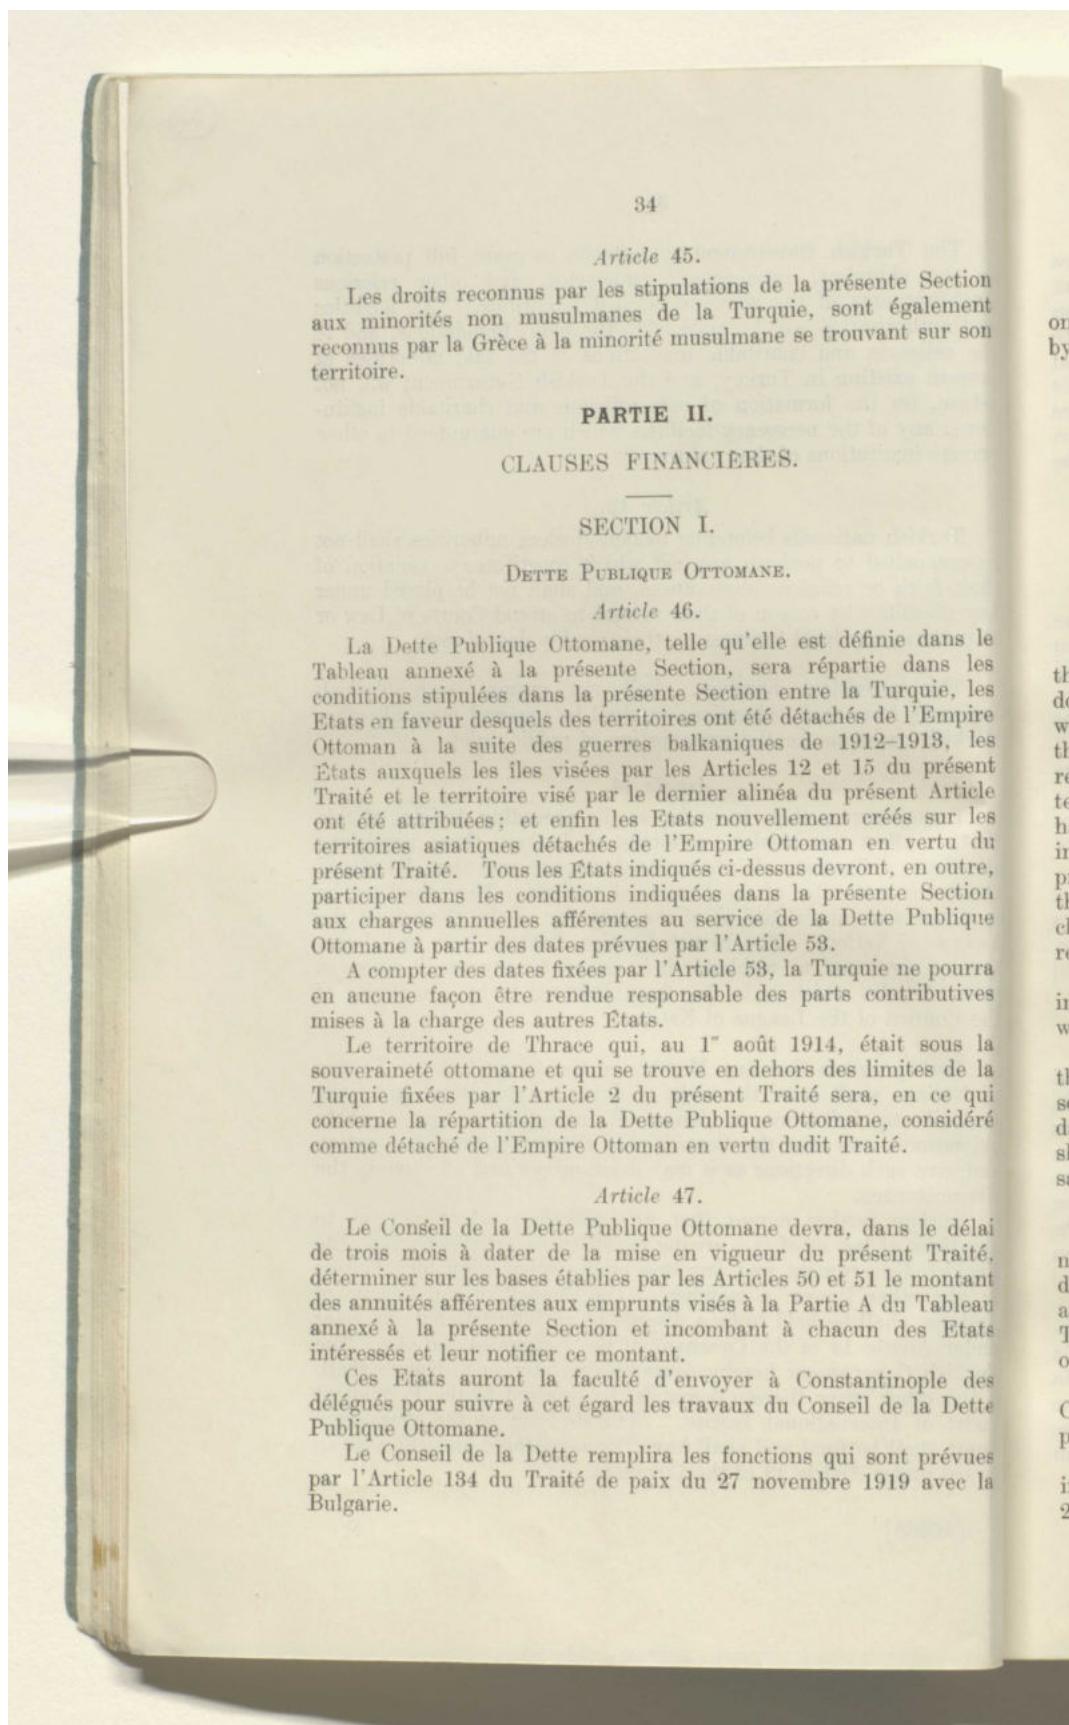

Turkey agrees that any Member of the Council of the League of Nations shall have the right to bring to the attention of the Council any infraction or danger of infraction of any of these obligations, and that the Council may thereupon take such action and give such directions as it may deem proper and effective in the circumstances.

Turkey further agrees that any difference of opinion as to questions of law or of fact arising out of these Articles between the Turkish Government and any one of the other Signatory Powers or any other Power, a member of the Council of the League of Nations, shall be held to be a dispute of an international character under Article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations. The Turkish Government hereby consents that any such dispute shall, if the other party thereto demands, be referred to the Permanent Court of International Justice. The decision of the Permanent Court shall be final and shall have the same force and effect as an award under Article 18 of the Covenant.

Article 48.

The States, other than Turkey, among which the Ottoman Public Debt, as defined in Part (A) of the Table annexed to this Section, is attributed shall, within three months from the date on which they are notified, in accordance with Article 47, of their respective shares in the annual charges referred to in that Article, assign to the Council of the Debt adequate security for the payment of their share. If such security is not assigned within the above-mentioned period, or in the case of any disagreement as to the adequacy of the security assigned, any of the Governments signatory to the present Treaty shall be entitled to appeal to the Council of the League of Nations.

The Council of the League of Nations shall be empowered to entrust the collection of the revenues assigned as security to international financial organisations existing in the countries (other than Turkey) among which the Debt is distributed. Au cas où la Turquie déciderait de créer de nouveaux titres en représentation de sa part, la répartition du capital de la Dette sera faits en premier lieu, en ce qui concerne la Turquie, par un comité composé du représentant du Gouvernement turc, du représentant du Conseil de la Dette Publique Ottomane et du représentant de la dette autre que la Dette Unifiée et les Lots turcs. Les titres nouvellement créés seront remis à la Commission, qui en assurera la délivrance aux porteurs dans des conditions constatant la libération de la Turquie ainsi que le droit des porteurs à l'égard des autres États auxquels incombe une part de la Dette Publique Ottomane. Les titres émis en représentation de la part de chaque État dans la Dette Publique Ottomane seront exempts sur le territoire des Hautes Parties contractantes de tous droits de timbre ou autres taxes qui résulteraient de cette émission.

Le payement des annuités incombant à chacun des États intéressés ne pourra pas être différé par suite des dispositions du présent Article relatives à la répartition du capital nominal.

Article 50.

La répartition des charges annuelles visées à l'Article 47 et celle du capital nominal de la Dette Publique Ottomane, dont il est fait mention à l'Article 49, seront effectuées de la manière suivante :

- 1<sup>o</sup> Les emprunts antérieurs au 17 octobre 1912 et les charges y afférentes seront répartis entre l'Empire ottoman tel qu'il existait à la suite des guerres balkaniques de 1912-1913, les États balkaniques en faveur desquels un territoire a été détaché de l'Empire ottoman à la suite desdites guerres, et les États auxquels les îles visées aux Articles 12 et 15 du présent Traité ont été attribuées ; il sera tenu compte des changements territoriaux intervenus depuis la mise en vigueur des traités qui ont mis fin à ces guerres, ou des traités postérieurs.
- 2<sup>o</sup> Le solde des emprunts restant à la charge de l'Empire ottoman après cette première répartition et le solde des annuités y afférentes, augmentés des emprunts contractés par ledit Empire entre le 17 octobre 1912 et le 1<sup>er</sup> novembre 1914, ainsi que des annuités y afférentes, seront répartis entre la Turquie, les États nouvellement créés en Asie en faveur desquels un territoire a été détaché de l'Empire ottoman en vertu du présent Traité, et l'État auquel le territoire visé au dernier alinéa de l'Article 46 dudit Traité a été attribué.

La répartition du capital se fera pour chaque emprunt sur le montant du capital existant à la date de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité.

If Turkey shall decide to create new securities in respect of her share, the distribution of the capital of the Ottoman Public Debt shall be made in the first instance as it affects Turkey by a Committee consisting of the representative of the Turkish Government, the representative of the Council of the Ottoman Public Debt and the representative of the debt other than the Unified Debt and the Lots Turcs. The new securities shall be delivered to the Commission, which shall ensure their delivery to the bondholders upon such terms as will provide for the release of Turkey from liability and the rights of the bondholders towards the other States which are liable for a share of the Ottoman Public Debt. The securities issued in respect of the share of each State in the Ottoman Public Debt shall be exempt in the territory of the High Contracting Parties from all stamp duties or other taxes which would be involved by such issue.

The payment of the annuities for which each of the States concerned is liable shall not be postponed as a consequence of the provisions of the present Article in regard to the distribution of the nominal capital.

Article 50.

The distribution of the annual charges referred to in Article 47 and of the nominal capital of the Ottoman Public Debt mentioned in Article 49 shall be effected in the following manner :—

- (1.) The loans prior to the 17th October, 1912, and the annuities of such loans shall be distributed between the Ottoman Empire as it existed after the Balkan wars of 1912-13, the Balkan States in favour of which territory was detached from the Ottoman Empire after those wars, and the States to which the islands referred to in Articles 12 and 15 of the present Treaty have been attributed; account shall be taken of the territorial changes which have taken place after the coming into force of the treaties which ended those wars or subsequent treaties.
- (2.) The residue of the loans for which the Ottoman Empire remained liable after this first distribution and the residue of the annuities of such loans, together with the loans contracted by that Empire between the 17th October, 1912, and the 1st November, 1914, and the annuities of such loans shall be distributed between Turkey, the newly created States in Asia in favour of which a territory has been detached from the Ottoman Empire under the present Treaty, and the State to which the territory referred to in the last paragraph of Article 46 of the said Treaty has been attributed.

The distribution of the capital shall in the case of each loan be based on the capital amount outstanding at the date of the coming into force of the present Treaty.

40

Le montant de la part incombant à chaque État intéressé dans les charges annuelles de la Dette Publique Ottomane par suite de la répartition prévue à l'Article 50, sera déterminé comme il suit :

1° En ce qui concerne la répartition prévue au paragraphe 1° de l'Article 50, il sera d'abord procédé à la fixation de la part incombant à l'ensemble des îles visées aux Articles 12 et 15 et les territoires détachés de l'Empire ottoman à la suite des guerres balkaniques. Le montant de cette part devra être, par rapport à la somme totale des annuités à répartir d'après les dispositions du paragraphe 1° de l'Article 50, dans la même proportion que le revenu moyen total des îles et des territoires susmentionnés, pris en commun, par rapport au revenu moyen total de l'Empire ottoman pendant les années financières 1910–1911 et 1911–1912, y compris le produit des surtaxes douanières établies en 1907.

Le montant ainsi déterminé sera ensuite réparti entre les États auxquels ont été attribués les territoires visés dans l'alinéa précédent et la part qui, de ce fait, incombera à chacun de ces États devra être, par rapport au montant total réparti entre eux, dans la même proportion que le revenu moyen du territoire attribué à chaque État par rapport au revenu moyen total pendant les années financières 1910–1911 et 1911–1912 de l'ensemble des territoires détachés de l'Empire ottoman à la suite des guerres balkaniques et des îles visées aux Articles 12 et 15. Dans le calcul des revenus prévu par le présent alinéa, il ne sera pas tenu compte des recettes des douanes.

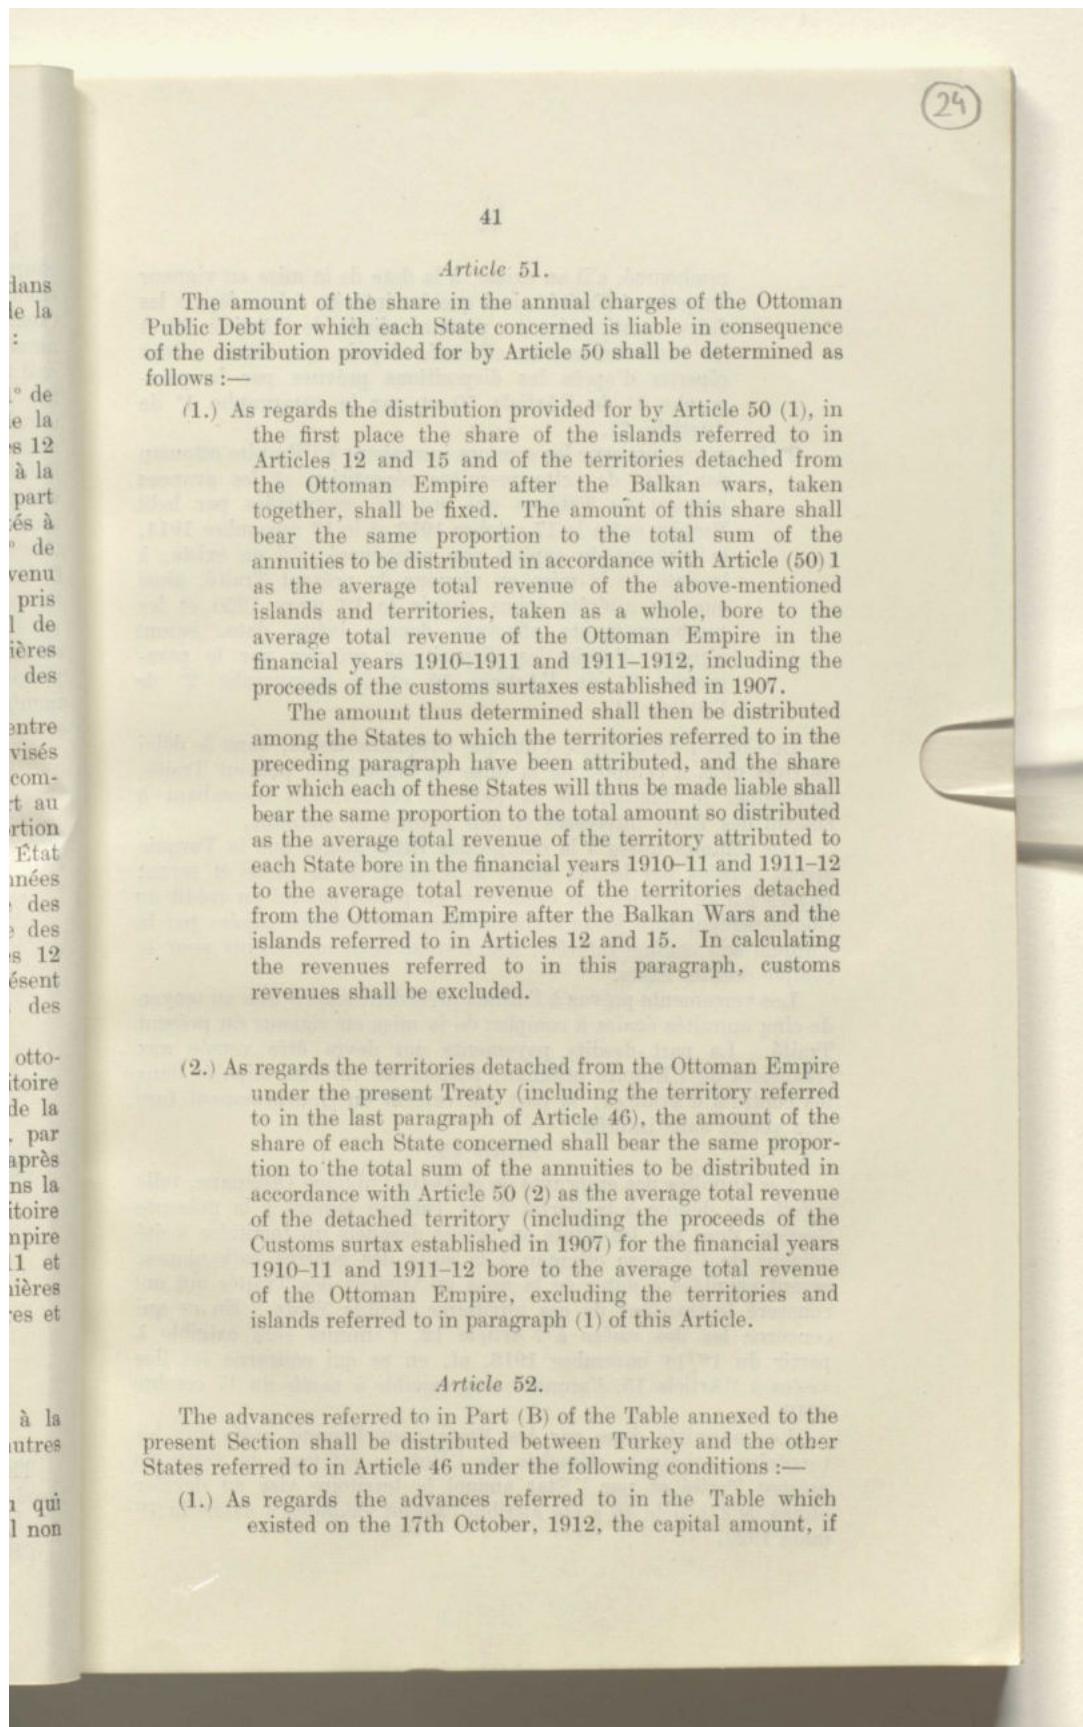

2° En ce qui concerne les territoires détachés de l'Empire ottoman en vertu du présent Traité, y compris le territoire visé au dernier alinéa de l'Article 46, le montant de la part incombant à chaque État intéressé devra être, par rapport à la somme totale des annuités à répartir d'après les dispositions du paragraphe 2° de l'Article 50, dans la même proportion que le revenu moyen du territoire détaché par rapport au revenu moyen total de l'Empire ottoman pendant les années financières 1910–1911 et 1911–1912 (y compris le produit des surtaxes douanières établies en 1907), diminué de l'appoint des territoires et îles visés au paragraphe 1°.

Article 52.

Les avances prévues à la Partie B du Tableau annexé à la présente Section, seront réparties, entre la Turquie et les autres États visés à l'Article 46, dans les conditions suivantes :

1° En ce qui concerne les avances prévues au Tableau qui existaient au 17 octobre 1912, le montant du capital non

41

The amount of the share in the annual charges of the Ottoman Public Debt for which each State concerned is liable in consequence of the distribution provided for by Article 50 shall be determined as follows :—

(1.) As regards the distribution provided for by Article 50 (1), in the first place the share of the islands referred to in Articles 12 and 15 and of the territories detached from the Ottoman Empire after the Balkan wars, taken together, shall be fixed. The amount of this share shall bear the same proportion to the total sum of the annuities to be distributed in accordance with Article (50) 1 as the average total revenue of the above-mentioned islands and territories, taken as a whole, bore to the average total revenue of the Ottoman Empire in the financial years 1910–1911 and 1911–1912, including the proceeds of the customs surtaxes established in 1907.

The amount thus determined shall then be distributed among the States to which the territories referred to in the preceding paragraph have been attributed, and the share for which each of these States will thus be made liable shall bear the same proportion to the total amount so distributed as the average total revenue of the territory attributed to each State bore in the financial years 1910–11 and 1911–12 to the average total revenue of the territories detached from the Ottoman Empire after the Balkan Wars and the islands referred to in Articles 12 and 15. In calculating the revenues referred to in this paragraph, customs revenues shall be excluded.

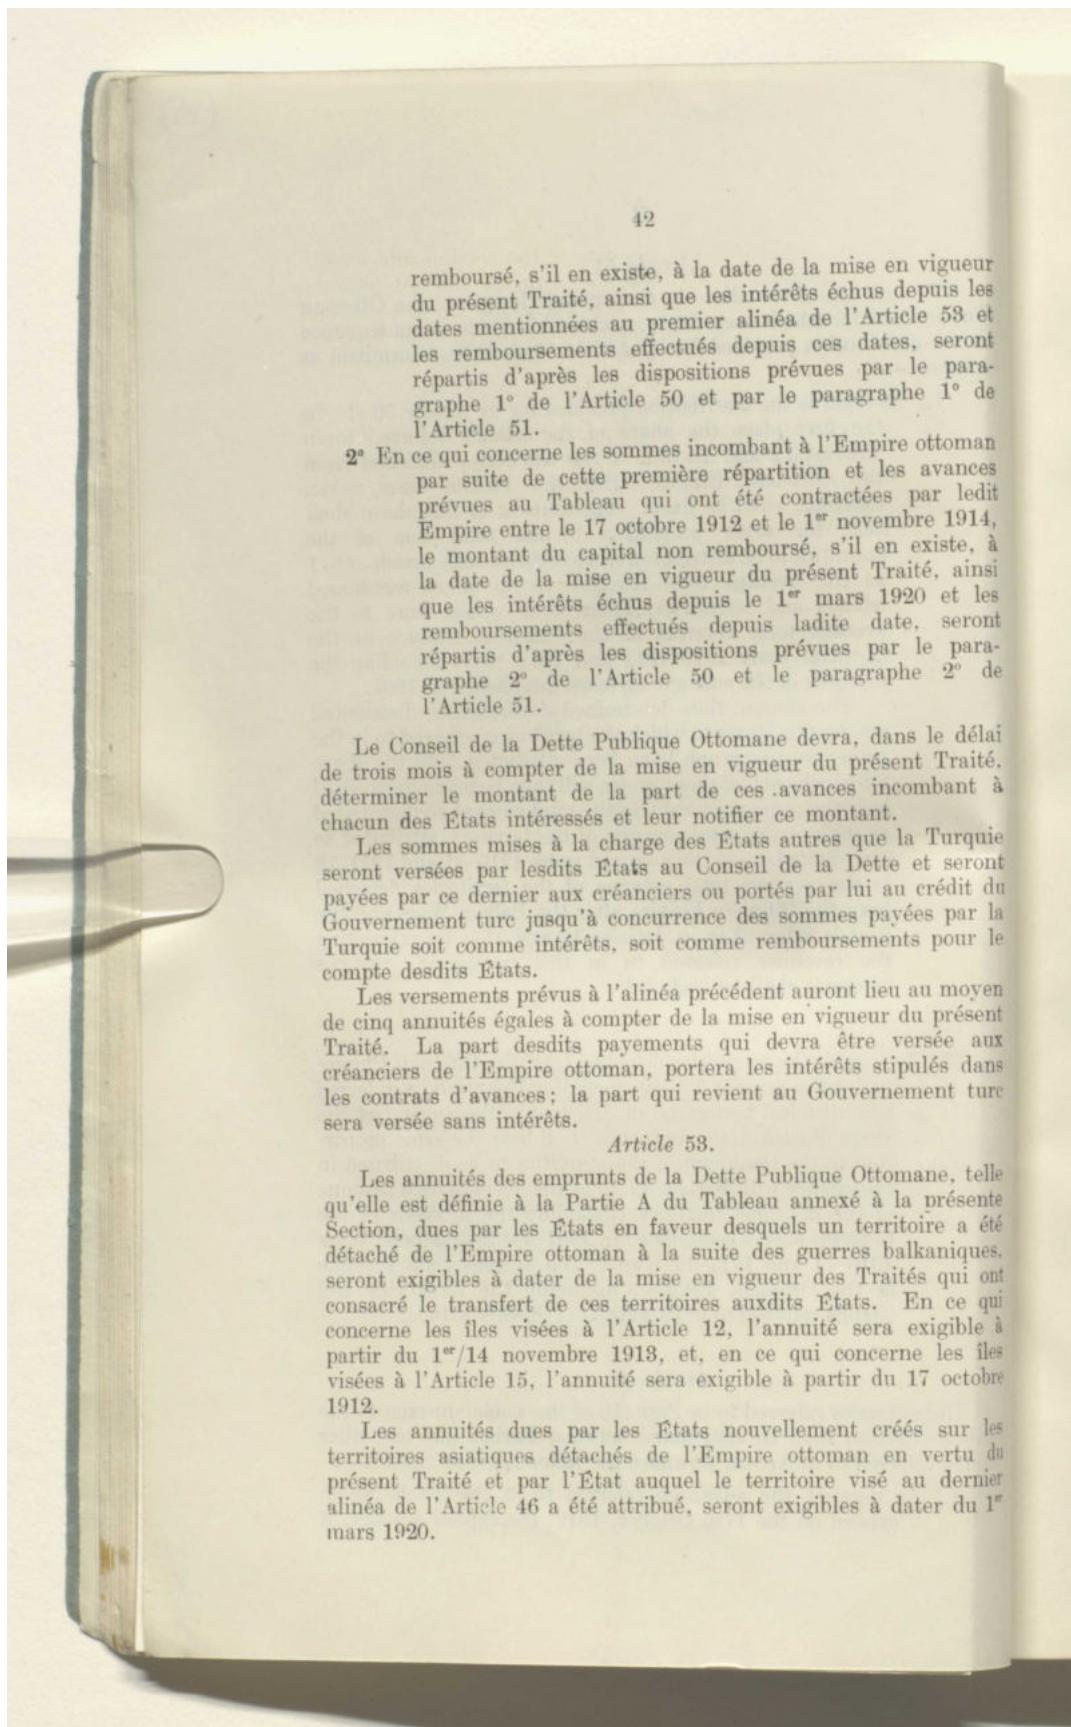

(2.) As regards the territories detached from the Ottoman Empire under the present Treaty (including the territory referred to in the last paragraph of Article 46), the amount of the share of each State concerned shall bear the same proportion to the total sum of the annuities to be distributed in accordance with Article 50 (2) as the average total revenue of the detached territory (including the proceeds of the Customs surtax established in 1907) for the financial years 1910–11 and 1911–12 bore to the average total revenue of the Ottoman Empire, excluding the territories and islands referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.

Article 52.

The advances referred to in Part (B) of the Table annexed to the present Section shall be distributed between Turkey and the other States referred to in Article 46 under the following conditions :—

(1.) As regards the advances referred to in the Table which existed on the 17th October, 1912, the capital amount, if

2<sup>o</sup> En ce qui concerne les sommes incombant à l'Empire ottoman par suite de cette première répartition et les avances prévues au Tableau qui ont été contractées par ledit Empire entre le 17 octobre 1912 et le 1<sup>er</sup> novembre 1914, le montant du capital non remboursé, s'il en existe, à la date de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, ainsi que les intérêts échus depuis le 1<sup>er</sup> mars 1920 et les remboursements effectués depuis ladite date, seront répartis d'après les dispositions prévues par le paragraphe 2<sup>o</sup> de l'Article 50 et le paragraphe 2<sup>o</sup> de l'Article 51.

Le Conseil de la Dette Publique Ottomane devra, dans le délai de trois mois à compter de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, déterminer le montant de la part de ces avances incombant à chacun des États intéressés et leur notifier ce montant.

Les sommes mises à la charge des États autres que la Turquie seront versées par lesdits États au Conseil de la Dette et seront payées par ce dernier aux créanciers ou portés par lui au crédit du Gouvernement turc jusqu'à concurrence des sommes payées par la Turquie soit comme intérêts, soit comme remboursements pour le compte desdits États.

Les versements prévus à l'alinéa précédent auront lieu au moyen de cinq annuités égales à compter de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité. La part desdits payements qui devra être versée aux créanciers de l'Empire ottoman, portera les intérêts stipulés dans les contrats d'avances; la part qui revient au Gouvernement turc sera versée sans intérêts.

Article 53.

Les annuités des emprunts de la Dette Publique Ottomane, telle qu'elle est définie à la Partie A du Tableau annexé à la présente Section, dues par les États en faveur desquels un territoire a été détaché de l'Empire ottoman à la suite des guerres balkaniques, seront exigibles à dater de la mise en vigueur des Traité qui ont consacré le transfert de ces territoires auxdits États. En ce qui concerne les îles visées à l'Article 12, l'annuité sera exigible à partir du 1<sup>er</sup>/14 novembre 1913, et, en ce qui concerne les îles visées à l'Article 15, l'annuité sera exigible à partir du 17 octobre 1912.

Les annuités dues par les États nouvellement créés sur les territoires asiatiques détachés de l'Empire ottoman en vertu du présent Traité et par l'État auquel le territoire visé au dernier alinéa de l'Article 46 a été attribué, seront exigibles à dater du 1<sup>er</sup> mars 1920.

(2.) As regards the amounts for which the Ottoman Empire remains liable after the first distribution and the advances referred to in the Table which were contracted by the said Empire between the 17th October, 1912, and the 1st November, 1914, the capital amount, if any, outstanding at the date of the coming into force of the present Treaty, together with the interest from the 1st March, 1920, and the repayments made since that date, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of Article 50 (2) and Article 51 (2).

The payments referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be made by five equal annuities from the coming into force of the present Treaty. Such portion of these payments as is payable to the creditors of the Ottoman Empire shall bear interest at the rates laid down in the contracts governing the advances; the portion to be credited to the Turkish Government shall be paid without interest.

SECTION 2.

CLAUSES DIVERSES.

Article 58.

La Turquie, d'une part, et les autres Puissances contractantes (à l'exception de la Grèce), d'autre part, renoncent réciproquement à toute réclamation pécuniaire pour les pertes et dommages subis par la Turquie et lesdites Puissances ainsi que par leurs ressortissants (y compris les personnes morales), pendant la période comprise entre le 1<sup>er</sup> août 1914 et la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, et résultant soit de faits de guerre, soit de mesures de réquisition, séquestre, disposition ou confiscation.

Toutefois, la disposition qui précède ne portera pas atteinte aux stipulations de la Partie III (Clauses économiques) du présent Traité.

Sont annulées toutes obligations de paiement mises à la charge du Conseil d'administration de la Dette Publique Ottomane tant par la Convention du 20 juin 1831 (3 juillet 1915) relative aux bons de monnaie turcs de la première émission, que par le texte porté au verso de ces bons.

La Turquie convient également de ne pas demander au Gouvernement britannique ni à ses ressortissants la restitution des sommes payées pour les bâtiments de guerre qui avaient été commandés en Angleterre par le Gouvernement ottoman et qui ont été réquisitionnés par le Gouvernement britannique en 1914; elle renonce à toute réclamation de ce chef.

Article 59.

La Grèce reconnaît son obligation de réparer les dommages causés en Anatolie par des actes de l'armée ou de l'administration helléniques contraires aux lois de la guerre.

SECTION II.

MISCELLANEOUS CLAUSES.

Article 58.

Turkey, on the one hand, and the other Contracting Powers (except Greece) on the other hand, reciprocally renounce all pecuniary claims for the loss and damage suffered respectively by Turkey and the said Powers and by their nationals (including juridical persons) between the 1st August, 1914, and the coming into force of the present Treaty, as the result of acts of war, or measures of requisition, sequestration, disposal or confiscation.

Nevertheless, the above provisions are without prejudice to the provisions of Part III (Economic Clauses) of the present Treaty.

Turkey renounces in favour of the other Contracting Parties (except Greece) any right in the sums in gold transferred by Germany and Austria under Article 259 (1) of the Treaty of Peace of the 28th June, 1919, with Germany, and under Article 210 (1) of the Treaty of Peace of the 10th September, 1919, with Austria.

The Council of the Administration of the Ottoman Public Debt is freed from all liability to make the payments which it was required to make by the Agreement of the 20th June, 1931 (3rd July, 1915) relating to the first issue of Turkish currency notes or by the words inscribed on the back of such notes.

Turkey also agrees not to claim from the British Government or its nationals the repayment of the sums paid for the warships ordered in England by the Ottoman Government which were requisitioned by the British Government in 1914, and renounces all claims in the matter.

Article 59.

Greece recognises her obligation to make reparation for the damage caused in Anatolia by the acts of the Greek army or administration which were contrary to the laws of war.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [28v] (61/260)

D'autre part, la Turquie, prenant en considération la situation financière de la Grèce telle qu'elle résulte de la prolongation de la guerre et de ses conséquences, renonce définitivement à toute réclamation contre le Gouvernement hellénique pour des réparations.

Article 60.

Les États en faveur desquels un territoire a été ou est détaché de l'Empire ottoman, soit à la suite des guerres balkaniques, soit par le présent Traité, acquerront gratuitement tous biens et propriétés de l'Empire ottoman situés dans ce territoire.

Il est entendu que les biens et propriétés dont les Iradés du 26 août 1924 (8 septembre 1908), du 20 avril 1925 (2 mai 1909) ont ordonné le transfert de la Liste Civile à l'État ainsi que ceux qui, au 30 octobre 1918, étaient administrés par la Liste Civile au profit d'un service public, sont compris parmi les biens et propriétés visés à l'alinéa précédent, lesdits États étant subrogés à l'Empire ottoman en ce qui concerne ces biens et propriétés, les vakoufs constitués sur ces biens devant être respectés.

Le litige surgi entre le Gouvernement hellénique et le Gouvernement turc relativement aux biens et propriétés passés de la Liste Civile à l'État et situés sur les territoires de l'ancien Empire ottoman transférés à la Grèce, soit à la suite des guerres balkaniques, soit postérieurement, sera soumis, selon un compromis à conclure, à un tribunal arbitral à La Haye, conformément au Protocole spécial n° 2 attaché au Traité d'Athènes du 1/14 novembre 1913.

Les dispositions du présent Article ne modifieront pas la nature juridique des biens et propriétés inscrits au nom de la Liste Civile ou administrés par elle et non visés aux alinéas 2 et 3 du présent Article.

Article 61.

Les bénéficiaires de pensions civiles et militaires turques devenus, en vertu du présent Traité, ressortissants d'un État autre que la Turquie, ne pourront exercer du chef de leurs pensions aucun recours contre le Gouvernement turc.

Article 62.

La Turquie reconnaît le transfert de toutes les créances que l'Allemagne, l'Autriche, la Bulgarie et la Hongrie possèdent contre elle, conformément à l'Article 261 du Traité de Paix conclu à Versailles le 28 juin 1919 avec l'Allemagne et aux articles correspondants des Traité de Paix du 10 septembre 1919 avec l'Autriche, du 27 novembre 1919 avec la Bulgarie et du 4 juin 1920 avec la Hongrie.

Les autres Puissances contractantes conviennent de libérer la Turquie des dettes qui lui incombent de ce chef.

On the other hand, Turkey, in consideration of the financial situation of Greece resulting from the prolongation of the war and from its consequences, finally renounces all claims for reparation against the Greek Government.

Article 60.

The States in favour of which territory was or is detached from the Ottoman Empire after the Balkan wars or by the present Treaty shall acquire, without payment, all the property and possessions of the Ottoman Empire situated therein.

It is understood that the property and possessions of which the transfer from the Civil List to the State was laid down by the Iradiés of the 26th August, 1824 (8th September, 1908) and the 20th April, 1825 (2nd May, 1909), and also those which, on the 30th October, 1918, were administered by the Civil List for the benefit of a public service, are included among the property and possessions referred to in the preceding paragraph, the aforesaid States being subrogated to the Ottoman Empire in regard to the property and possessions in question. The Wakfs created on such property shall be maintained.

The dispute which has arisen between the Greek and Turkish Governments relating to property and possessions which have passed from the Civil List to the State and are situated in territories of the former Ottoman Empire transferred to Greece either after the Balkan wars, or subsequently, shall be referred to an arbitral tribunal at The Hague, in accordance with the special protocol No. 2 annexed to the Treaty of Athens of the 1st–14th November, 1913. The terms of reference shall be settled between the two Governments.

The provisions of this Article will not modify the juridical nature of the property and possessions registered in the name of the Civil List or administered by it, which are not referred to in the second and third paragraphs above.

Article 61.

The recipients of Turkish civil and military pensions who acquire under the present Treaty the nationality of a State other than Turkey, shall have no claim against the Turkish Government in respect of their pensions.

Article 62.

Turkey recognises the transfer of any claims to payment or repayment which Germany, Austria, Bulgaria or Hungary may have against her, in accordance with Article 261 of the Treaty of Peace concluded at Versailles on the 28th June, 1919, with Germany, and the corresponding articles of the Treaties of Peace of the 10th September, 1919, with Austria; of the 27th November, 1919, with Bulgaria; and of the 4th June, 1920, with Hungary.

The other Contracting Powers agree to release Turkey from the debts for which she is liable on this account.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [29v] (63/260)

52

Les créances que la Turquie possède contre l'Allemagne, l'Autriche, la Bulgarie et Hongrie sont également transférées auxdites Puissances contractantes.

Article 63.

Le Gouvernement turc, d'accord avec les autres Puissances contractantes, déclare libérer le Gouvernement allemand des obligations contractées par celui-ci pendant la guerre d'accepter des billets émis par le Gouvernement turc à un taux de change déterminé, en paiement de marchandises à exporter d'Allemagne en Turquie après la guerre.

PARTIE III.

CLAUSES ÉCONOMIQUES.

Article 64.

Dans la présente Partie, l'expression "Puissances alliées" s'entend des Puissances contractantes autres que la Turquie; les termes "ressortissants alliés" comprennent les personnes physiques, les sociétés, associations et établissements, ressortissant aux Puissances contractantes autres que la Turquie, ou à un Etat ou territoire sous le protectorat d'une desdites Puissances.

Les dispositions de la présente Partie relatives aux "ressortissants alliés" profiteront aux personnes qui, sans avoir la nationalité des Puissances alliées, ont, en raison de la protection dont elles étaient, en fait, l'objet de la part de ces Puissances, reçu des autorités ottomanes le même traitement que les ressortissants alliés et ont, de ce chef, subi des dommages.

SECTION I.

BIENS, DROITS ET INTÉRÊTS.

Article 65.

Les biens, droits et intérêts, qui existent encore et pourront être identifiés sur les territoires restés turcs à la date de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, et qui appartiennent à des personnes étant, au 29 octobre 1914, ressortissants alliés, seront immédiatement restitués aux ayants droit, dans l'état où ils se trouvent.

Réciproquement, les biens, droits et intérêts, qui existent encore et pourront être identifiés sur les territoires placés sous la souveraineté ou le protectorat des Puissances alliées au 29 octobre 1914, ou sur des territoires détachés de l'Empire ottoman à la suite des guerres balkaniques et placés aujourd'hui sous la souveraineté desdites Puissances, et qui appartiennent à des ressortissants turcs, seront immédiatement restitués aux ayants droit, dans l'état où ils se trouvent. Il en sera de même des biens, droits et intérêts qui appartiennent à des ressortissants turcs sur les territoires détachés de l'Empire ottoman en vertu du présent Traité et qui auraient été l'objet de liquidations ou autres mesures exceptionnelles quelconques de la part des autorités des Puissances alliées.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [30r] (64/260)

The claims which Turkey has against Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Hungary, are also transferred to the aforesaid Contracting Powers.

Article 63.

The Turkish Government, in agreement with the other Contracting Powers, hereby releases the German Government from the obligation incurred by it during the war to accept Turkish Government currency notes at a specified rate of exchange in payment for goods to be exported to Turkey from Germany after the war.

PART III.

ECONOMIC CLAUSES.

Article 64.

In this part, the expression "Allied Powers" means the Contracting Powers other than Turkey.

The term "Allied nationals" includes physical persons, companies and associations of the Contracting Powers other than Turkey, or of a State or territory under the protection of one of the said Powers.

The provisions of this Part relating to "Allied Nationals" shall benefit persons who without having the nationality of one of the Allied Powers, have, in consequence of the protection which they in fact enjoyed at the hands of these Powers, received from the Ottoman authorities the same treatment as Allied nationals and have, on this account, been prejudiced.

SECTION I.

PROPERTY, RIGHTS AND INTERESTS.

Article 65.

Property, rights and interests which still exist and can be identified in territories remaining Turkish at the date of the coming into force of the present Treaty, and which belong to persons who on the 29th October, 1914, were Allied nationals, shall be immediately restored to the owners in their existing state.

Reciprocally, property, rights and interests which still exist and can be identified in territories subject to the sovereignty or protectorate of the Allied Powers on the 29th October, 1914, or in territories detached from the Ottoman Empire after the Balkan wars and subject to-day to the sovereignty of any such Power, and which belong to Turkish nationals, shall be immediately restored to the owners in their existing state. The same provision shall apply to property, rights and interests which belong to Turkish nationals in territories detached from the Ottoman Empire under the present Treaty, and which may have been subjected to liquidation or any other exceptional measure whatever on the part of the authorities of the Allied Powers.

Tous biens, droits et intérêts, qui sont situés sur un territoire détaché de l'Empire ottoman en vertu du présent Traité et qui, après avoir été l'objet d'une mesure exceptionnelle de guerre par le Gouvernement ottoman, sont actuellement entre les mains de la Puissance contractante exerçant l'autorité sur ledit territoire, et qui peuvent être identifiés, seront restitués à leur légitime propriétaire, dans l'état où ils se trouvent. Il en sera de même des biens immobiliers qui auraient été liquidés par la Puissance contractante exerçant l'autorité sur ledit territoire. Toutes autres revendications entre particuliers seront soumises à la juridiction compétente locale.

Tous litiges relatifs à l'identité ou à la restitution des biens réclamés seront soumis au Tribunal Arbitral Mixte prévu dans la Section V de la présente Partie.

Article 66.

Pour l'exécution des dispositions de l'Article 65, alinéas 1 et 2, les Hautes Parties contractantes remettront, par la procédure la plus rapide, les ayants droit en la possession de leurs biens, droits et intérêts, libres des charges ou servitudes dont ceux-ci auraient été grevés sans le consentement desdits ayants droit. Il appartiendra au Gouvernement de la Puissance effectuant la restitution, de pourvoir à l'indemnisation des tiers qui auraient acquis directement ou indirectement dudit Gouvernement et qui se trouveraient lésés par cette restitution. Les différends pouvant s'élever au sujet de cette indemnisation seront de la compétence des tribunaux de droit commun.

Dans tous les autres cas, il appartiendra aux tiers lésés d'agir contre qui de droit pour être indemnisés.

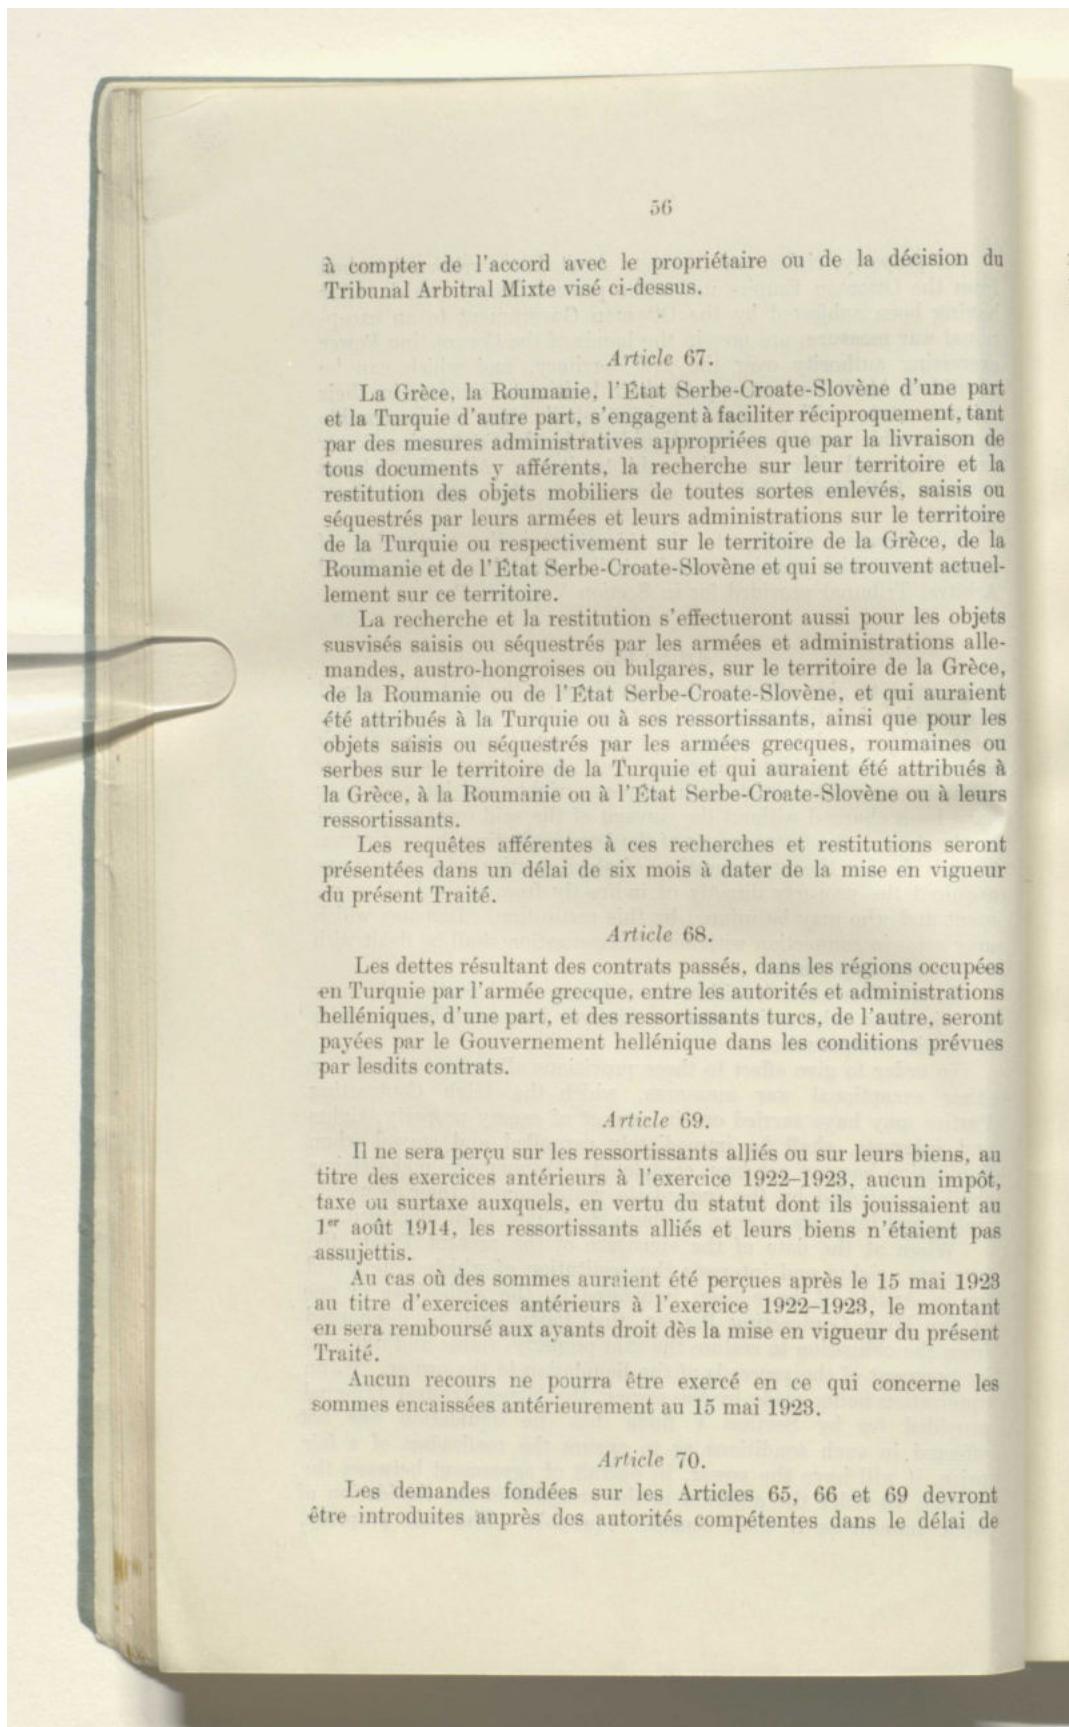

A cet effet, tous actes de disposition ou autres mesures exceptionnelles de guerre auxquelles les Hautes Parties contractantes auraient procédé à l'égard des biens, droits et intérêts ennemis, seront immédiatement levés et arrêtés s'il s'agit d'une liquidation non encore terminée. Les propriétaires réclamants recevront satisfaction par la restitution immédiate de leurs biens, droits et intérêts, dès que ceux-ci auront été identifiés.

Au cas où, à la date de la signature du présent Traité, les biens, droits et intérêts, dont la restitution est prévue par l'Article 65, se trouveraient avoir été liquidés par les autorités de l'une des Hautes Parties contractantes, celle-ci se trouvera libérée de l'obligation de restituer lesdits biens, droits et intérêts par le paiement à leur propriétaire du produit de la liquidation. Au cas où, sur la demande du propriétaire, le Tribunal Arbitral Mixte prévu à la Section V estimerait que la liquidation n'a pas été effectuée dans des conditions assurant la réalisation d'un juste prix, il pourra, à défaut d'accord entre les parties, augmenter le produit de la liquidation de telle somme qu'il jugera équitable. Lesdits biens, droits et intérêts seront restitués si le paiement n'est pas effectué dans un délai de deux mois.

Claims or suits begun against the British, French, Italian, Roumanian or Serb-Croat-Slovene Governments by the Ottoman Government or its nationals will similarly not be prejudiced. These claims or suits will be continued against the Turkish Government and against the other Governments mentioned in this Article under the conditions existing before the 29th October, 1914, due regard being had to the abolition of the Capitulations.

Article 75.

Article 77.

Restent en vigueur et soumis au droit commun les contrats entre ressortissants alliés et turcs conclus postérieurement au 30 octobre 1918.

Restent également en vigueur et soumis au droit commun les contrats dûment intervenus avec le Gouvernement de Constantinople postérieurement au 30 octobre 1918 jusqu'au 16 mars 1920.

Tous contracts et arrangements dûment conclus postérieurement au 16 mars 1920 avec le Gouvernement de Constantinople et intéressant les territoires demeurés sous l'autorité effective dudit Gouvernement seront soumis à l'approbation de la Grande Assemblée Nationale de Turquie sur la demande des intéressés présentée dans un délai de trois mois, à compter de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité. Les paiements effectués en vertu de ces contrats seront dûment portés au crédit de la partie qui les aurait effectués.

Au cas où l'approbation ne serait pas accordée, la partie intéressée aura droit, s'il y a lieu, à une indemnité correspondant au dommage direct effectivement subi et qui, à défaut d'accord amiable, sera fixée par le Tribunal Arbitral Mixte.

Les dispositions du présent Article ne sont applicables ni aux contrats de concession ni aux transferts de concessions.

Article 78.

Tous les différends déjà existants, ou pouvant s'élever avant l'expiration du délai de six mois prévu ci-après, au sujet des contrats autres que les contrats de concession intervenus entre parties devenues par la suite ennemis, seront réglés par le Tribunal Arbitral Mixte, à l'exception des différends qui, par application des lois des Puissances neutres, seraient de la compétence des tribunaux nationaux de ces Puissances. En ce dernier cas, ces différends seront réglés par ces tribunaux nationaux à l'exclusion du Tribunal Arbitral Mixte. Les plaintes relatives aux différends, qui, en vertu du présent Article, sont de la compétence du Tribunal Arbitral Mixte, devront être présentées audit Tribunal dans un délai de six mois à compter de la date de constitution de ce Tribunal.

Ce délai expiré, les différends qui n'auraient pas été soumis au Tribunal Arbitral Mixte seront réglés par les juridictions compétentes d'après le droit commun.

Les dispositions du présent Article ne sont pas applicables lorsque toutes les parties au contrat résidaient dans le même pays pendant la guerre et y disposaient librement de leurs personnes et de leurs biens, ni lorsqu'il s'agit d'un différend au sujet duquel un jugement a été rendu par un tribunal compétent antérieurement à la date à laquelle les parties sont devenues ennemis.

ting Powers, parties to contracts specified in Articles 73 to 75, particularly those providing for the cancellation, the maintenance, the methods of execution, or the modification of such contracts, including agreements relating to the currency of payment or the rate of exchange, is confirmed.

Article 77.

Contracts between Allied and Turkish nationals concluded after the 30th October, 1918, remain in force and will be governed by the ordinary law.

Contracts duly concluded with the Constantinople Government between the 30th October, 1918, and the 16th March, 1920, also remain in force and will be governed by the ordinary law.

All contracts and arrangements duly concluded after the 16th March, 1920, with the Constantinople Government concerning territories which remained under the effective control of the said Government, shall be submitted to the Grand National Assembly of Turkey for approval, if the parties concerned make application within three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty. Payments made under such contracts shall be duly credited to the party who has made them.

If approval is not granted, the party concerned shall, if the circumstances demand it, be entitled to compensation corresponding to the direct loss which has been actually suffered; such compensation, in default of an amicable agreement, shall be fixed by the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal.

The provisions of this Article are not applicable either to concessionary contracts or to transfers of concessions.

Article 78.

All disputes which already exist, or may arise within the period of six months mentioned below, relating to contracts, other than concessionary contracts, between parties who subsequently became enemies, shall be determined by the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal, with the exception of disputes which, in accordance with the laws of neutral Powers are within the competence of the national courts of those Powers. In the latter case, such disputes shall be determined by the said national courts, to the exclusion of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal. Applications relating to disputes which, under this Article, are within the competence of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal, must be presented to the said Tribunal within a period of six months from the date of its establishment.

After the expiration of this period, disputes which have not been submitted to the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal shall be determined by the competent courts in accordance with the ordinary law.

The provisions of this Article do not apply to cases in which all the parties to the contract resided in the same country during the war and there freely disposed of their persons and their property, nor to disputes in respect of which judgment was given by a competent court before the date on which the parties became enemies.

Article 79.

Sur le territoire des Hautes parties contractantes, dans les rapports entre ennemis, tous délais quelconques de prescription, de préemption ou forclusion de procédure, qu'ils aient commencé à courir avant le début de la guerre ou après, seront considérés comme ayant été suspendus depuis le 29 octobre 1914 jusqu'à l'expiration de trois mois après la mise en vigueur du présent Traité.

Cette disposition s'applique notamment aux délais de présentation de coupons d'intérêts et de dividendes, et de présentation, en vue du remboursement, des valeurs sorties au tirage ou remboursables à tout autre titre.

En ce qui concerne la Roumanie, les délais ci-dessus seront considérés comme ayant été suspendus à partir du 27 août 1916.

Article 80.

Dans les rapports entre ennemis, aucun effet de commerce émis avant la guerre ne sera considéré comme invalidé par le seul fait de n'avoir pas été présenté pour acceptation ou pour paiement dans les délais voulus, ni pour défaut d'avis aux tireurs ou aux endosseurs de non-acceptation ou de non-paiement, ni en raison du défaut de protêt ni pour défaut d'accomplissement d'une formalité quelconque pendant la guerre.

Si la période pendant laquelle un effet de commerce aurait dû être présenté à l'acceptation ou au paiement, ou pendant laquelle l'avis de non-acceptation ou de non-paiement aurait dû être donné aux tireurs ou endosseurs, ou pendant laquelle il aurait dû être protesté, est échue pendant la guerre, et si la partie qui aurait dû présenter ou protester l'effet ou donner avis de la non-acceptation ou du non-paiement ne l'a pas fait pendant la guerre, il lui sera accordé trois mois après la mise en vigueur du présent Traité pour présenter l'effet, donner avis de non-acceptation ou de non-paiement ou dresser protêt.

Article 81.

Les ventes effectuées pendant la guerre en réalisation de nantissements ou d'hypothèques constitués avant la guerre et garantissant des dettes devenues exigibles, seront réputées acquises, encore que toutes les formalités requises pour avertir le débiteur n'aient pu être observées et sous réserve expresse du droit dudit débiteur d'assigner le créancier devant le Tribunal Arbitral Mixte en reddition de comptes à peine de tous dommages et intérêts.

Le Tribunal aura pour mission d'apurer les comptes entre les parties, de vérifier les conditions dans lesquelles le bien donné en nantissement ou en hypothèque a été vendu et de mettre à la charge du créancier la réparation du préjudice qu'aurait subi le débiteur par suite de la vente, si le créancier a agi de mauvaise foi, ou s'il n'a pas fait toutes diligences en son pouvoir pour éviter de recourir à la vente, ou pour que celle-ci soit effectuée dans des conditions assurant la réalisation d'un juste prix.

La présente disposition ne sera applicable qu'entre ennemis et

Art. 79.

All periods whatever of prescription or limitation of right of action, whether they began to run before or after the outbreak of war, shall be treated, in the territory of the High Contracting Parties so far as regards relations between enemies, as having been suspended from the 29th October, 1914, until the expiration of three months after the coming into force of the present Treaty.

This provision applies, in particular, to periods of time allowed for the presentation of interest or dividend coupons, or for the presentation for payment of securities drawn for redemption or repayable on any other ground.

As regards Roumania, the above-mentioned periods shall be considered as having been suspended as from the 27th August, 1916.

Article 80.

As between enemies no negotiable instrument made before the war shall be deemed to have become invalid by reason only of failure within the required time to present the instrument for acceptance or payment, or to give notice of non-acceptance or non-payment to drawers or endorsers, or to protest the instrument, nor by reason of failure to complete any formality during the war.

When the period within which a negotiable instrument should have been presented for acceptance or payment, or within which notice of non-acceptance or non-payment should have been given to the drawers or endorsers, or within which the instrument should have been protested, has expired during the war, and when the party who should have presented or protested the instrument or given notice of non-acceptance or non-payment, has failed to do so during the war, a period of three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty shall be allowed within which the presentation, notice of non-acceptance or non-payment, or protest may be made.

Article 81.

Sales effected during the war in order to realise pledges or mortgages created before the war as security for debts which have become payable, shall be deemed valid, although it may not have been possible to perform all the formalities required for notifying the debtor, subject to the express right of the said debtor to summon the creditor before the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal to render accounts, failing which the creditor will be liable to be cast in damages.

It shall be the duty of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal to settle the accounts between the parties, to investigate the conditions under which the property pledged or mortgaged was sold, and to order the creditor to make good any loss suffered by the debtor as a result of the sale if the creditor acted in bad faith or if he did not take all steps in his power to avoid having recourse to a sale or to cause the sale to be conducted in such conditions as to ensure the realisation of a fair price.

Au sens de la présente Section, les personnes parties à un contrat seront considérées comme ennemis à partir de la date à laquelle le commerce entre elles sera devenu impossible en fait ou aura été interdit ou sera devenu illégal en vertu des lois, décrets ou règlements auxquels une de ces parties était soumise.

Par dérogation aux Articles 73 à 75, 79 et 80, seront soumis au droit commun les contrats conclus sur le territoire de l'une des Hautes Parties contractantes entre personnes ennemis (y compris les sociétés) ou leurs agents, si ce territoire était pays ennemi pour l'un des contractants qui y est resté pendant la guerre en y pouvant librement disposer de sa personne et de ses biens.

I. ASSURANCES SUR LA VIE.

Les contrats d'assurances sur la vie, passés entre un assureur et une personne devenue par la suite ennemie, ne seront pas considérés comme annulés par l'ouverture des hostilités ou par le fait que la personne est devenue ennemie.

Toute somme assurée devenue effectivement exigible pendant la guerre, aux termes d'un contrat qui, en vertu de l'alinéa précédent, n'est pas considéré comme annulé, sera recouvrable après la guerre. Cette somme sera augmentée des intérêts à 5 p. o/o l'an depuis la date de son exigibilité jusqu'au jour du paiement.

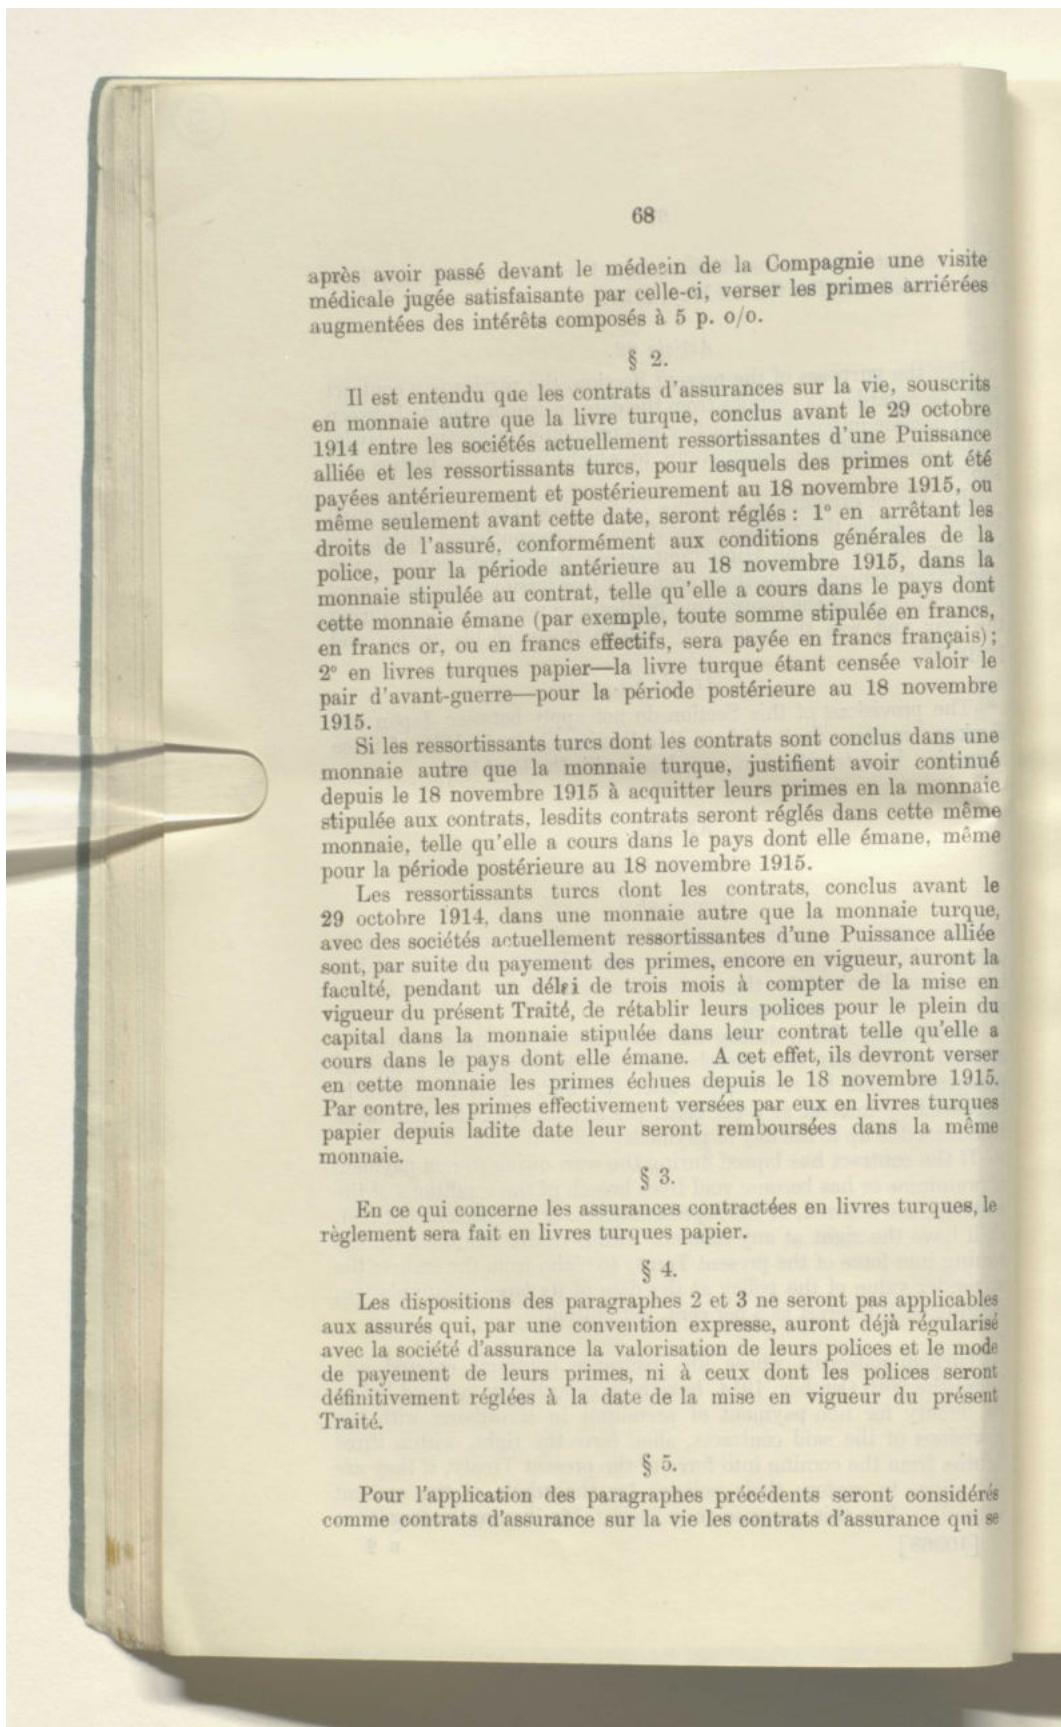

Si le contrat est devenu caduc pendant la guerre par suite du non-paiement des primes, ou s'il est devenu sans effet par suite du non-accomplissement des clauses du contrat, l'assuré ou ses représentants ou ayants droit auront le droit, à tout moment, pendant douze mois à dater du jour de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, de réclamer à l'assureur la valeur de rachat de la police au jour de sa caducité ou de son annulation, augmentée des intérêts à 5 p. o/o l'an.

Les ressortissants turcs dont les contrats d'assurance sur la vie, souscrits antérieurement au 29 octobre 1914, ont été annulés ou réduits, antérieurement au présent Traité, pour non-paiement des primes, conformément aux dispositions desdits contrats, auront la faculté pendant un délai de trois mois, à compter de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, et s'ils sont alors vivants, de rétablir leurs polices pour le plein du capital assuré. A cet effet, ils devront, après avoir passé devant le médecin de la Compagnie une visite médicale jugée satisfaisante par celle-ci, verser les primes arriérées augmentées des intérêts composés à 5 p. o/o.

Il est entendu que les contrats d'assurances sur la vie, souscrits en monnaie autre que la livre turque, conclus avant le 29 octobre 1914 entre les sociétés actuellement ressortissantes d'une Puissance alliée et les ressortissants turcs, pour lesquels des primes ont été payées antérieurement et postérieurement au 18 novembre 1915, ou même seulement avant cette date, seront réglés : 1<sup>e</sup> en arrêtant les droits de l'assuré, conformément aux conditions générales de la police, pour la période antérieure au 18 novembre 1915, dans la monnaie stipulée au contrat, telle qu'elle a cours dans le pays dont cette monnaie émane (par exemple, toute somme stipulée en francs, en francs or, ou en francs effectifs, sera payée en francs français); 2<sup>e</sup> en livres turques papier—la livre turque étant censée valoir le pair d'avant-guerre—pour la période postérieure au 18 novembre 1915.

Si les ressortissants turcs dont les contrats sont conclus dans une monnaie autre que la monnaie turque, justifient avoir continué depuis le 18 novembre 1915 à acquitter leurs primes en la monnaie stipulée aux contrats, lesdits contrats seront réglés dans cette même monnaie, telle qu'elle a cours dans le pays dont elle émane, même pour la période postérieure au 18 novembre 1915.

Les ressortissants turcs dont les contrats, conclus avant le 29 octobre 1914, dans une monnaie autre que la monnaie turque, avec des sociétés actuellement ressortissantes d'une Puissance alliée sont, par suite du paiement des primes, encore en vigueur, auront la faculté, pendant un délai de trois mois à compter de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, de rétablir leurs polices pour le plein du capital dans la monnaie stipulée dans leur contrat telle qu'elle a cours dans le pays dont elle émane. A cet effet, ils devront verser en cette monnaie les primes échues depuis le 18 novembre 1915. Par contre, les primes effectivement versées par eux en livres turques papier depuis ladite date leur seront remboursées dans la même monnaie.

En ce qui concerne les assurances contractées en livres turques, le règlement sera fait en livres turques papier.

§ 4.

Les dispositions des paragraphes 2 et 3 ne seront pas applicables aux assurés qui, par une convention expresse, auront déjà régularisé avec la société d'assurance la valorisation de leurs polices et le mode de paiement de leurs primes, ni à ceux dont les polices seront définitivement réglées à la date de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité.

§ 5.

Pour l'application des paragraphes précédents seront considérés comme contrats d'assurance sur la vie les contrats d'assurance qui se

Article 88.

No action shall be brought and no claim made on the one hand by Turkish nationals or persons residing or carrying on business in Turkey, and on the other hand by nationals of the Allied Powers or persons residing or carrying on their business in the territory of these Powers, nor by third parties having derived title during the war from such persons, by reason of any occurrence which has taken place within the territory of the other party, between the date of the beginning of a state of war and that of the coming into force of the present Treaty, which might be held to constitute an infringement of rights of industrial property or rights of literary or artistic property either existing at any time during the war, or revived under the provisions of Article 86.

Among the occurrences referred to above are included the use by the Governments of the High Contracting Parties, or by any person acting on their behalf, or with their consent, of rights of industrial, literary or artistic property, as well as the sale, the offering for sale or the use of products, apparatus, or any articles whatsoever to which these rights apply.

Article 89.

Licences for the use of industrial property, or for the reproduction of literary or artistic works, granted before the war by or to nationals of the Allied Powers or persons residing in their territories or carrying on business therein, on the one hand, to or by Turkish nationals on the other hand, shall be considered as cancelled as from the date of the beginning of a state of war between Turkey and the Allied Power concerned. But in any case, the former beneficiary of a licence of this kind shall have the right within a period of six months from the coming into force of the present Treaty to require from the proprietor of the rights the grant of a new licence, the conditions of which, in default of agreement between the parties, shall be fixed by the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal referred to in Section V of this Part. The Tribunal shall have the power, where the circumstances demand it, to fix at the same time the amount which it considers fair payment for the use of the property during the war.

Article 90.

The inhabitants of territories detached from Turkey under the present Treaty shall, notwithstanding this transfer and the change of nationality consequent thereon, continue in complete enjoyment in Turkey of all the rights in industrial, literary and artistic property to which they were entitled under Ottoman law at the time of transfer.

Rights of industrial, literary and artistic property which are in existence in territories detached from Turkey under the present Treaty at the time of separation, or which are re-established or restored by the provisions of Article 86, shall be recognised by the State to which the said territory is transferred, and shall remain in existence in that territory for the same period of time as that which they would have enjoyed under Ottoman law.

Tout octroi de brevets d'invention ou enregistrement de marques de fabrique aussi bien que tout enregistrement de transfert ou cession de brevets ou de marques de fabrique, qui ont été dûment effectués depuis le 30 octobre 1918 par le Gouvernement impérial ottoman à Constantinople ou ailleurs, seront soumis au Gouvernement turc et enregistrés sur la demande des intéressés présentée dans un délai de trois mois à compter de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité. Cet enregistrement aura effet à compter de la date de l'enregistrement primitif.

SECTION V.

TRIBUNAL ARBITRAL MIXTE.

Article 92.

Un Tribunal Arbitral Mixte sera constitué entre chacune des Puissances Alliées, d'une part, et la Turquie, d'autre part, dans le délai de trois mois à dater de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité.

Chacun de ces tribunaux sera composé de trois membres, dont deux respectivement nommés par chacun des Gouvernements intéressés, qui auront la faculté de désigner plusieurs personnes parmi lesquelles ils choisiront celle appelée à siéger, selon les cas, comme membre du Tribunal. Le Président sera nommé après accord entre les deux Gouvernements intéressés.

Au cas où cet accord ne serait pas réalisé dans le délai de deux mois à compter de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, ledit Président sera désigné, à la demande d'un des Gouvernements intéressés, parmi les personnes ressortissant à des Puissances demeurées neutres pendant la guerre, par le Président de la Cour permanente de Justice Internationale de la Haye.

Si, dans ledit délai de deux mois, un des Gouvernements intéressés ne nomme pas le membre devant le représenter au Tribunal, il appartiendra au Conseil de la Société des Nations de procéder à la nomination de ce membre, à la demande de l'autre Gouvernement intéressé.

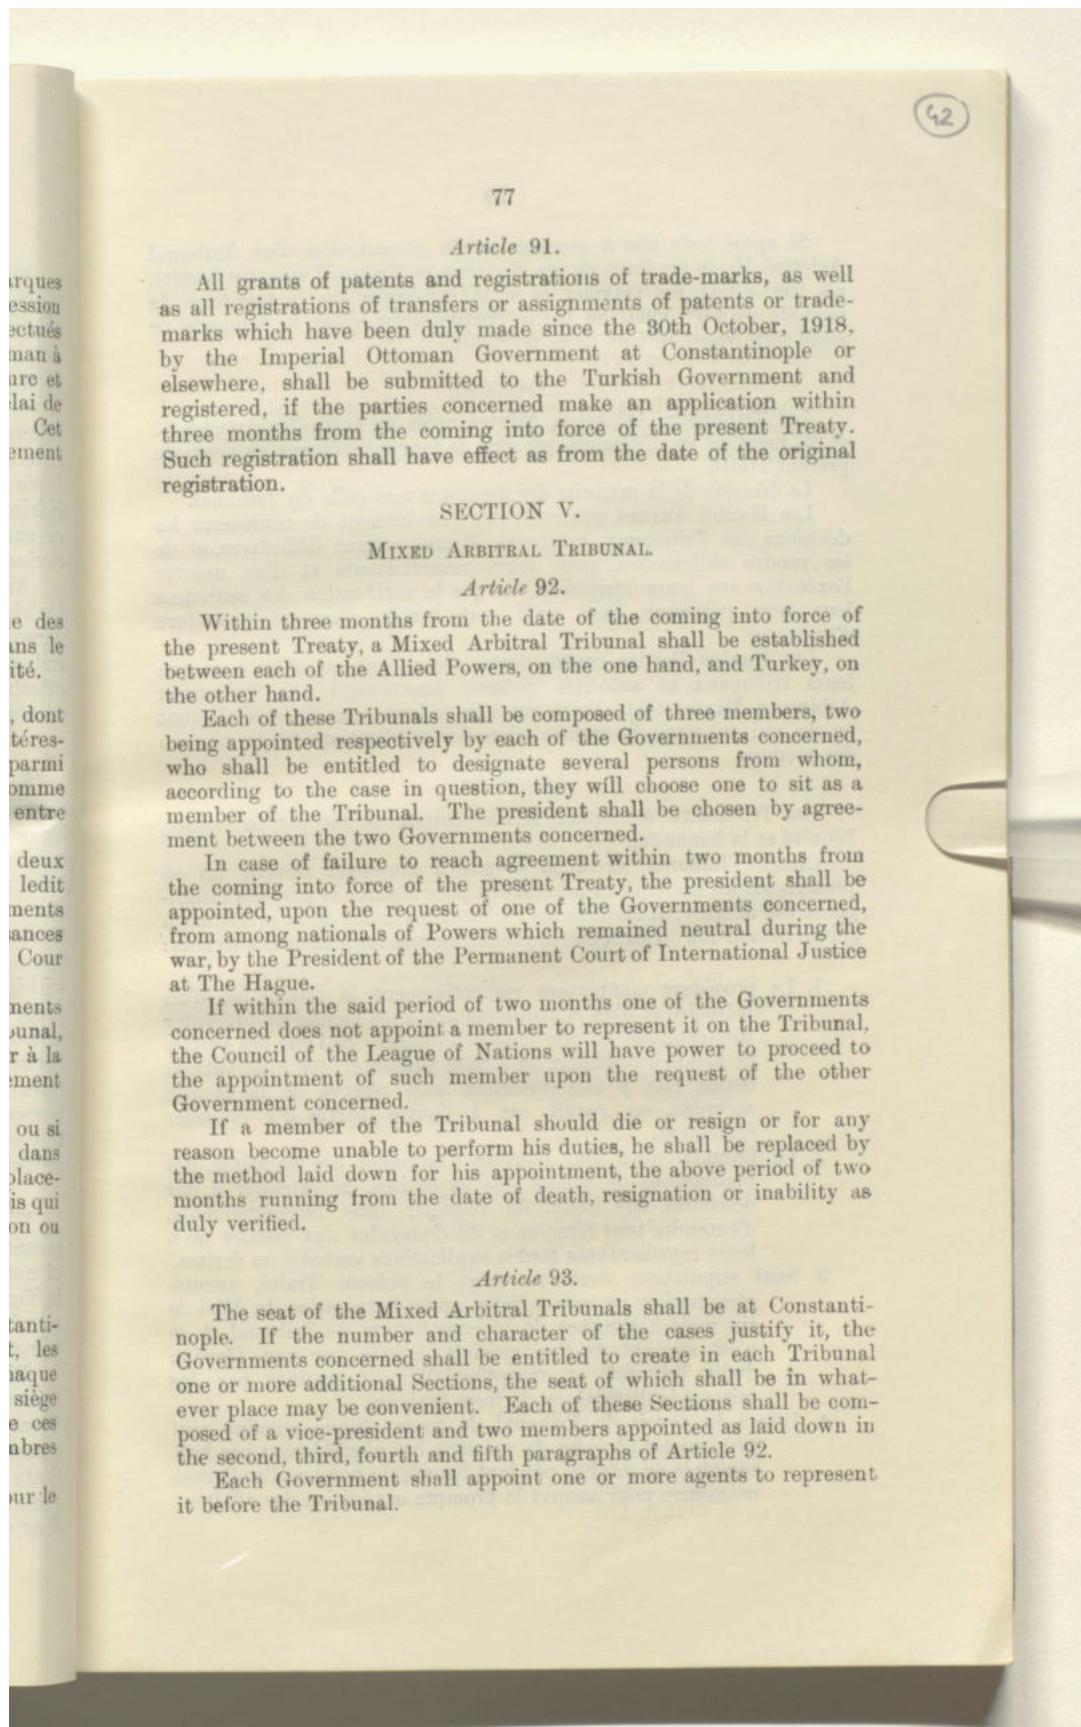

En cas de décès ou de démission d'un membre du Tribunal ou si un membre du Tribunal se trouve, pour une raison quelconque, dans l'impossibilité de remplir ses fonctions, il sera pourvu à son remplacement selon le mode fixé pour sa nomination, le délai de deux mois qui est prévu commençant à courir du jour du décès, de la démission ou de l'impossibilité dûment constatée.

Article 93.

Les Tribunaux Arbitraux Mixtes auront leur siège à Constantinople. Si le nombre et la nature des affaires le justifient, les Gouvernements intéressés auront la faculté de créer dans chaque Tribunal une ou plusieurs sections supplémentaires, dont le siège pourra être fixé dans tel lieu qu'il appartiendra. Chacune de ces sections sera composée d'un Vice-Président et de deux membres nommés comme il est dit à l'Article 92, alinéas 2 à 5.

Chaque Gouvernement désignera un ou plusieurs agents pour le représenter devant le Tribunal.

Article 91.

All grants of patents and registrations of trade-marks, as well as all registrations of transfers or assignments of patents or trade-marks which have been duly made since the 30th October, 1918, by the Imperial Ottoman Government at Constantinople or elsewhere, shall be submitted to the Turkish Government and registered, if the parties concerned make an application within three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty. Such registration shall have effect as from the date of the original registration.

SECTION V.

MIXED ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL.

Article 92.

Within three months from the date of the coming into force of the present Treaty, a Mixed Arbitral Tribunal shall be established between each of the Allied Powers, on the one hand, and Turkey, on the other hand.

Each of these Tribunals shall be composed of three members, two being appointed respectively by each of the Governments concerned, who shall be entitled to designate several persons from whom, according to the case in question, they will choose one to sit as a member of the Tribunal. The president shall be chosen by agreement between the two Governments concerned.

In case of failure to reach agreement within two months from the coming into force of the present Treaty, the president shall be appointed, upon the request of one of the Governments concerned, from among nationals of Powers which remained neutral during the war, by the President of the Permanent Court of International Justice at The Hague.

If within the said period of two months one of the Governments concerned does not appoint a member to represent it on the Tribunal, the Council of the League of Nations will have power to proceed to the appointment of such member upon the request of the other Government concerned.

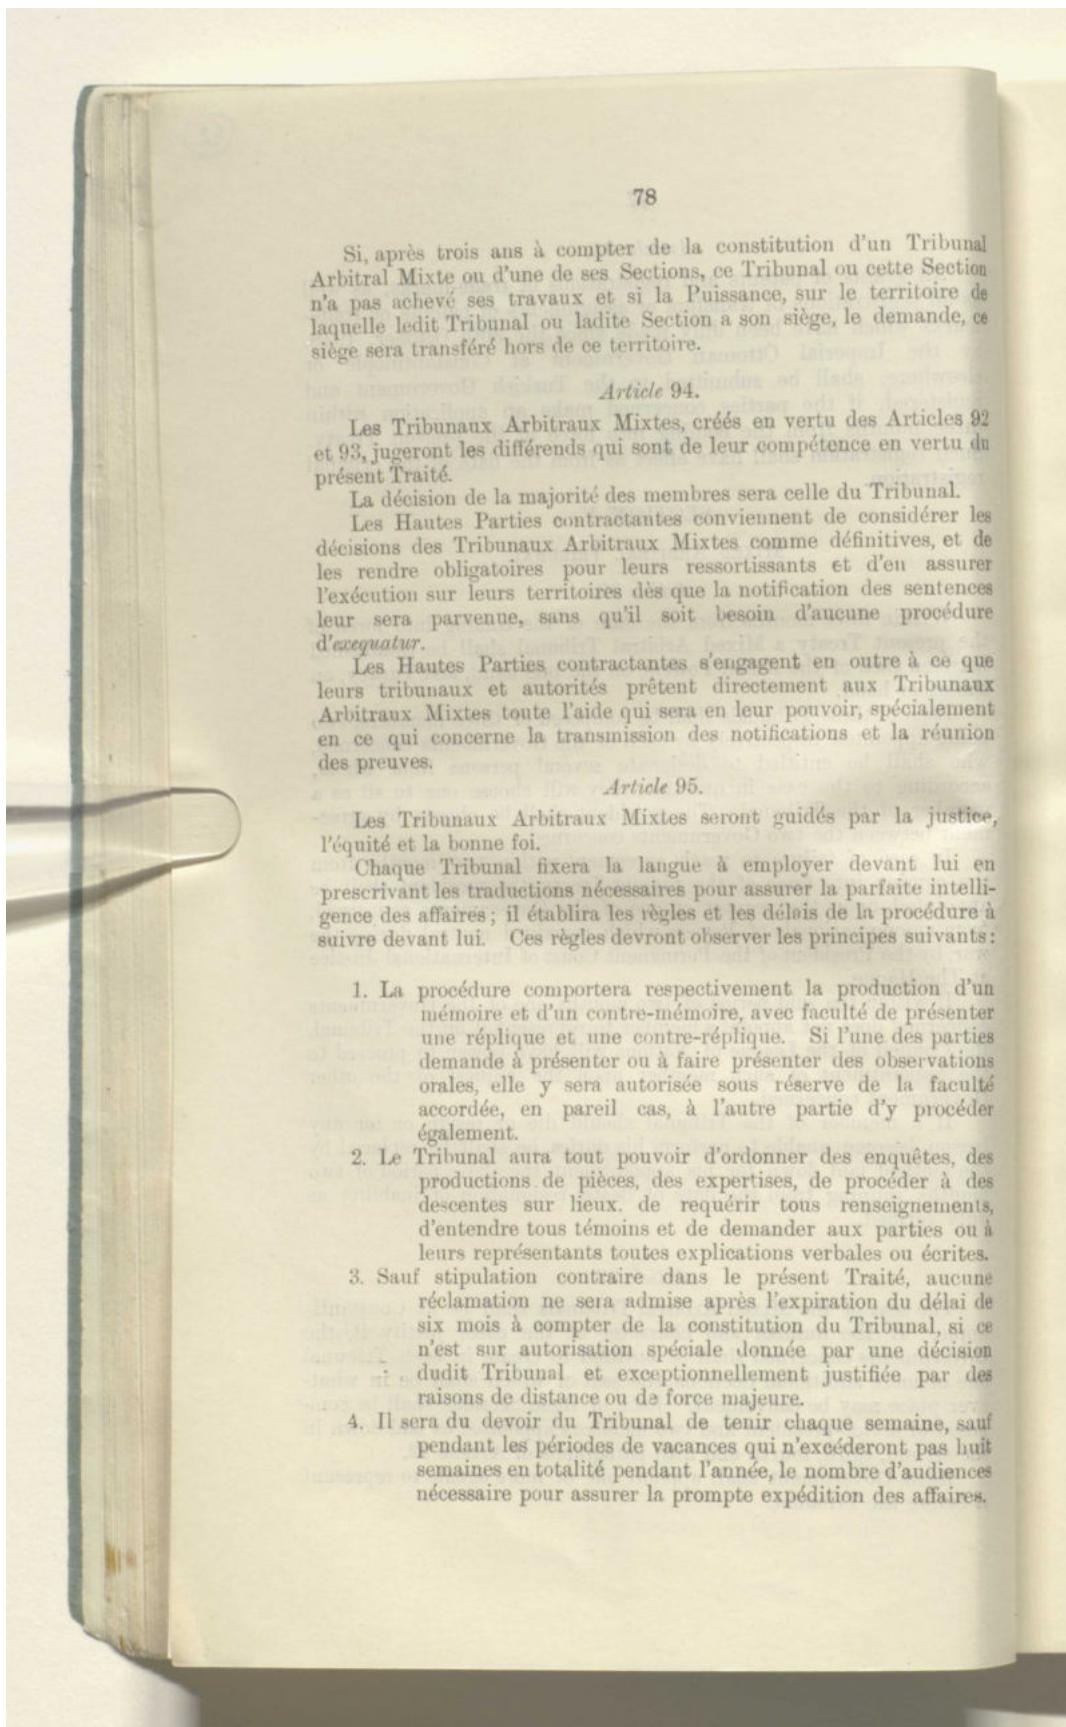

If a member of the Tribunal should die or resign or for any reason become unable to perform his duties, he shall be replaced by the method laid down for his appointment, the above period of two months running from the date of death, resignation or inability as duly verified.

Article 93.

The seat of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunals shall be at Constantinople. If the number and character of the cases justify it, the Governments concerned shall be entitled to create in each Tribunal one or more additional Sections, the seat of which shall be in whatever place may be convenient. Each of these Sections shall be composed of a vice-president and two members appointed as laid down in the second, third, fourth and fifth paragraphs of Article 92.

Each Government shall appoint one or more agents to represent it before the Tribunal.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [42v] (89/260)

Si, après trois ans à compter de la constitution d'un Tribunal Arbitral Mixte ou d'une de ses Sections, ce Tribunal ou cette Section n'a pas achevé ses travaux et si la Puissance, sur le territoire de laquelle ledit Tribunal ou ladite Section a son siège, le demande, ce siège sera transféré hors de ce territoire.

Article 94.

Les Tribunaux Arbitraux Mixtes, créés en vertu des Articles 92 et 93, jugeront les différends qui sont de leur compétence en vertu du présent Traité.

La décision de la majorité des membres sera celle du Tribunal.

Les Hautes Parties contractantes conviennent de considérer les décisions des Tribunaux Arbitraux Mixtes comme définitives, et de les rendre obligatoires pour leurs ressortissants et d'en assurer l'exécution sur leurs territoires dès que la notification des sentences leur sera parvenue, sans qu'il soit besoin d'aucune procédure d'exequatur.

Les Hautes Parties contractantes s'engagent en outre à ce que leurs tribunaux et autorités prêtent directement aux Tribunaux Arbitraux Mixtes toute l'aide qui sera en leur pouvoir, spécialement en ce qui concerne la transmission des notifications et la réunion des preuves.

Article 95.

Les Tribunaux Arbitraux Mixtes seront guidés par la justice, l'équité et la bonne foi.

Chaque Tribunal fixera la langue à employer devant lui en prescrivant les traductions nécessaires pour assurer la parfaite intelligence des affaires ; il établira les règles et les délais de la procédure à suivre devant lui. Ces règles devront observer les principes suivants :

1. La procédure comportera respectivement la production d'un mémoire et d'un contre-mémoire, avec faculté de présenter une réplique et une contre-réplique. Si l'une des parties demande à présenter ou à faire présenter des observations orales, elle y sera autorisée sous réserve de la faculté accordée, en pareil cas, à l'autre partie d'y procéder également.
2. Le Tribunal aura tout pouvoir d'ordonner des enquêtes, des productions de pièces, des expertises, de procéder à des descentes sur lieux, de requérir tous renseignements, d'entendre tous témoins et de demander aux parties ou à leurs représentants toutes explications verbales ou écrites.
3. Sauf stipulation contraire dans le présent Traité, aucune réclamation ne sera admise après l'expiration du délai de six mois à compter de la constitution du Tribunal, si ce n'est sur autorisation spéciale donnée par une décision dudit Tribunal et exceptionnellement justifiée par des raisons de distance ou de force majeure.
4. Il sera du devoir du Tribunal de tenir chaque semaine, sauf pendant les périodes de vacances qui n'excéderont pas huit semaines en totalité pendant l'année, le nombre d'audiences nécessaire pour assurer la prompte expédition des affaires.

If, after three years from the establishment of a Mixed Arbitral Tribunal, or of one of its Sections, such Tribunal or Section has not finished its work, and if the Power on whose territory such Tribunal or Section has its seat so requests, the seat shall be removed from such territory.

Article 94.

The Mixed Arbitral Tribunals established pursuant to Articles 92 and 93 shall decide all questions within their competence under the present Treaty.

Decisions shall be taken by a majority.

The High Contracting Parties agree to regard the decisions of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunals as final and conclusive, and to render them binding upon their nationals, and to ensure their enforcement in their respective territories as soon as the decisions of the Tribunals are notified to them, without it being necessary to have them declared executory.

The High Contracting Parties further undertake that their Tribunals and authorities shall directly assist the Mixed Arbitral Tribunals in every way that is in their power, particularly as regards the transmission of notices and the collection of evidence.

Article 95.

The Mixed Arbitral Tribunals shall be guided by justice, equity and good faith.

Each Tribunal will determine the language to be used before it, and shall order such translations to be made as are necessary to ensure that the proceedings are completely understood; it will lay down rules and time limits for the procedure to be observed. These rules must be based on the following principles:—

1. The procedure shall include the presentation of a memorial and a counter-memorial respectively, with the option of presenting a reply and a rejoinder. If either of the parties asks for leave to present an oral argument he will be permitted to do so; in such case the other party will have the same right.
2. The Tribunal shall have full power to order enquiries, the production of documents, and expert examinations, to make a view, to demand any information, to hear any witnesses and to ask the parties or their representatives for any verbal or written explanations.
3. Subject to any contrary provision in the present Treaty, no claim shall be admitted after the expiry of a period of six months from the establishment of the Tribunal, except upon express authority contained in a decision of the said Tribunal and justified as an exceptional measure by considerations relating to distance or force majeure.
4. It shall be the duty of the Tribunal to hold as many sittings each week as may be needed for the prompt despatch of its business, except during vacations, which shall not exceed a total of eight weeks a year.

5. Les jugements devront toujours être rendus au plus tard deux mois après la clôture des débats, qui comportera la mise de l'affaire au délibéré du Tribunal.
6. Les débats oraux, lorsque l'affaire en comportera, et, dans tous les cas, le prononcé des jugements auront lieu en audience publique.
7. Chaque Tribunal Arbitral Mixte aura la faculté, s'il le juge utile à la bonne expédition des affaires, de tenir une ou plusieurs audiences hors de son siège.

Article 96.

Les Gouvernements intéressés désigneront d'un commun accord un Secrétaire général pour chaque Tribunal, et lui adjointront chacun un ou plusieurs Secrétaires. Le Secrétaire général et les Secrétaires seront sous les ordres du Tribunal qui, avec l'agrément des Gouvernements intéressés, pourra engager toutes personnes dont le concours lui sera nécessaire.

Le Secrétariat de chaque Tribunal aura ses bureaux à Constantinople ; il appartiendra aux Gouvernements intéressés de créer des bureaux annexes en tel autre lieu qu'il appartiendra.

Chaque Tribunal conservera, dans son Secrétariat, les archives, pièces et documents des affaires qui lui auront été soumises et, à l'expiration de son mandat, en effectuera le dépôt dans les archives du Gouvernement où il aura eu son siège. Ces archives seront toujours ouvertes aux Gouvernements intéressés.

Article 97.

Chaque Gouvernement payera les honoraires du membre du Tribunal Arbitral Mixte qu'il nomme, ainsi que ceux de tout agent et secrétaire qu'il désignera.

Les honoraires du Président et ceux du Secrétaire général seront fixés d'accord entre les Gouvernements intéressés, et ces honoraires, ainsi que les dépenses communes du Tribunal, seront payés par moitié par les deux Gouvernements.

Article 98.

La présente Section ne sera pas applicable aux affaires qui, entre le Japon et la Turquie, seraient, d'après le présent Traité, de la compétence du Tribunal Arbitral Mixte ; ces affaires seront réglées suivant accord entre les deux Gouvernements.

SECTION VI.

6. Oral arguments, if any, shall be heard in public, and in all cases judgment shall be delivered in public.

7. Each Mixed Arbitral Tribunal shall be entitled to hold sittings elsewhere than in the place where its seat is established, if it considers it advantageous for the despatch of business.

Article 96.

The Governments concerned shall appoint by agreement a Secretary-General for each Tribunal, and shall each attach to him one or more Secretaries. The Secretary-General and the Secretaries shall be under the orders of the Tribunal, which with the consent of the Governments concerned shall be entitled to engage any persons whose assistance it may need.

The Secretariat of each Tribunal shall have its offices at Constantinople. The Governments concerned shall have power to establish additional offices in such other places as may be convenient.

Turkey undertakes to adhere to the Convention and to the Statute respecting the Freedom of Transit adopted by the Conference of Barcelona on the 14th April, 1921, as well as to the Convention and the Statute respecting the régime for waterways of international interest adopted by the said Conference on the 19th April, 1921, and to the supplementary Protocol.

Turkey accordingly undertakes to bring into force the provisions of these Conventions, Statutes and Protocol as from the entry into force of the present Treaty.

Article 102.

Turkey undertakes to adhere to the Declaration of Barcelona, dated the 20th April, 1921, "recognising the rights of the flag of States not possessing a sea-board."

Article 103.

Turkey undertakes to adhere to the recommendations of the Conference of Barcelona, dated the 20th April, 1921, respecting ports placed under an international régime. Turkey will subsequently make known those ports which will be placed under that régime.

Article 104.

Turkey undertakes to adhere to the recommendations of the Conference of Barcelona, dated the 20th April, 1921, respecting international railways. These recommendations will be brought into force by the Turkish Government on the coming into force of the present Treaty and subject to reciprocity.

On the coming into force of the present Treaty, Turkey agrees to subscribe to the Conventions and arrangements signed at Berne on

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [46v] (97/260)

14 octobre 1890, le 20 septembre 1893, le 16 juillet 1895, le 16 juin 1898 et le 19 septembre 1906 sur le transport des marchandises par voies ferrées.

Article 106.

Lorsque, par suite du tracé des nouvelles frontières, une ligne reliant deux parties d'un même pays traversera un autre pays, ou lorsqu'une ligne d'embranchement partant d'un pays se terminera dans un autre, les conditions d'exploitation, en ce qui concerne le trafic entre les deux pays, seront, sous réserve de stipulations spéciales, réglées par un arrangement à conclure entre les administrations de chemins de fer intéressées. Au cas où ces administrations ne parviendraient pas à se mettre d'accord sur les conditions de cet arrangement, ces conditions seront fixées par voie d'arbitrage.

L'établissement de toutes les nouvelles gares frontières entre la Turquie et les Etats limitrophes, ainsi que l'exploitation des lignes entre ces gares, seront réglés par des arrangements conclus dans les mêmes conditions.

Article 107.

Les voyageurs et les marchandises en provenance ou à destination de la Turquie ou de la Grèce, utilisant en transit les trois tronçons des Chemins de fer orientaux compris entre la frontière gréco-bulgare et la frontière gréco-turque près de Kouleli-Burgas, ne seront du fait de ce transit assujettis à aucun droit ou taxe, ni à aucune formalité de vérification de passeports ou de douane.

L'exécution des dispositions du présent Article sera assurée par un Commissaire qui sera choisi par le Conseil de la Société des Nations.

Les Gouvernements grec et turc auront le droit de nommer chacun auprès de ce Commissaire un représentant, qui aura pour fonctions de signaler à l'attention du Commissaire toute question relative à l'exécution desdites dispositions, et qui jouira de toutes les facilités nécessaires pour l'accomplissement de sa tâche. Ces représentants se mettront d'accord avec le Commissaire sur le nombre et le caractère du personnel subalterne dont ils auront besoin.

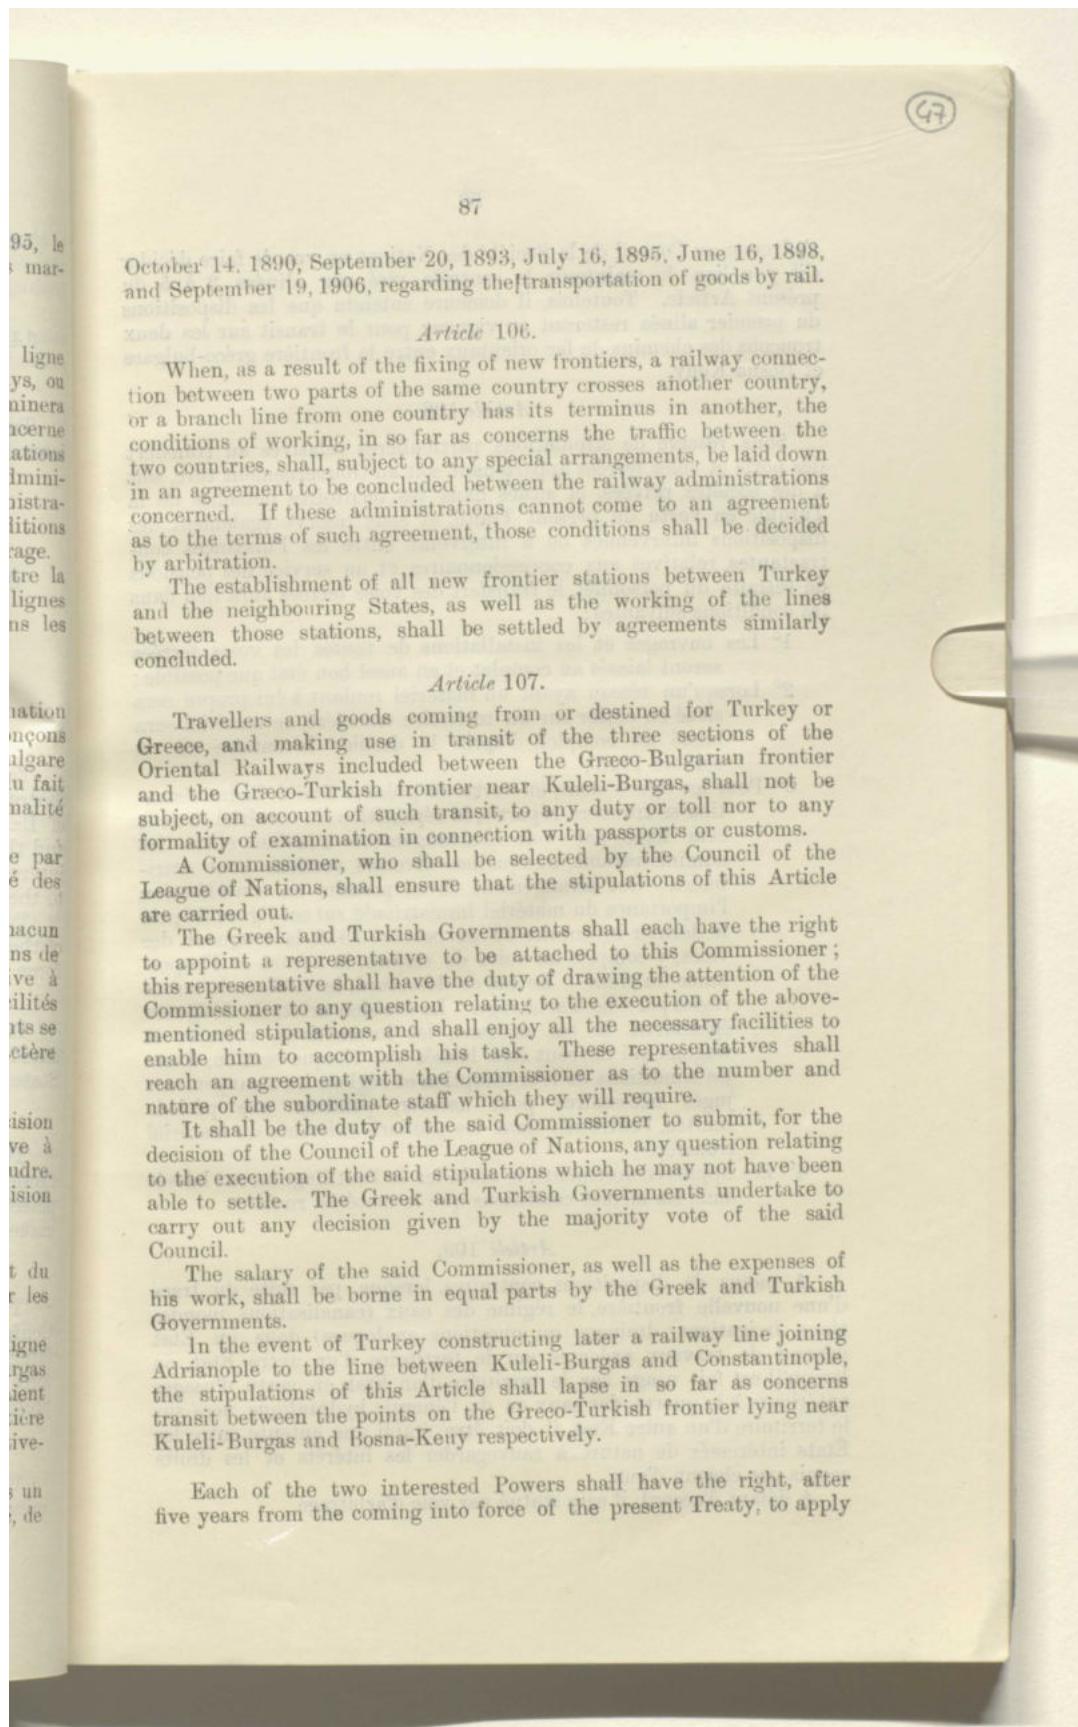

Il appartiendra audit Commissaire de soumettre à la décision du Conseil de la Société des Nations toute question relative à l'exécution desdites dispositions et qu'il n'aura pas réussi à résoudre. Les Gouvernements grec et turc s'engagent à observer toute décision rendue par ledit Conseil, votant à la majorité.

Le traitement ainsi que les frais relatifs au fonctionnement du service dudit Commissaire seront supportés par parts égales par les Gouvernements grec et turc.

Dans le cas où la Turquie construirait ultérieurement une ligne de chemin de fer reliant Andrinople à la ligne entre Kouleli-Burgas et Constantinople, les dispositions du présent Article deviendraient caduques en ce qui concerne le transit entre les points de la frontière gréco-turque sis près de Kouleli-Burgas et Bosna-Keuy respectivement.

Chacune des deux Puissances intéressées aura le droit, après un délai de cinq ans à partir de la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, de s'adresser au Conseil de la Société des Nations en vue de faire décider s'il y a lieu de maintenir le contrôle visé aux alinéas 2 à 5 du présent Article. Toutefois, il demeure entendu que les dispositions du premier alinéa resteront en vigueur pour le transit sur les deux tronçons des chemins de fer orientaux entre la frontière gréco-bulgare et Bosna-Keyu.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [47r] (98/260)

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [47v] (99/260)

Article 108.

Sous réserve de stipulations particulières relatives au transfert des ports et voies ferrées appartenant soit au Gouvernement turc, soit à des sociétés privées, et situés dans les territoires détachés de la Turquie en vertu du présent Traité, et sous réserve également des dispositions intervenues ou à intervenir entre les Puissances contractantes, relatives aux concessionnaires et au service des pensions de retraite du personnel, le transfert des voies ferrées aura lieu dans les conditions suivantes :

- 1° Les ouvrages et les installations de toutes les voies ferrées seront laissés au complet et en aussi bon état que possible;
- 2° Lorsqu'un réseau ayant un matériel roulant à lui propre sera situé en entier sur un territoire transféré, ce matériel sera laissé au complet, d'après le dernier inventaire au 30 octobre 1918;
- 3° Pour les lignes dont, en vertu du présent Traité, l'administration se trouvera répartie, la répartition du matériel roulant sera fixée par voie d'arrangement amiable entre les administrations auxquelles diverses sections sont attribuées. Cet arrangement devra prendre en considération l'importance du matériel immatriculé sur ces lignes d'après le dernier inventaire au 30 octobre 1918, la longueur des voies, y compris les voies de service, la nature et l'importance du trafic. En cas de désaccord, les différends seront réglés par voie d'arbitrage. La décision arbitrale désignera également, le cas échéant, les locomotives, voitures et wagons qui devront être laissés sur chaque section, fixera les conditions de leur réception et réglera les arrangements jugés nécessaires pour assurer, pendant une période limitée, l'entretien dans les ateliers existants du matériel transféré ;
- 4° Les approvisionnements, le mobilier et l'outillage seront laissés dans les mêmes conditions que le matériel roulant.

Article 109.

A moins de dispositions contraires, lorsque, par suite du tracé d'une nouvelle frontière, le régime des eaux (canalisations, inondations, irrigations, drainage ou questions analogues) dans un État dépend de travaux exécutés sur le territoire d'un autre État, ou lorsqu'il est fait usage sur le territoire d'un État, en vertu d'usages antérieurs à la guerre, des eaux ou de l'énergie hydraulique nées sur le territoire d'un autre État, il doit être établi une entente entre les États intéressés de nature à sauvegarder les intérêts et les droits acquis par chacun d'eux.

A défaut d'accord, il sera statué par voie d'arbitrage.

to the Council of the League of Nations with a view to deciding whether it is necessary that the control mentioned in paragraphs 2 to 5 of the present Article should be maintained. Nevertheless, it remains understood that the stipulations of paragraph 1 shall remain in force for transit over the two sections of the Oriental Railways between the Greco-Bulgarian frontier and Bosna-Keyu.

Article 108.

Subject to any special provisions concerning the transfer of ports and railways, whether owned by the Turkish Government or private companies, situated in the territories detached from Turkey under the present Treaty, and similarly subject to any agreements which have been, or may be, concluded between the Contracting Powers relating to the concessionnaires and the pensioning of the personnel, the transfer of railways will take place under the following conditions:—

- (1) The works and installations of all the railroads shall be left complete and in as good condition as possible;
- (2) When a railway system possessing its own rolling-stock is situated in its entirety in transferred territory, such stock shall be left complete with the railway, in accordance with the last inventory before the 30th October, 1918;
- (3) As regards lines, the administration of which will in virtue of the present Treaty be divided, the distribution of the rolling-stock shall be made by friendly agreement between the administrations taking over the several sections thereof. This agreement shall have regard to the amount of the material registered on those lines in the last inventory before the 30th October, 1918, the length of the track (sidings included) and the nature and amount of the traffic. Failing agreement, the points in dispute shall be settled by arbitration. The arbitral decision shall also, if necessary, specify the locomotives, carriages and wagons to be left on each section, the conditions of their acceptance and such provisional arrangements as may be judged necessary to ensure for a limited period the current maintenance in existing workshops of the transferred stock;
- (4) Stocks of stores, fittings and plant shall be left under the same conditions as the rolling-stock.

Article 109.

In default of any provisions to the contrary, when as the result of the fixing of a new frontier the hydraulic system (canalisation, inundation, irrigation, drainage or similar matters) in a State is dependent on works executed within the territory of another State, or when use is made on the territory of a State, in virtue of pre-war usage, of water or hydraulic power, the source of which is on the territory of another State, an agreement shall be made between the States concerned to safeguard the interests and rights acquired by each of them.

Failing an agreement, the matter shall be regulated by arbitration.

Article 110.

La Roumanie et la Turquie s'entendront pour fixer équitablement les conditions d'exploitation du câble Constanza-Constantinople. A défaut d'entente, la question sera réglée par voie d'arbitrage.

Article 111.

La Turquie renonce, en son propre nom et au nom de ses ressortissants, à tous droits, titres ou priviléges de quelque nature que ce soit, sur tout ou partie des câbles n'atterrissant plus sur son territoire.

Si les câbles ou portions de câbles, transférés conformément à l'alinéa précédent, constituent des propriétés privées, il appartiendra aux Gouvernements auxquels la propriété est transférée d'indemniser les propriétaires. En cas de désaccord sur le montant de l'indemnité, celle-ci sera fixée par voie d'arbitrage.

Article 112.

La Turquie conservera les droits de propriété qu'elle posséderait déjà sur les câbles dont un atterrissage au moins reste en territoire turc.

L'exercice des droits d'atterrissement desdits câbles en territoire non turc et les conditions de leur exploitation, seront réglés à l'amiable par les États intéressés. En cas de désaccord, le différend sera réglé par voie d'arbitrage.

Les Hautes Parties contractantes déclarent accepter, chacune en ce qui la concerne, la suppression des bureaux de poste étrangers en Turquie.

Article 116.

Article 121.

Les Hautes Parties contractantes s'engagent à donner sur leurs territoires respectifs toutes facilités pour la recherche des disparus ou l'identification des prisonniers de guerre et internés civils qui ont manifesté le désir de ne pas être rapatriés.

Article 122.

Les Hautes Parties contractantes s'engagent à restituer, dès la mise en vigueur du présent Traité, tous les objets, monnaie, valeurs, documents ou effets personnels de toute nature appartenant ou ayant appartenu aux prisonniers de guerre et internés civils, et qui auraient été retenus.

Il leur concédera de même les terrains qui seront reconnus nécessaires à l'avenir pour l'établissement de cimetières de groupement, d'ossuaires ou de monuments commémoratifs par les commissions prévues à l'Article 130.

Il s'engage, en outre, à donner libre accès à ces sépultures, cimetières, ossuaires et monuments, et à autoriser, le cas échéant, la construction des routes et chemins nécessaires.

Le Gouvernement hellénique prend les mêmes engagements en ce qui concerne son territoire.

Les dispositions qui précèdent ne portent pas atteinte à la souveraineté turque ou, suivant le cas, à la souveraineté hellénique, sur les territoires concédés.

Article 129.

Parmi les terrains à concéder par le Gouvernement turc, seront compris notamment pour l'Empire britannique ceux de la région dite d'Anzac (Ari Burnu) qui sont indiqués sur la carte No. 3.

Article 141.

Par application de l'Article 25 du présent Traité et des Articles 155, 250 et 440 ainsi que de l'Annexe III, Partie VIII (Réparations) du Traité de paix de Versailles du 28 juin 1919, le Gouvernement et les ressortissants turcs sont déclarés libérés de tout engagement ayant pu leur incomber vis-à-vis du Gouvernement allemand ou de ses ressortissants relativement à tous navires allemands ayant été l'objet, pendant la guerre, d'un transfert par le Gouvernement ou des ressortissants allemands au Gouvernement ou à des ressortissants ottomans, sans le consentement des Gouvernements alliés, et actuellement en la possession de ces derniers.

Il en sera de même, s'il y a lieu, dans les rapports entre la Turquie et les autres Puissances ayant combattu à ses côtés.

Article 142.

La Convention particulière, conclue le 30 janvier 1923 entre la Grèce et la Turquie, relativement à l'échange des populations grecques et turques, aura entre ces deux Hautes Parties contractantes même force et valeur que si elle figurait dans le présent Traité.

Article 143.

Le présent Traité sera ratifié dans le plus court délai possible.

Les ratifications seront déposées à Paris.

Le Gouvernement japonais aura la faculté de se borner à faire connaître au Gouvernement de la République française par son représentant diplomatique à Paris que la ratification a été donnée et, dans ce cas, il devra transmettre l'instrument aussitôt que faire se pourra.

Chacune des Puissances signataires ratifiera par un seul et même instrument le présent Traité, ensemble les autres actes signés par elle et prévus dans l'Acte final de la Conférence de Lausanne, en tant que ceux-ci requièrent une ratification.

Un premier procès-verbal de dépôt sera dressé dès que la Turquie, d'une part, et l'Empire britannique, la France, l'Italie, le Japon ou trois d'entre eux, d'autre part, auront déposé l'instrument de leur ratification.

Dès la date de ce premier procès-verbal, le Traité entrera en vigueur entre les Hautes Parties contractantes qui l'auront ainsi ratifié. Il entrera ensuite en vigueur pour les autres Puissances à la date du dépôt de leur ratification.

Toutefois, en ce qui concerne la Grèce et la Turquie, les dispositions des Articles 1, 2 (2), et 5 à 11 inclusivement entreront en vigueur dès que les Gouvernements hellénique et turc auront déposé l'instrument de leur ratification, même si, à cette date, le procès-verbal ci-dessus visé n'a pas encore été dressé.

Le Gouvernement français remettra à toutes les Puissances signataires une copie authentique des procès-verbaux de dépôt des ratifications.

Article 141.

In accordance with Article 25 of the present Treaty, Articles 155, 250 and 440 and Annex III, Part VIII (Reparation) of the Treaty of Peace of Versailles, dated the 28th June, 1919, the Turkish Government and its nationals are released from any liability to the German Government or to its nationals in respect of German vessels which were the object during the war of a transfer by the German Government or its nationals to the Ottoman Government or its nationals without the consent of the Allied Governments, and at present in the possession of the latter.

The same shall apply, if necessary, in the relations between Turkey and the other Powers which fought on her side.

Article 142.

The separate Convention concluded on the 30th January, 1923, between Greece and Turkey, relating to the exchange of the Greek and Turkish populations, will have as between these two High Contracting Parties the same force and effect as if it formed part of the present Treaty.

Article 143.

The present Treaty shall be ratified as soon as possible.
The ratifications shall be deposited at Paris.

The Japanese Government will be entitled merely to inform the Government of the French Republic through their diplomatic representative at Paris when their ratification has been given; in that case, they must transmit the instrument of ratification as soon as possible.

Each of the Signatory Powers will ratify by one single instrument the present Treaty and the other instruments signed by it and mentioned in the Final Act of the Conference of Lausanne, in so far as these require ratification.

A first procès-verbal of the deposit of ratifications shall be drawn up as soon as Turkey, on the one hand, and the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, or any three of them, on the other hand, have deposited the instruments of their ratifications.

From the date of this first procès-verbal the Treaty will come into force between the High Contracting Parties who have thus ratified it. Thereafter it will come into force for the other Powers at the date of the deposit of their ratifications.

As between Greece and Turkey, however, the provisions of Articles 1, 2 (2) and 5-11 inclusive will come into force as soon as the Greek and Turkish Governments have deposited the instruments of their ratifications, even if at that time the procès-verbal referred to above has not yet been drawn up.

The French Government will transmit to all the Signatory Powers a certified copy of the procès-verbaux of the deposit of ratifications.

Merchant Vessels, including Hospital Ships, Yachts and Fishing Vessels and non-Military Aircraft.

(a.) In Time of Peace.

Complete freedom of navigation and passage by day and by night under any flag and with any kind of cargo, without any formalities, or tax, or charge whatever (subject, however, to international sanitary provisions) unless for services directly rendered, such as pilotage, light, towage or other similar charges, and without prejudice to the rights exercised in this respect by the services and undertakings now operating under concessions granted by the Turkish Government.

To facilitate the collection of these dues, merchant vessels passing the Straits will communicate to stations appointed by the Turkish Government their name, nationality, tonnage and destination.

Pilotage remains optional.

(b.) In Time of War, Turkey being Neutral.

Complete freedom of navigation and passage by day and by night under the same conditions as above. The duties and rights of Turkey as a neutral Power cannot authorise her to take any measures liable to interfere with navigation through the Straits, the waters of which, and the air above which, must remain entirely free in time of war, Turkey being neutral just as in time of peace.

Pilotage remains optional.

c) En temps de guerre, la Turquie étant belligérante :

Liberté de navigation pour les navires neutres et les aéronefs non militaires neutres, si le navire ou l'aéronef n'assistent pas l'ennemi notamment en transportant de la contrebande, des troupes ou des ressortissants ennemis. La Turquie aura le droit de visiter lesdits navires et aéronefs, et, à cette fin, les aéronefs devront atterrir ou amerrir dans telles zones qui seront fixées et aménagées à cet effet par la Turquie. Il n'est pas porté atteinte aux droits de la Turquie d'appliquer aux navires ennemis les mesures admises par le droit international.

La Turquie aura pleine faculté de prendre telles dispositions qu'elle jugera nécessaires pour empêcher les navires ennemis d'utiliser les Détroits. Toutefois, ces dispositions ne seront pas de nature à interdire le libre passage des navires neutres, et, à cet effet, la Turquie s'engage à fournir à ceux-ci les instructions ou pilotes nécessaires.

a) En temps de paix :

Complète liberté de passage de jour et de nuit, quel que soit le pavillon, sans aucune formalité, taxe ou charge quelconque, mais sous les réserves ci-après concernant le total des forces.

La force maxima qu'une Puissance pourra faire passer par les Détroits à destination de la Mer Noire ne dépassera pas celle de la flotte la plus forte appartenant aux Puissances riveraines de la Mer Noire et existant dans cette mer au moment du passage; toutefois, les Puissances se réservent le droit d'envoyer en Mer Noire, en tout temps et en toute circonstance, une force n'excédant pas trois bâtiments dont aucun ne dépassera 10,000 tonnes.

Aucune responsabilité n'incombera à la Turquie en ce qui concerne le nombre des bâtiments qui traversent les Détroits.

Pour permettre l'observation de la présente règle, la Commission des Détroits prévue à l'Article 10 demandera à chaque Puissance riveraine de la Mer Noire, le 1<sup>er</sup> janvier et le 1<sup>er</sup> juillet de chaque année, le nombre de cuirassés, de croiseurs de bataille, de bâtiments porte-avions, de croiseurs, de destroyers, de sous-marins ou de tous autres types de bâtiments ainsi que d'aéronefs navals qu'elle possède en Mer Noire, en distinguant les bâtiments armés des bâtiments à effectifs réduits, en réserve, en réparations ou modification.

La Commission des Détroits informera alors les Puissances intéressées du nombre de cuirassés, croiseurs de bataille, bâtiments porte-avions, croiseurs, destroyers, sous-marins, aéronefs et éventuellement d'unités d'autres types, que comprend la force navale la plus forte dans la Mer Noire; en outre, tout changement

(c.) In Time of War, Turkey being a Belligerent.

Freedom of navigation for neutral vessels and neutral non-military aircraft, if the vessel or aircraft in question does not assist the enemy, particularly by carrying contraband, troops or enemy nationals. Turkey will have the right to visit and search such vessels and aircraft, and for this purpose aircraft are to alight on the ground or on the sea in such areas as are specified and prepared for this purpose by Turkey. The rights of Turkey to apply to enemy vessels the measures allowed by international law are not affected.

Turkey will have full power to take such measures as she may consider necessary to prevent enemy vessels from using the Straits. These measures, however, are not to be of such a nature as to prevent the free passage of neutral vessels, and Turkey agrees to provide such vessels with either the necessary instructions or pilots for the above purpose.

Warships, including Fleet Auxiliaries, Troopships, Aircraft Carriers and Military Aircraft.

(a) In Time of Peace.

Complete freedom of passage by day and by night under any flag, without any formalities, or tax, or charge whatever, but subject to the following restrictions as to the total force:—

The maximum force which any one Power may send through the Straits into the Black Sea is not to be greater than that of the most powerful fleet of the littoral Powers of the Black Sea existing in that sea at the time of passage; but with the proviso that the Powers reserve to themselves the right to send into the Black Sea, at all times and under all circumstances, a force of not more than three ships, of which no individual ship shall exceed 10,000 tons.

Turkey has no responsibility in regard to the number of war vessels which pass through the Straits.

In order to enable the above rule to be observed, the Straits Commission provided for in Article 10 will, on the 1st January and the 1st July of each year, enquire of each Black Sea littoral Power the number of each of the following classes of vessel which such Power possesses in the Black Sea: Battle-ships, battle-cruisers, aircraft-carriers, cruisers, destroyers, submarines, or other types of vessels as well as naval aircraft; distinguishing between the ships which are in active commission and the ships with reduced complements, the ships in reserve and the ships undergoing repairs or alterations.

The Straits Commission will then inform the Powers concerned that the strongest naval force in the Black Sea comprises: Battleships, battle-cruisers, aircraft carriers, cruisers, destroyers, submarines, aircraft and units of other types which may exist. The Straits Commission will also immediately inform the Powers concerned when, owing to the résultant soit de l'entrée en Mer Noire, soit de la sortie de la Mer Noire, d'un bâtiment appartenant à ladite force sera immédiatement porté à la connaissance des Puissances intéressées.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [61v] (127/260)

Le nombre et le type des bâtiments armés seront seuls pris en considération pour le calcul d'une force navale à faire passer par les Détroits à destination de la Mer Noire.

b) En temps de guerre, la Turquie étant neutre :

Complète liberté de passage de jour et de nuit, quel que soit le pavillon, sans aucune formalité, taxe ou charge quelconques, sous les mêmes limitations que celles prévues au paragraphe 2 a).

Toutefois, ces limitations ne sont pas applicables aux Puissances belligérantes au préjudice de leurs droits de belligérants en Mer Noire.

Les droits et devoirs de la Turquie comme Puissance neutre ne sauraient l'autoriser à prendre aucune mesure susceptible d'entraver la navigation dans les Détroits, dont les eaux et l'atmosphère doivent rester entièrement libres, en temps de guerre, la Turquie étant neutre, aussi bien qu'en temps de paix.

Il sera interdit aux bâtiments de guerre et aéronefs militaires des belligérants de procéder à aucune capture, d'exercer le droit de visite et de se livrer à aucun autre acte d'hostilité dans les Détroits.

En ce qui concerne le ravitaillement et les réparations, les bâtiments de guerre seront régis par les dispositions de la Convention XIII de la Haye 1907, concernant la neutralité maritime.

En attendant la conclusion d'une Convention internationale établissant les règles de neutralité pour les aéronefs, les aéronefs militaires jouiront dans les Détroits d'un traitement analogue à celui accordé aux bâtiments de guerre par la Convention XIII de la Haye 1907.

c) En temps de guerre, la Turquie étant belligérante :

Complète liberté de passage pour les bâtiments de guerre neutres sans aucune formalité, taxe ou charge quelconques, mais sous les mêmes limitations que celles prévues au paragraphe 2 a).

Les mesures à prendre par la Turquie pour empêcher les bâtiments et aéronefs ennemis d'utiliser les Détroits ne seront pas de nature à interdire le libre passage des bâtiments et aéronefs neutres et à cet effet la Turquie s'engage à fournir auxdits bâtiments et aéronefs les instructions ou pilotes nécessaires.

Les aéronefs militaires neutres effectueront le passage des Détroits à leurs risques et périls et seront soumis au droit d'enquête quant à leur caractère. A cette fin, les aéronefs devront atterrir ou amerrir dans telles zones qui seront fixées et aménagées à cet effet par la Turquie.

a) Les sous-marins des Puissances en état de paix avec la Turquie ne devront traverser les Détroits qu'en surface.

b) Le commandant d'une force navale étrangère venant soit de la Méditerranée, soit de la Mer Noire, communiquera, sans avoir à passage into or out of the Black Sea of any ship of the strongest Black Sea force, any alteration in that force has taken place.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [62r] (128/260)

The naval force that may be sent through the Straits into the Black Sea will be calculated on the number and type of the ships of war in active commission only.

(b) In Time of War, Turkey being Neutral.

Complete freedom of passage by day and by night under any flag, without any formalities, or tax, or charge whatever, under the same limitations as in paragraph 2 (a).

However, these limitations will not be applicable to any belligerent Power to the prejudice of its belligerent rights in the Black Sea.

The rights and duties of Turkey as a neutral Power cannot authorise her to take any measures liable to interfere with navigation through the Straits, the waters of which, and the air above which, must remain entirely free in time of war, Turkey being neutral, just as in time of peace.

Warships and military aircraft of belligerents will be forbidden to make any capture, to exercise the right of visit and search, or to carry out any other hostile act in the Straits.

As regards revictualling and carrying out repairs, war vessels will be subject to the terms of the Thirteenth Hague Convention of 1907, dealing with maritime neutrality.

Military aircraft will receive in the Straits similar treatment to that accorded under the Thirteenth Hague Convention of 1907 to warships, pending the conclusion of an international Convention establishing the rules of neutrality for aircraft.

(c) In Time of War, Turkey being Belligerent.

Complete freedom of passage for neutral warships, without any formalities, or tax, or charge whatever, but under the same limitations as in paragraph 2 (a).

The measures taken by Turkey to prevent enemy ships and aircraft from using the Straits are not to be of such a nature as to prevent the free passage of neutral ships and aircraft, and Turkey agrees to provide the said ships and aircraft with either the necessary instructions or pilots for the above purpose.

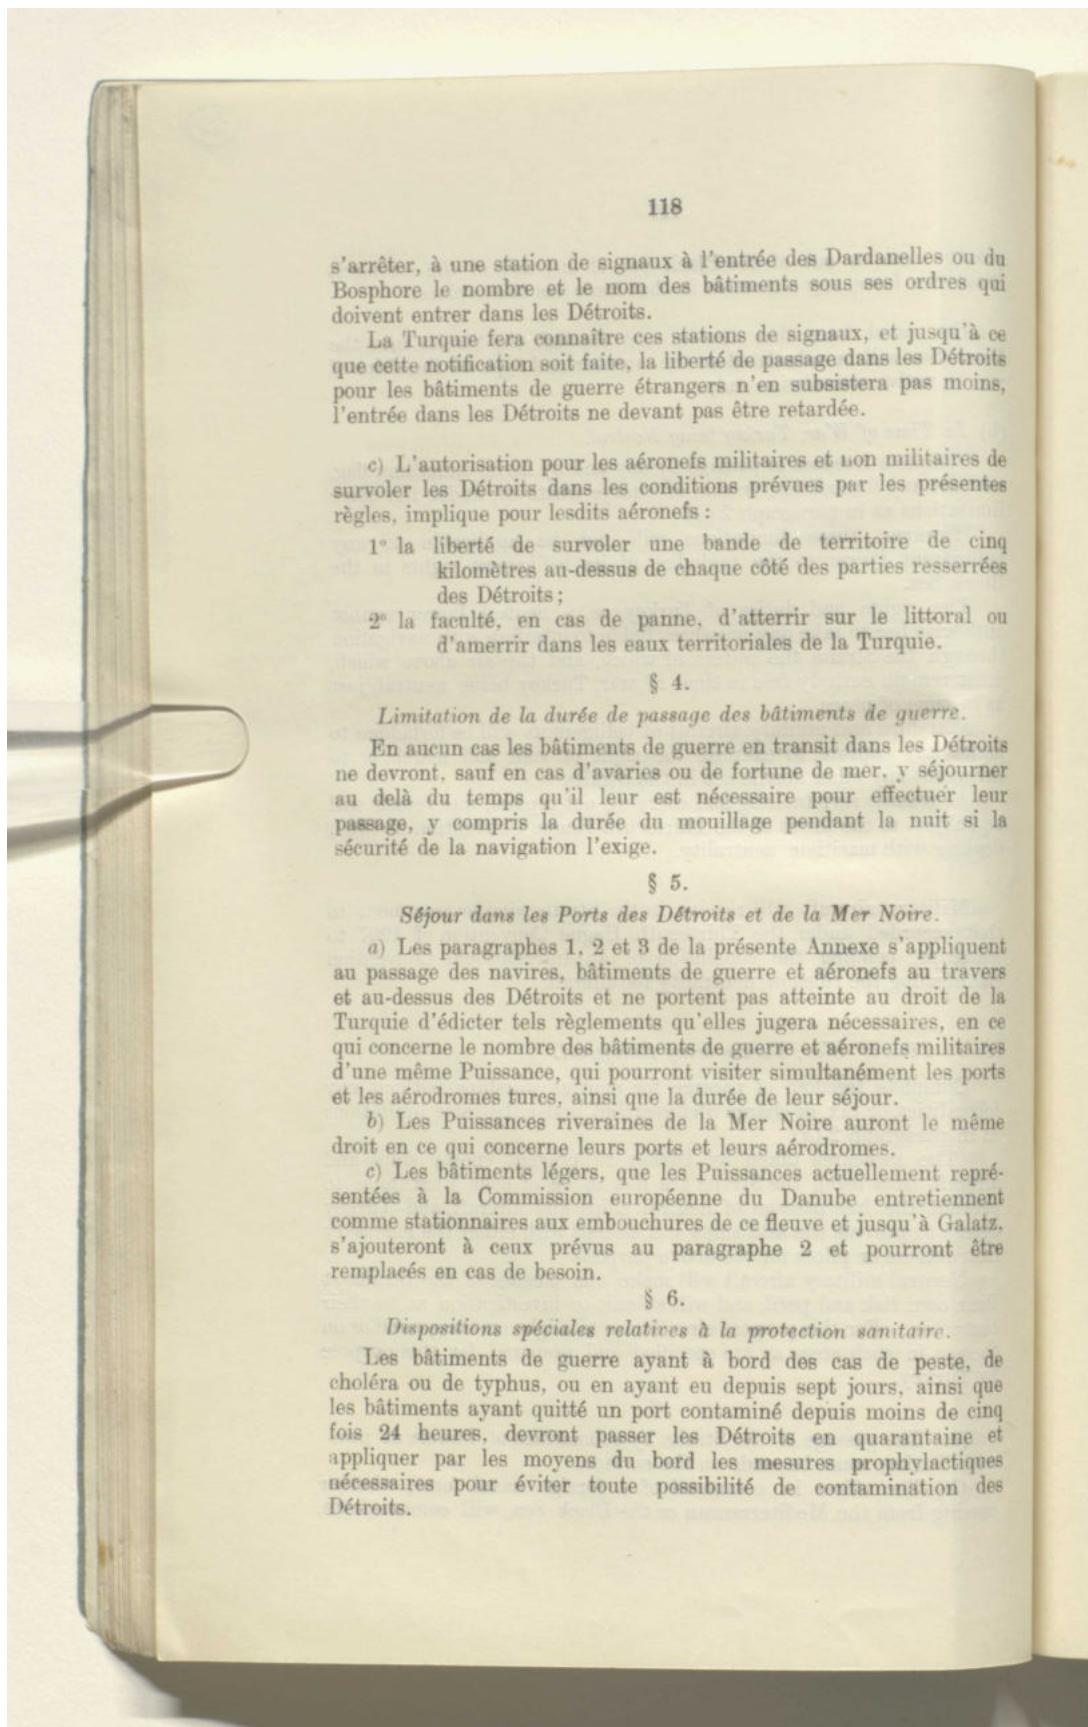

Neutral military aircraft will make the passage of the Straits at their own risk and peril, and will submit to investigation as to their character. For this purpose aircraft are to alight on the ground or on the sea in such areas as are specified and prepared for this purpose by Turkey.

(a.) The passage of the Straits by submarines of Powers at peace with Turkey must be made on the surface.

(b.) The officer in command of a foreign naval force, whether coming from the Mediterranean or the Black Sea, will communicate, without being compelled to stop, to a signal station at the entrance to the Dardanelles or the Bosphorus, the number and the names of vessels under his orders which are entering the Straits.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [62v] (129/260)

These signal stations shall be notified from time to time by Turkey; until such signal stations are notified, the freedom of passage for foreign war vessels in the Straits shall not thereby be prejudiced, nor shall their entry into the Straits be for this reason delayed.

(c) The right of military and non-military aircraft to fly over the Straits, under the conditions laid down in the present rules, necessitates for aircraft—

- (i) Freedom to fly over a strip of territory of five kilometres wide on each side of the narrow parts of the Straits;
- (ii) Liberty, in the event of a forced landing, to alight on the coast or on the sea in the territorial waters of Turkey.

Limitation of Time of Transit for Warships.

In no event shall warships in transit through the Straits, except in the event of damage or peril of the sea, remain therein beyond the time which is necessary for them to effect their passage, including the time of anchorage during the night if necessary for safety of navigation.

5.

Stay in the Ports of the Straits and of the Black Sea.

(a) Paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this Annex apply to the passage of vessels, warships and aircraft through and over the Straits and do not affect the right of Turkey to make such regulations as she may consider necessary regarding the number of men-of-war and military aircraft of any one Power which may visit Turkish ports or aerodromes at one time, and the duration of their stay.

(b) Littoral Powers of the Black Sea will also have a similar right as regards their ports and aerodromes.

(c) The light-vessels which the Powers at present represented on the European Commission of the Danube maintain as stationnaires at the mouths of that river as far up as Galatz will be regarded as additional to the men-of-war referred to in paragraph 2, and may be replaced in case of need.

Special Provisions relating to Sanitary Protection.

Warships which have on board cases of plague, cholera or typhus, or which have had such cases on board during the last seven days, and warships which have left an infected port within less than five times 24 hours must pass through the Straits in quarantine and apply by the means on board such prophylactic measures as are necessary to prevent any possibility of the Straits being infected.

Il en sera de même des navires de commerce ayant à bord un médecin et passant en droitire les Détroits sans faire escale ou rompre charge.

Les navires de commerce n'ayant pas de médecin à bord devront, avant de pénétrer dans les Détroits, même s'ils n'y doivent pas faire escale, satisfaire aux prescriptions sanitaires internationales.

Les bâtiments de guerre et les navires de commerce touchant dans un des ports des Détroits, seront soumis dans ce port aux prescriptions sanitaires internationales qui y sont applicables.

Article 3.

En vue de maintenir libres de toute entrave le passage et la navigation dans les Détroits, les mesures stipulées aux Articles 4 à 9 seront appliquées à leurs eaux et rives, ainsi qu'aux îles qui s'y trouvent ou qui les avoisinent.

Article 4.

Seront démilitarisées les zones et îles désignées ci-après :

Il appartiendra aux Gouvernements représentés dans cette Commission de pourvoir aux indemnités, auxquelles pourront avoir droit leurs représentants respectifs.

The same rule shall apply to merchant ships having a doctor on board and passing straight through the Straits without calling at a port or breaking bulk.

Merchant ships not having a doctor on board shall be obliged to comply with the international sanitary regulations before entering the Straits, even if they are not to call at a port therein.

Warships and merchant vessels calling at one of the ports in the Straits shall be subject in that port to the international sanitary regulations applicable in the port in question.

Article 3.

With a view to maintaining the Straits free from any obstacle to free passage and navigation, the provisions contained in Articles 4 to 9 will be applied to the waters and shores thereof as well as to the islands situated therein, or in the vicinity.

Article 4.

Any general expenses incurred by the Commission shall be borne in equal shares by the Powers represented thereon.

Article 6.

Subject to the provisions of Article 8 concerning Constantinople, there shall exist, in the demilitarised zones and islands, no fortifications, no permanent artillery organisation, no submarine engines of war other than submarine vessels, no military aerial organisation, and no naval base.

In the territorial waters of the demilitarised zones and islands, there shall exist no submarine engines of war other than submarine vessels.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraphs Turkey will retain the right to transport her armed forces through the demilitarised zones and islands of Turkish territory, as well as through their territorial waters, where the Turkish fleet will have the right to anchor.

Moreover, in so far as the Straits are concerned, the Turkish Government shall have the right to observe by means of aeroplanes or balloons both the surface and the bottom of the sea. Turkish aeroplanes will always be able to fly over the waters of the Straits and the demilitarised zones of Turkish territory, and will have full freedom to alight therein, either on land or on sea.

In the demilitarised zones and islands and in their territorial waters, Turkey and Greece shall similarly be entitled to effect such movements of personnel as are rendered necessary for the instruction outside these zones and islands of the men recruited therein.

Turkey and Greece shall have the right to organise in the said zones and islands in their respective territories any system of observation and communication, both telegraphic, telephonic and visual. neighbourhood of Constantinople, there may be maintained for the requirements of the capital, a garrison with a maximum strength of 12,000 men. An arsenal and naval base may also be maintained at Constantinople.

Article 9.

If, in case of war, Turkey, or Greece, in pursuance of their belligerent rights, should modify in any way the provisions of demilitarisation prescribed above, they will be bound to re-establish as soon as peace is concluded the régime laid down in the present Convention.

Article 10.

There shall be constituted at Constantinople an International Commission composed in accordance with Article 12 and called the "Straits Commission."

Article 11.

The Commission will exercise its functions over the waters of the Straits.

The United States of America, in the event of their acceding to the present Convention, will also be entitled to have one representative on the Commission.

Under the same conditions any independent littoral States of the Black Sea which are not mentioned in the first paragraph of the present Article will possess the same right.

Article 13.

The Governments represented on the Commission will pay the salaries of their representatives. Any incidental expenditure incurred by the Commission will be borne by the said Governments in the proportion laid down for the division of the expenses of the League of Nations.

Article 14.

It will be the duty of the Commission to see that the provisions relating to the passage of warships and military aircraft are carried out; these provisions are laid down in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of the Annex to Article 2.

Article 15.

The Straits Commission will carry out its functions under the auspices of the League of Nations, and will address to the League an annual report giving an account of its activities, and furnishing all information which may be useful in the interests of commerce and

Article 16.

It will be the duty of the Commission to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for the accomplishment of its task.

Article 17.

The terms of the present Convention will not infringe the right of Turkey to move her fleet freely in Turkish waters.

Article 18.

The High Contracting Parties, desiring to secure that the demilitarisation of the Straits and of the contiguous zones shall not constitute an unjustifiable danger to the military security of Turkey, and that no act of war should imperil the freedom of the Straits or the safety of the demilitarised zones, agree as follows :—

Should the freedom of navigation of the Straits or the security of the demilitarised zones be imperilled by a violation of the provisions relating to freedom of passage, or by a surprise attack or some act of war or threat of war, the High Contracting Parties, and in any case France, Great Britain, Italy and Japan, acting in conjunction, will meet such violation, attack, or other act of war or threat of war, by all the means that the Council of the League of Nations may decide for this purpose.

So soon as the circumstance which may have necessitated the action provided for in the preceding paragraph shall have ended, the régime of the Straits as laid down by the terms of the present Convention shall again be strictly applied.

The present provision, which forms an integral part of those relating to the demilitarisation and to the freedom of the Straits, does not prejudice the rights and obligations of the High Contracting Parties under the Covenant of the League of Nations.

Article 19.

The High Contracting Parties will use every possible endeavour to induce non-signatory Powers to accede to the present Convention.

This adherence will be notified through the diplomatic channel to the Government of the French Republic, and by that Government to all signatory or adhering States. The adherence will take effect as from the date of notification to the French Government.

Article 20.

The present Convention shall be ratified. The ratifications shall be deposited at Paris as soon as possible.

Elle entrera en vigueur dans les mêmes conditions que le Traité de Paix en date de ce jour; pour les Puissances non signataires de ce Traité, qui à ce moment n'auraient pas encore ratifié la présente Convention, celle-ci entrera en vigueur au fur et à mesure du dépôt de leurs ratifications, qui sera notifié aux autres Puissances contractantes par le Gouvernement de la République française.

En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires susnommés ont signé la présente Convention.

la ville elle-même et un périmètre de cinq kilomètres au minimum, compté à partir du centre de cette ville, pour aboutir sur la Mer Noire au fond de la baie située au Nord-Ouest d'Anberler.

Article 2.

Une Commission de délimitation, qui sera constituée dans les quinze jours qui suivront la mise en vigueur de la présente Convention, sera chargée de déterminer et de tracer sur le terrain les limites définies à l'Article 1. Cette Commission sera composée de représentants désignés par la France, la Grande-Bretagne, l'Italie, la Bulgarie, la Grèce et la Turquie, à raison d'un représentant par Puissance. Article 3.

La démilitarisation des zones définies à l'Article 1 sera effectuée et maintenue conformément aux dispositions ci-après:

Article 3.

The demilitarisation of the zones defined in Article 1 shall be effected and maintained in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) All permanent fortifications and field works actually in existence shall be disarmed and dismantled by the Power on whose territory they are situated. No new fortification or work of this nature shall be constructed, and no dépôt of arms or of war material or any other offensive or defensive installation of either a military, naval or aeronautical character shall be organised.

(2) No armed force, other than the special elements, such as gendarmerie, police, customs officers, frontier guards, necessary for ensuring internal order and the supervision of the frontiers, shall be stationed or move in the zones.

The number of these special elements, which must not include any air force, shall not exceed:

- (b) in the demilitarised zone of Greek territory a total of 2,500 men;
- (c) in the demilitarised zone of Bulgarian territory a total of 2,500 men.

Their armament shall be composed only of revolvers, swords, rifles and four Lewis guns per 100 men, and will exclude any artillery.

These provisions shall not affect the obligations incurred by Bulgaria under the Treaty of Neuilly of the 27th November, 1919.

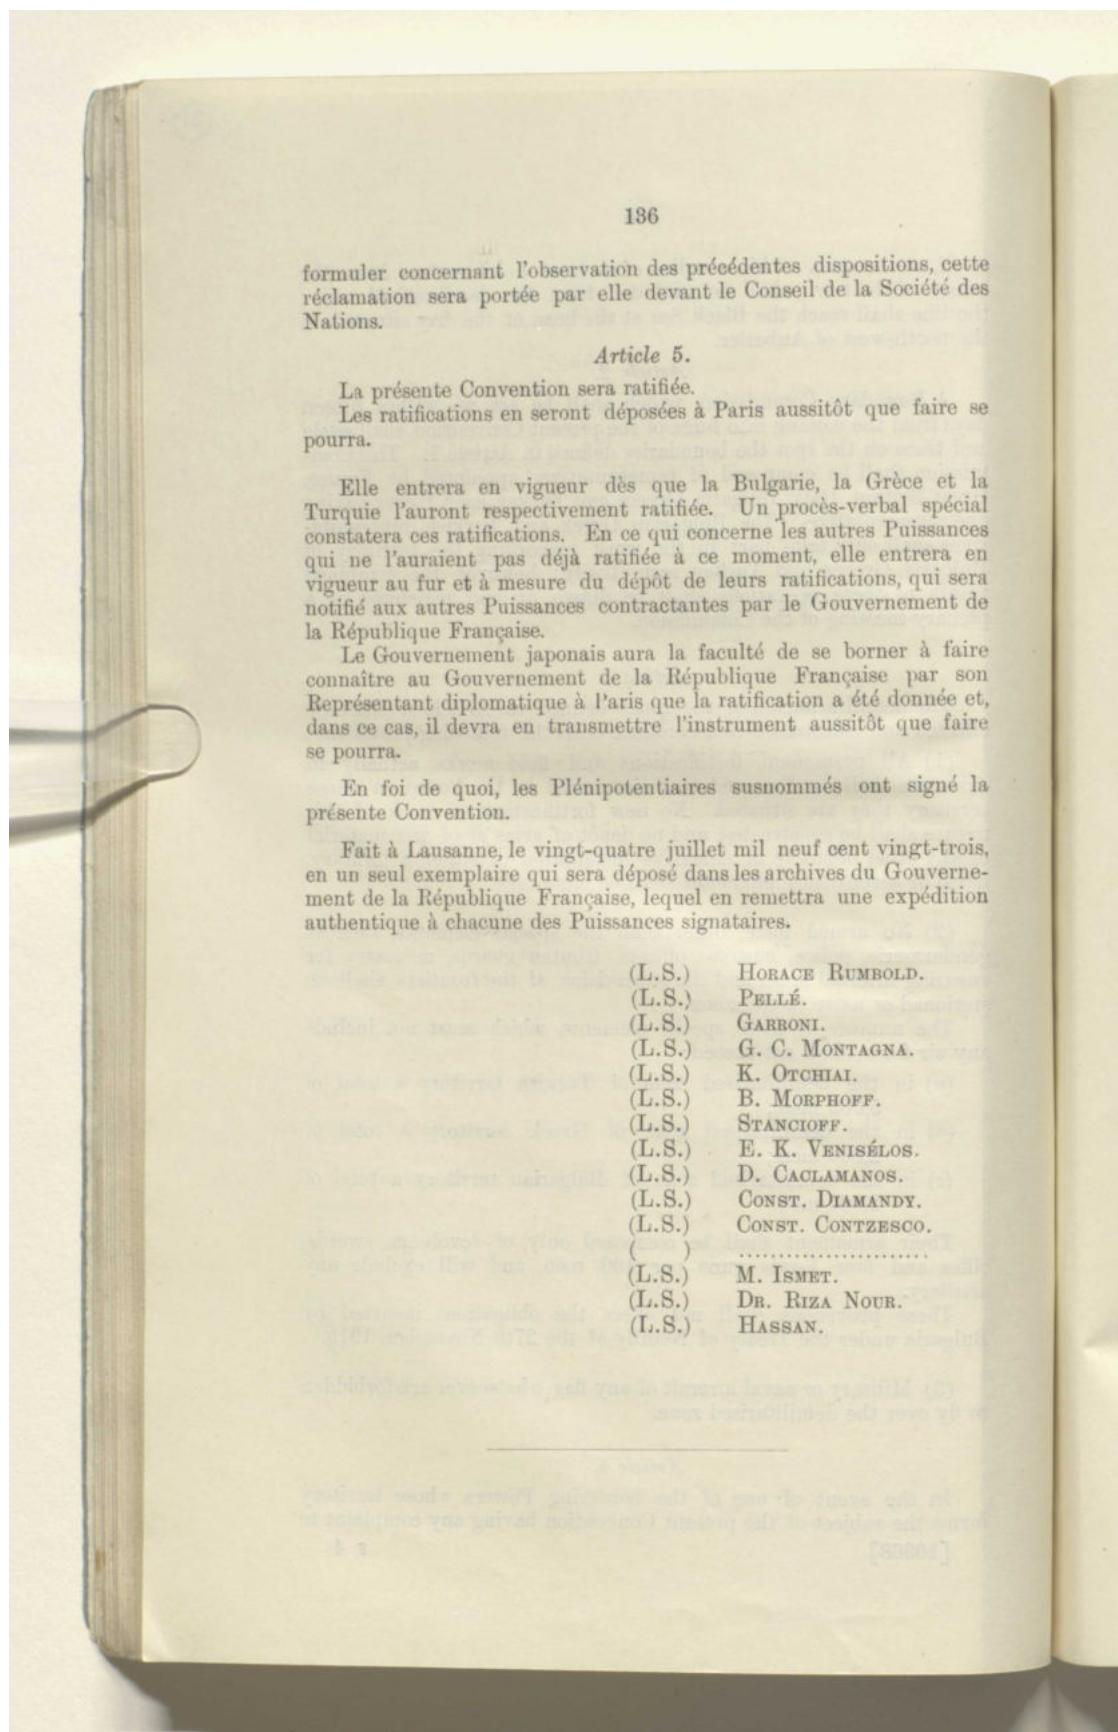

(3) Military or naval aircraft of any flag whatsoever are forbidden to fly over the demilitarised zone.

In Turkey the nationals of the other Contracting Powers will not be subject to the laws relating to military service. They will be exempt from any such service and from any obligation or payment which replaces such service.

Their property may not be expropriated or the use of it denied to them even temporarily, except for reasons of public interest recognised by law as such, and in return for fair compensation to be paid in advance. No expropriation may take place without public notice being previously given.

Les mêmes dispositions s'appliqueront aux filiales, succursales, agences et autres représentations de firmes ou sociétés desdits pays qui, dans les conditions prévues à l'Article 5, sont établies en Turquie ou y exercent leur activité, étant entendu que, lorsque la direction de ces firmes ou sociétés se trouve en dehors de la Turquie, lesdites filiales, succursales, agences et représentations ne seront imposées que pour leur capital réellement investi en Turquie ou sur les bénéfices et revenus qu'elles y ont réellement acquis, ceux-ci pouvant servir à la détermination du capital imposable, s'il ne peut être vérifié.

Article 10.

Si le Gouvernement turc institue des exonérations de charges fiscales, de quelque nature ou sous quelque dénomination que ce soit, ces exonérations seront accordées aussi bien aux ressortissants ou sociétés des autres pays contractants, établis en Turquie, qu'aux ressortissants turcs ou aux sociétés établies sous la loi turque.

Who, having produced their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows :—

SECTION I.

From the coming into force of the present Convention, the tariffs applicable on the importation into Turkey of the produce or manufactures originating and emanating from the territories of the other contracting countries shall be those of the Turkish specific tariff which came into operation on the 1st September, 1916.

Article 2.

The duties prescribed by the Turkish tariff of the 1st September, 1916, in Turkish paper money, will be subjected to coefficients of increase periodically adjusted according to the rate of exchange under the conditions hereinafter provided.

These coefficients shall be those which were in force on the 1st March, 1923. Nevertheless, the articles set out in the annexed Schedule 1 shall be subjected to the coefficient 9.

The coefficients referred to above shall be adjusted in accordance with the rate of exchange as provided by the following rules :—

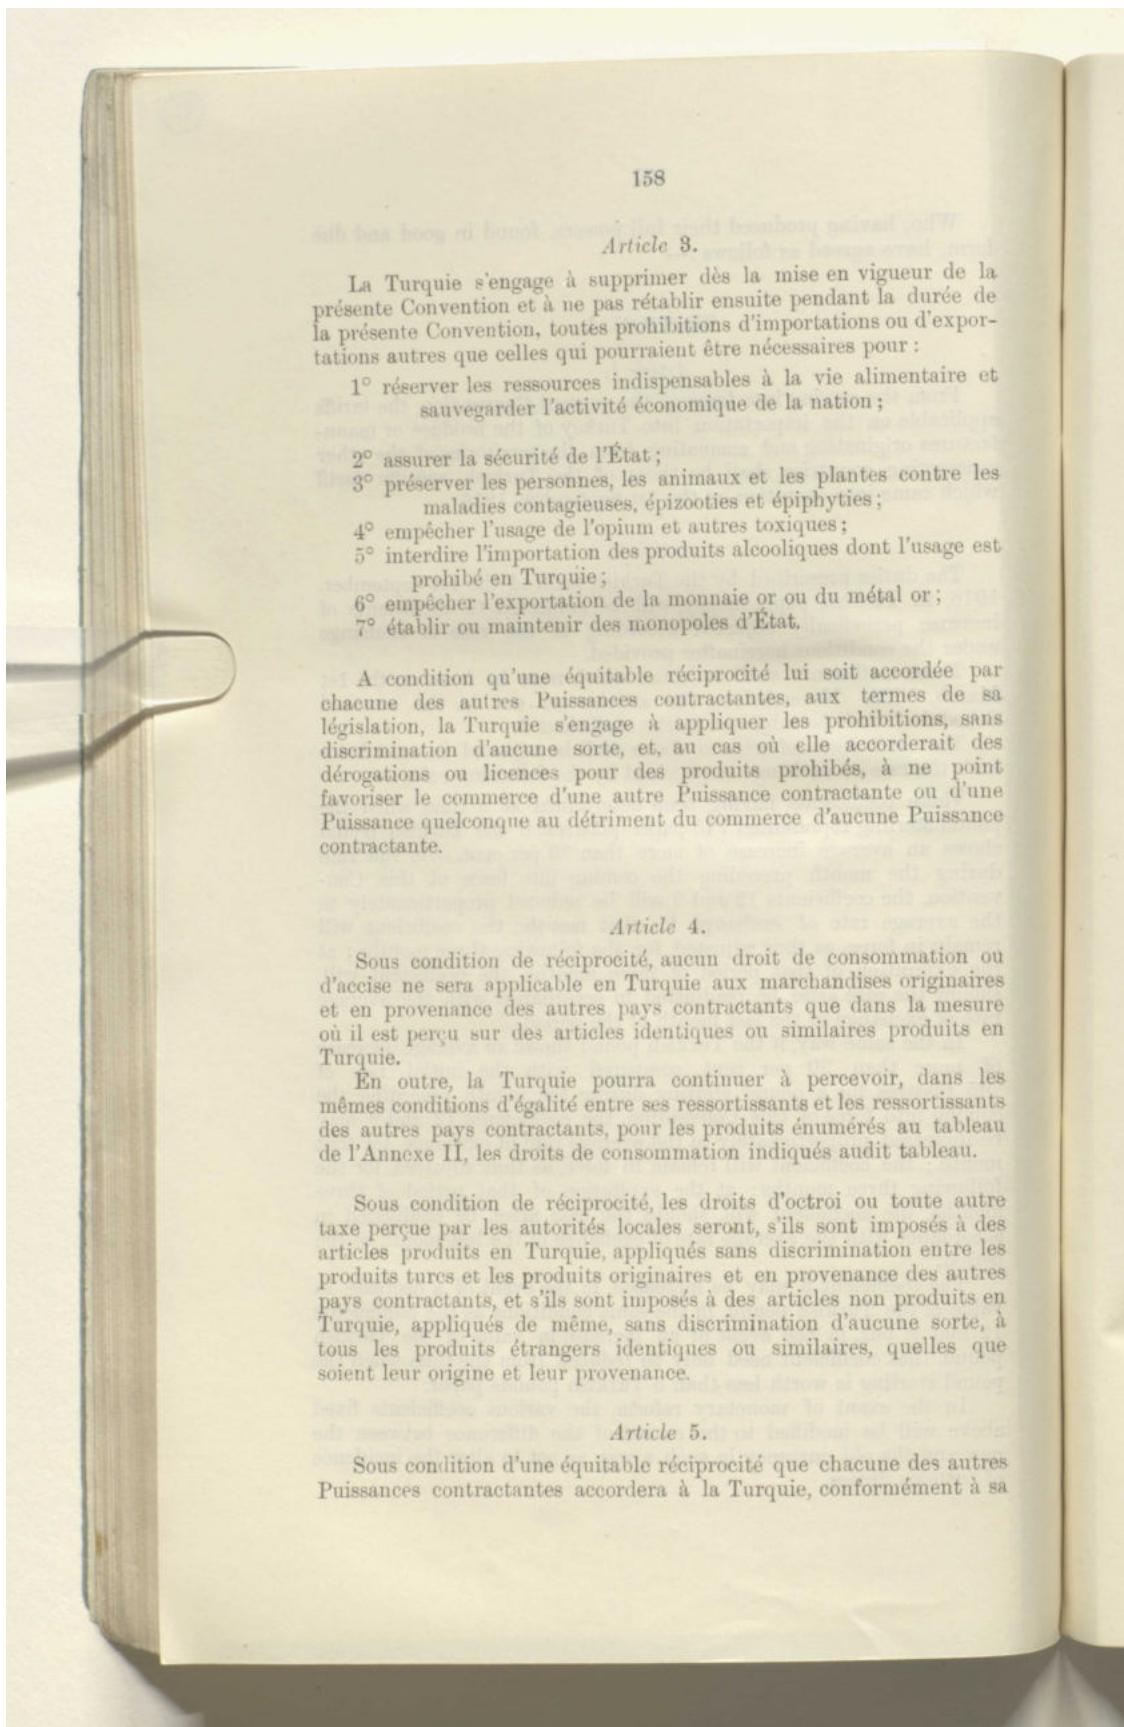

These coefficients having been determined at a time when the pound sterling represented 745 paper piastres, if the Turkish pound shows an average increase of more than 30 per cent. over this rate during the month preceding the coming into force of this Convention, the coefficients 12 and 9 will be reduced proportionately to the average rate of exchange for that month; the coefficient will remain in force, as thus adjusted, for the following three months; at the expiration of that period of three months, the coefficient will, should the case arise, be readjusted in accordance with the average rate of exchange of the last month of the period.

In the same way, if the Turkish pound shows an average decrease of more than 30 per cent. compared with the initial rate of 745 piastres for a pound sterling during the month preceding the coming into force of this Convention, the coefficients 12 and 9 may be increased proportionately to the average rate of exchange for that month; the coefficient will remain in force, as thus adjusted, for the following three months; at the expiration of that period of three months, the coefficient will, should the case arise, be readjusted in accordance with the average rate of exchange of the last month of the period.

The coefficient 5 may be increased, in the event of a decrease in value of the Turkish pound, in the same conditions as the coefficients 12 and 9, but, in the event of an increase in value of the Turkish pound, that coefficient need only be reduced from the time when the pound sterling is worth less than 5 Turkish pounds paper.

In the event of monetary reform, the various coefficients fixed above will be modified to the extent of the difference between the new and the old currency in such a way as not to alter the incidence of customs duties.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [82v] (169/260)

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [83r] (170/260)

159

Article 3.

Turkey undertakes to abolish from the coming into force of the present Convention, and not to re-establish during its continuance, all prohibitions of import and export, except those which may be necessary :—

- (1) to maintain the resources indispensable for the food of the people, and to safeguard the economic activity of the nation ;
- (2) to ensure the security of the State ;
- (3) to protect persons, animals and plants against contagious diseases, epizooties and epiphyties ;
- (4) to prevent the use of opium and other poisons ;
- (5) to prohibit the import of alcoholic products, the use of which is forbidden in Turkey ;
- (6) to prevent the export of gold money or gold metal ;
- (7) to establish or support State monopolies.

Subject to equitable reciprocity being accorded to her by each of the other Contracting Powers in accordance with its legislation, Turkey undertakes to apply the prohibitions without discrimination of any kind, and in the event of her granting exemptions or licences in respect of prohibited produce, not to favour in any way the trade of any one Contracting Power to the prejudice of the trade of any other Contracting Power, or to favour in any way the trade of any non-contracting Power to the prejudice of the trade of any Contracting Power.

Article 4.

Subject to reciprocity, no consumption or excise duty shall be applicable in Turkey to goods originating or emanating from the other contracting countries except to the extent to which it is exacted in respect of identical or similar articles produced in Turkey.

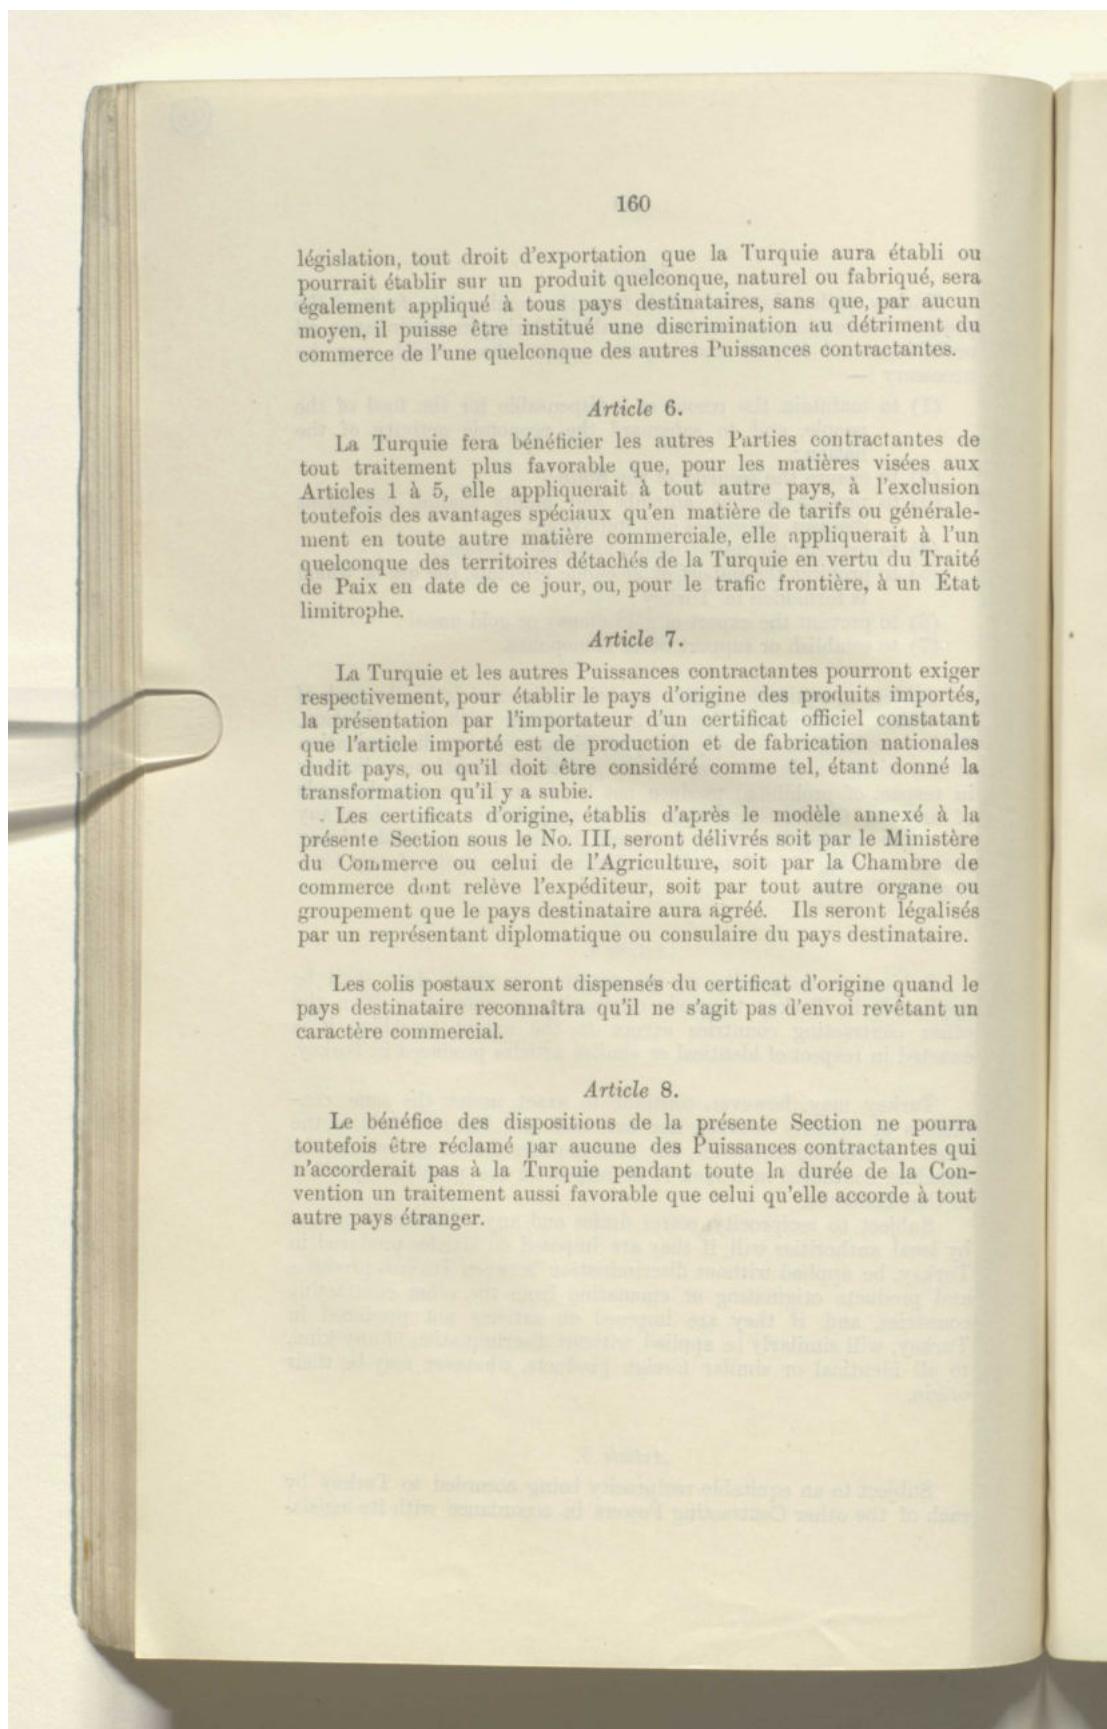

Turkey may, however, continue to exact, under the same conditions of equality between her nationals and the nationals of the other contracting countries, the consumption duties set out in the schedule contained in Annex II in respect of the products specified in that Schedule.

Subject to reciprocity, octroi duties and any other taxes exacted by local authorities will, if they are imposed on articles produced in Turkey, be applied without discrimination between Turkish products and products originating or emanating from the other contracting countries, and, if they are imposed on articles not produced in Turkey, will similarly be applied, without discrimination of any kind, to all identical or similar foreign products, whatever may be their origin.

Article 5.

Subject to an equitable reciprocity being accorded to Turkey by each of the other Contracting Powers in accordance with its legislation, every export duty, which Turkey may have imposed or may impose on any goods, natural or manufactured, shall be applied equally whatever the country of destination. No discrimination to the prejudice of the commerce of any one of the other Contracting Powers shall be established by any means.

Article 6.

Turkey will accord to the other Contracting Parties the benefit of any more favourable treatment in respect of the matters referred to in Articles 1 to 5 which she may grant to any other country, except such special advantages as regards tariffs or generally in regard to all other commercial matters which she may grant to any one of the territories detached from Turkey under the Treaty of Peace signed this day, or, as regards frontier trade, to a limitrophe State.

Article 7.

In order to determine the country of origin of imported goods, Turkey and any of the other Contracting Powers may respectively require the production by the importer of an official certificate stating that the article imported is the national produce or manufacture of the said country, or that it should be so considered having regard to the transformation which it has undergone in that country.

Certificates of origin in accordance with the form annexed to this Section numbered III will be granted by the Ministry of Commerce or of Agriculture, or by the Chamber of Commerce to which the consignor belongs, or by any other authority or association which may be agreed upon by the country of destination. They will be authenticated by a diplomatic or consular representative of the country of destination.

Parcel post packages will be exempt from the requirement of a certificate of origin when the country of destination recognises that no transaction of a commercial character is involved.

Article 8.

The benefit of the provisions of this Section cannot be claimed by any of the Contracting Powers which does not grant to Turkey during the whole period of the Convention a treatment as favourable as that which it grants to any other foreign country.

180

La Commission Mixte prévue à l'Article 11 sera chargée d'appliquer ces stipulations.

Dans un délai d'un mois à partir de l'entrée en vigueur de la présente Convention, il sera créé une Commission Mixte résidant en Turquie ou en Grèce et composée de quatre membres pour chacune des Hautes Parties Contractantes et de trois membres choisis par le Conseil de la Société des Nations parmi les ressortissants des Puissances n'ayant pas participé à la guerre de 1914-1918. La présidence de la Commission sera assumée à tour de rôle par chacun de ces trois membres neutres.

La Commission Mixte aura le droit de constituer, dans les localités où il lui paraîtra nécessaire, des Sous-Commissions travaillant sous ses ordres, et composée chacune d'un membre turc, d'un membre grec, et d'un Président neutre qui sera désigné par la Commission Mixte. La Commission Mixte déterminera les pouvoirs à déléguer aux Sous-Commissions.

Article 12.

La Commission Mixte aura pour attributions de surveiller et faciliter l'émigration prévue par la présente Convention et de procéder à la liquidation des biens mobiliers et immobiliers et prévue aux Articles 9 et 10.

Elle fixera les modalités de l'émigration et celles de la liquidation ci-dessus visée.

D'une façon générale, la Commission Mixte aura tous pouvoirs de prendre les mesures que nécessitera l'exécution de la présente Convention et de décider toutes les questions auxquelles cette Convention pourrait donner lieu.

Les décisions de la Commission Mixte seront prises à la majorité des voix.

Toutes les contestations relatives aux biens, droits et intérêts à liquider seront réglées définitivement par elle.

Article 13.

La Commission Mixte aura tout pouvoir pour faire procéder à l'estimation des biens mobiliers et immobiliers qui doivent être liquidés en vertu de la présente Convention, les intéressés étant entendus ou ayant été dûment convoqués pour être entendus.

La base de l'estimation des biens qui doivent être liquidés sera la valeur de ces biens en monnaie d'or.

Article 14.

La Commission remettra au propriétaire intéressé une déclaration constatant la somme qui lui est due du chef des biens dont il a été dépossédé, biens qui resteront à la disposition du Gouvernement sur le territoire duquel ils sont situés.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [94r] (192/260)

181

The Mixed Commission provided for in Article 11 shall be entrusted with the duty of executing these provisions.

Article 11.

Within one month from the coming into force of the present Convention a Mixed Commission shall be set up in Turkey or in Greece consisting of four members representing each of the High Contracting Parties, and of three members chosen by the Council of the League of Nations from among nationals of Powers which did not take part in the war of 1914-1918. The Presidency of the Commission shall be exercised in turn by each of these three neutral members.

The Mixed Commission shall have the right to set up, in such places as it may appear to them necessary, Sub-Commissions working under its order. Each such Sub-Commission shall consist of a Turkish member, a Greek member and a neutral President to be designated by the Mixed Commission. The Mixed Commission shall decide the powers to be delegated to the Sub-Commission.

Article 12.

The duties of the Mixed Commission shall be to supervise and facilitate the emigration provided for in the present Convention, and to carry out the liquidation of the movable and immovable property for which provision is made in Articles 9 and 10.

The Commission shall settle the methods to be followed as regards the emigration and liquidation mentioned above.

In a general way the Mixed Commission shall have full power to take the measures necessitated by the execution of the present Convention and to decide all questions to which this Convention may give rise.

The decisions of the Mixed Commission shall be taken by a majority.

All disputes relating to property, rights and interests which are to be liquidated shall be settled definitely by the Commission.

Article 13.

The Mixed Commission shall have full power to cause the valuation to be made of the movable and immovable property which is to be liquidated under the present Convention, the interested parties being given a hearing or being duly summoned so that they may be heard.

The basis for the valuation of the property to be liquidated shall be the value of the property in gold currency.

Article 14.

The Commission shall transmit to the owner concerned a declaration stating the sum due to him in respect of the property of which he has been dispossessed, and such property shall remain at the disposal of the Government on whose territory it is situated.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [94v] (193/260)

182

Les montants dus sur la base de ces déclarations constitueront une dette du Gouvernement du pays où la liquidation aura eu lieu envers le Gouvernement dont relève l'émigrant. Celui-ci devra en principe recevoir, dans le pays où il émigre, en représentation des sommes qui lui sont dues, des biens d'égale valeur et de même nature que ceux qu'il aura abandonnés.

Tous les six mois, on établira un compte des sommes dues par les Gouvernements respectifs sur la base des déclarations émises comme ci-dessus.

A la liquidation finale, s'il y a équivalence entre les montants respectivement dus, les comptes y relatifs seront compensés. Si l'un des Gouvernements reste débiteur envers l'autre après compensation, le solde débiteur sera payé au comptant. Si le Gouvernement débiteur demande des délais pour ce paiement, la Commission pourra les lui accorder, pourvu que la somme due soit payée au maximum dans trois annuités. La Commission fixera les intérêts à payer pendant ces délais.

Si la somme à payer est assez importante et nécessite des délais plus longs, le Gouvernement débiteur payera au comptant une somme à déterminer par la Commission Mixte jusqu'à concurrence de 20% du montant dû et émettra pour le solde des titres d'emprunt portant un intérêt à fixer par la Commission Mixte, amortissable dans un délai maximum de 20 ans. Le Gouvernement débiteur affectera au service de cet emprunt des gages agréés par la Commission, gages qui seront gérés et dont les revenus seront encaissés par la Commission Internationale en Grèce et par le Conseil de la Dette Publique à Constantinople. A défaut d'accord sur ces gages, il appartiendra au Conseil de la Société des Nations de fixer ceux-ci.

Article 15.

En vue de faciliter l'émigration, des fonds seront avancés à la Commission Mixte par les États intéressés, dans les conditions fixées par ladite Commission.

Article 16.

Les Gouvernements de la Turquie et de la Grèce se mettront d'accord avec la Commission Mixte prévue à l'Article 11 sur toutes les questions relatives aux notifications à faire aux personnes devant quitter leurs territoires en vertu de la présente Convention et aux ports sur lesquels ces personnes doivent se diriger pour être transportées à leurs pays de destination.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent mutuellement à ce qu'aucune pression directe ou indirecte ne soit exercée sur les populations qui doivent être échangées pour leur faire quitter leurs foyers ou se dessaisir de leurs biens avant la date fixée pour leur départ. Elles s'engagent également à ne soumettre les émigrants,

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [95r] (194/260)

The total sums due on the basis of these declarations shall constitute a Government debt from the country where the liquidation takes place to the Government of the country to which the emigrant belongs. The emigrant shall in principle be entitled to receive in the country to which he emigrates, as representing the sums due to him, property of a value equal to and of the same nature as that which he has left behind.

Once every six months an account shall be drawn up of the sums due by the respective Governments on the basis of the declarations as above.

When the liquidation is completed, if the sums of money due to both sides correspond, the accounts relating thereto shall be balanced. If a sum remains due from one of the Governments to the other Government after a balance has been struck, the debit balance shall be paid in cash. If the debtor Governments requests a postponement in making this payment, the Commission may grant such postponement, provided that the sum due be paid in three annuities at most. The Commission shall fix the interest to be paid during the period of postponement.

If the sum to be paid is fairly large and requires longer postponement, the debtor Government shall pay in cash a sum to be fixed by the Mixed Commission, up to a maximum of 20 per cent. of the total due, and shall issue in respect of the balance loan certificates bearing such interest as the Mixed Commission may fix, to be paid off within 20 years at most. The debtor Government shall assign to the service of these loans pledges approved by the Commission, which shall be administered and of which the revenues shall be encashed by the International Commission in Greece and by the Council of the Public Debt at Constantinople. In the absence of agreement in regard to these pledges, they shall be selected by the Council of the League of Nations.

Article 15.

With a view to facilitating emigration, funds shall be advanced to the Mixed Commission by the States concerned, under conditions laid down by the said Commission.

Article 16.

The Turkish and Greek Governments shall come to an agreement with the Mixed Commission provided for in Article 11 in regard to all questions concerning the notification to be made to persons who are to leave the territory of Turkey and Greece under the present Convention, and concerning the ports to which these persons are to go for the purpose of being transported to the country of their destination.

The High Contracting Parties undertake mutually that no pressure direct or indirect shall be exercised on the populations which are to be exchanged with a view to making them leave their homes or abandon their property before the date fixed for their departure. They likewise undertake to impose on the emigrants who have left ayant quitté ou qui doivent quitter le pays, à aucun impôt ou taxe extraordinaire. Aucune entrave ne sera apportée au libre exercice par les habitants des régions exceptées de l'échange en vertu de l'Article 2, de leur droit d'y rester ou d'y rentrer et de jouir librement de leurs libertés et de leurs droits de propriété en Turquie et en Grèce. Cette disposition ne sera pas invoquée comme motif pour empêcher la libre aliénation des biens appartenant aux habitants desdites régions exceptées de l'échange et le départ volontaire de ceux de ces habitants qui désirent quitter la Turquie ou la Grèce.

Les frais d'entretien et de fonctionnement de la Commission Mixte et de ses organes seront supportés par les Gouvernements intéressés dans des proportions à déterminer par la Commission.

Article 18.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à apporter à leur législation respective les modifications qui seraient nécessaires pour assurer l'exécution de la présente Convention.

Article 19.

La présente Convention aura même force et valeur, au regard des Hautes Parties ici contractantes, que si elle figurait dans le Traité de Paix qui sera conclu avec la Turquie. Elle entrera en vigueur immédiatement après la ratification dudit Traité par les deux Hautes Parties Contractantes.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires soussignés, dont les pleins pouvoirs ont été respectivement reconnus en bonne et due forme, ont signé la présente Convention.

Fait à Lausanne, le trente janvier mil neuf cent vingt-trois, en triple exemplaire, dont un sera remis au Gouvernement hellénique et un au Gouvernement de la Grande Assemblée Nationale de Turquie et dont le troisième sera déposé aux archives du Gouvernement de la République française, qui en délivrera des copies authentiques aux autres Puissances signataires du Traité de Paix avec la Turquie.

No obstacle shall be placed in the way of the inhabitants of the districts excepted from the exchange under Article 2 exercising freely their right to remain in or return to those districts and to enjoy to the full their liberties and rights of property in Turkey and in Greece. This provision shall not be invoked as a motive for preventing the free alienation of property belonging to inhabitants of the said regions which are excepted from the exchange, or the voluntary departure of those among these inhabitants who wish to leave Turkey or Greece.

Article 17.

The expenses entailed by the maintenance and working of the Mixed Commission and of the organisations dependent on it shall be borne by the Governments concerned in proportions to be fixed by the Commission.

Article 18.

The High Contracting Parties undertake to introduce in their respective laws such modifications as may be necessary with a view to ensuring the execution of the present Convention.

puisse avoir lieu, aussitôt après celui des otages civils turcs visés à l'alinéa (a) de l'article 1, et de manière que le rapatriement des personnes qui seraient à rechercher puisse avoir lieu dans le plus bref délai possible.

Article 3.

Les listes de rapatriement, respectivement remises par le Gouvernement hellénique et le Gouvernement ture, seront ultérieurement complétées.

CHAPITRE II.

PRISONNIERS DE GUERRE.

Article 4.

Aussitôt que possible après la date à laquelle le Gouvernement hellénique aura restitué au Gouvernement ture les otages civils turcs visés à l'alinéa (a) de l'article 1, et dans un délai ne dépassant pas quinze jours à partir de cette date, la Grèce restituera à la Turquie et transportera à Smyrne, en une seule fois, la totalité des prisonniers de guerre qu'elle détient.

La Turquie restituera ensuite à la Grèce un nombre égal de prisonniers de guerre helléniques, officier pour officier, soldat pour soldat. Ces prisonniers de guerre seront rassemblés par le Gouvernement ture en temps voulu et dans les lieux appropriés, de façon qu'ils puissent être rapatriés par le voyage de retour des navires grecs ayant amené les prisonniers de guerre turcs.

Le reste des prisonniers de guerre helléniques sera rapatrié par les soins de la Turquie dès la signature de la paix et dans un délai de trois semaines après cette signature.

Article 5.

Dans un but d'apaisement, les Gouvernements hellénique et ture conviennent d'étendre respectivement les bienfaits de l'amnistie à tous les prisonniers de guerre et internés civils qu'ils détendent, aussi bien à ceux qui sont passibles ou frappés de peines pour crimes et délits de droit commun qu'à ceux qui sont passibles ou frappés de peine pour fautes contre la discipline ; les deux Gouvernements sont d'accord pour les rapatrier indistinctement sans tenir compte de l'achèvement de la peine ou de la procédure engagée.

Il est entendu que, nonobstant le paragraphe I de la Déclaration relative à l'amnistie, le Gouvernement turc se réserve le droit d'interdire le séjour et l'accès en Turquie à cent cinquante personnes rentrant dans la catégorie des individus visés audit paragraphe. En conséquence, le Gouvernement turc pourra expulser de son territoire celles des personnes en question qui s'y trouveraient actuellement et interdire le retour de celles qui sont à l'étranger. Les noms de ces personnes seront annexés à la proclamation d'amnistie qui, lors de la mise en vigueur du Traité de Paix en date de ce jour, sera promulguée par ledit Gouvernement afin de donner suite, en ce qui le concerne, à la Déclaration susvisée. Il est, en outre, entendu qu'en cas où le Gouvernement turc déciderait, ainsi qu'il en a exprimé l'intention, que lesdites personnes aient à procéder à la liquidation de leurs propriétés et autres biens en Turquie, il leur sera laissé un délai de neuf mois, à partir de la date de la proclamation susmentionnée, pour effectuer cette liquidation de leur propre gré, et qu'en cas de

Il est également entendu que rien dans le paragraphe I de la Déclaration relative à l'amnistie ne porte atteinte au droit du Gouvernement hellénique de poursuivre ses ressortissants non musulmans, appartenant ou ayant appartenu à son armée, pour des faits constituant un manquement à leurs devoirs militaires au cours des hostilités entre la Grèce et la Turquie.

Déclaration relative aux Propriétés musulmanes en Grèce.

Les Soussignés, agissant en vertu de leurs pleins pouvoirs, déclarent, au nom du Gouvernement hellénique, qu'aucune atteinte ne sera portée aux droits de propriété des personnes musulmanes, qui ne sont pas visées par les dispositions de la Convention concernant l'échange des populations signée à Lausanne le 30 janvier 1923, et qui ont quitté la Grèce, y compris l'île de Crète, avant le 18 octobre 1912 ou qui ont résidé de tout temps en dehors de la Grèce. Elles garderont le droit de disposer librement de leurs propriétés.

Toutes les dispositions et mesures qui auraient été prises ou appliquées à titre exceptionnel à l'égard des biens desdits musulmans, seront levées. Au cas où les revenus de ces biens auraient été encaissés par le Gouvernement ou les autorités helléniques, sans avoir été jusqu'ici restitués ou avoir fait l'objet d'arrangements spéciaux entre le Gouvernement et les intéressés, ces revenus seront versés entre les mains des propriétaires. Toutes réclamations relatives aux revenus en question ainsi que toutes réclamations résultant du fait que ces personnes prétendraient avoir été lésées dans leurs droits par l'application inégale des mesures d'ordre général, seront décidées par la Commission prévue dans la Convention susmentionnée, à la of their own accord, and in the event of liquidation by the Turkish Government after the expiry of this period the whole of the proceeds shall be paid to the said persons.

It is similarly understood that paragraph 1 of the Amnesty Declaration in no way affects the right of the Greek Government to prosecute non-Moslem Greek subjects belonging or having belonged to its army for acts which constituted failure in respect of their military duties during the hostilities between Greece and Turkey.

Declaration relating to Moslem Properties in Greece.

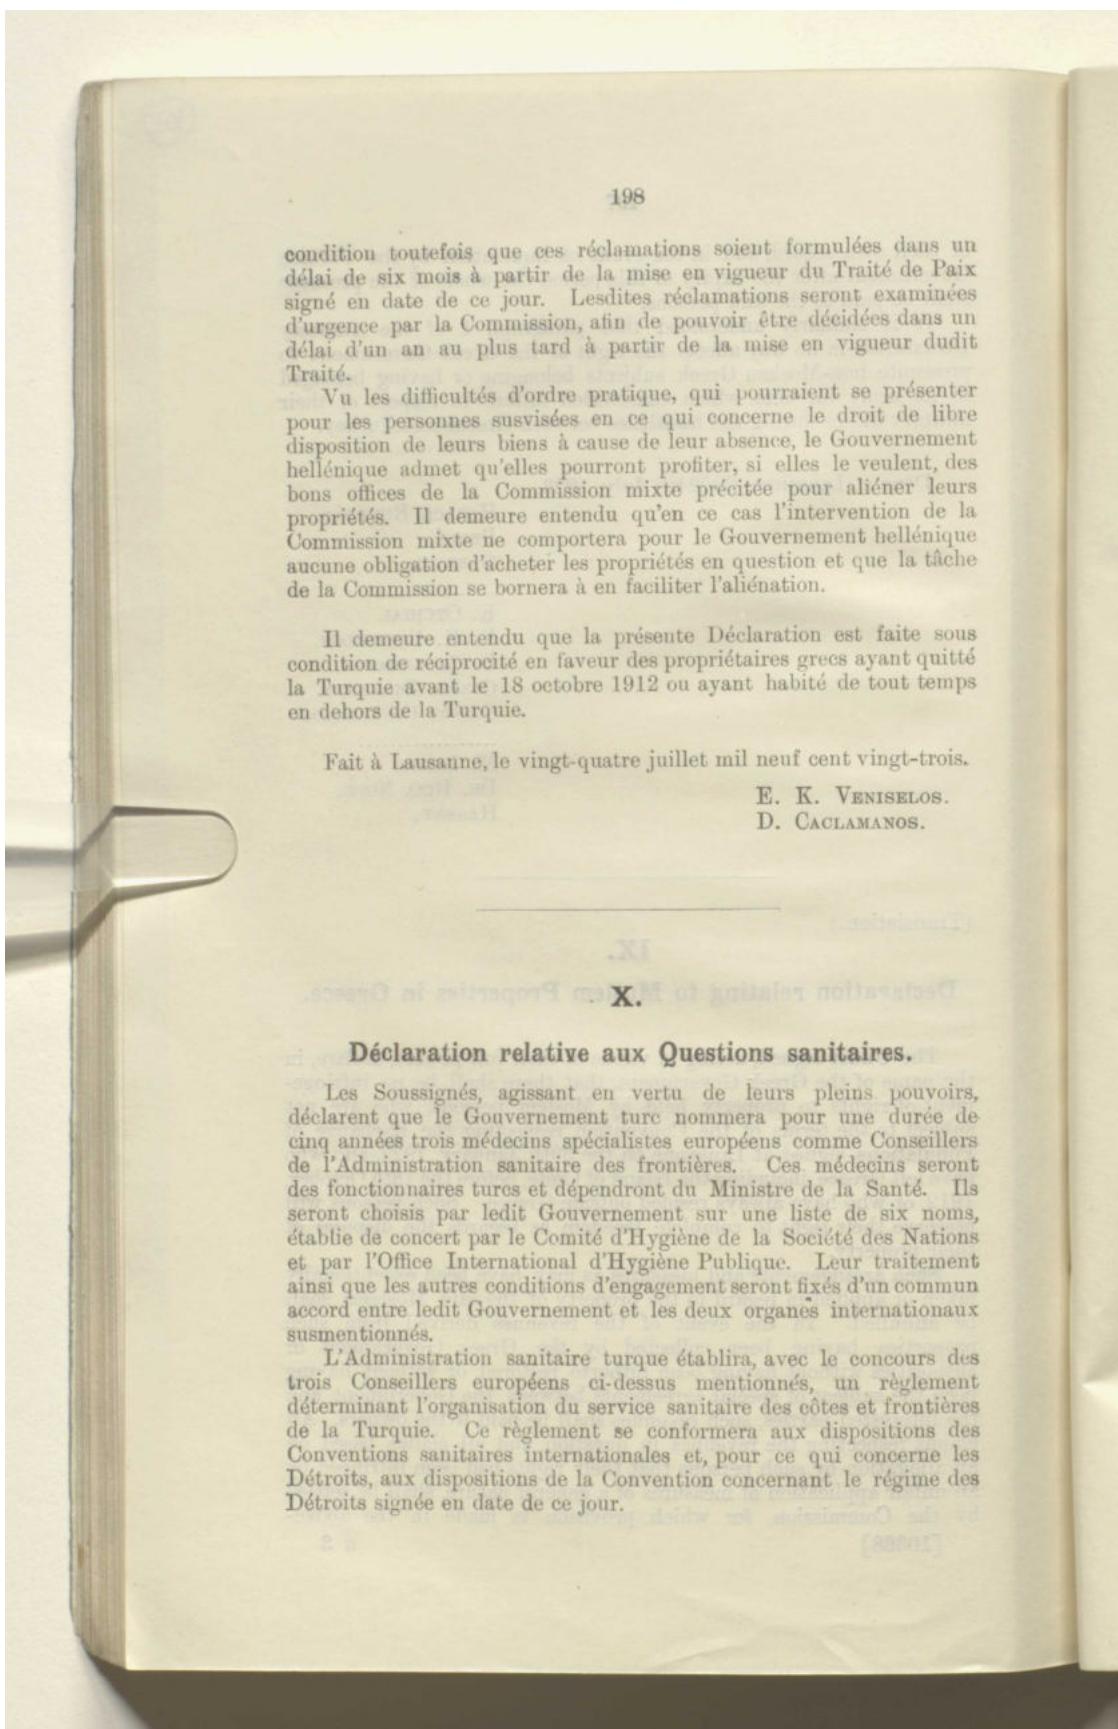

The Under-signed, acting in virtue of their full powers, declare, in the name of the Greek Government, that there shall be no infringement of rights to property held by Moslem persons, who are not subject to the terms of the Convention respecting the Exchange of Populations, signed at Lausanne on the 30th January, 1923, and who have left Greece, including the Island of Crete, before the 18th October, 1912, or who have always resided outside Greece. Such persons will preserve their right to complete freedom as regards the disposal of their property.

Such arrangements and measures as may have been exceptionally taken or applied in regard to the property of the said Moslems shall be annulled. In the event of the revenues derived from such properties having been collected by the Greek Government or authorities without having been hitherto restored, or without having been the subject of special agreements between the Government and the interested parties, such revenues shall be paid to the owners. All claims respecting the revenues in question, and all claims based on an allegation by such persons that their rights had been infringed by an unfair application of measures of a general nature, shall be settled by the Commission, for which provision is made in the above-mentioned Convention, subject, nevertheless, to the condition that such claims shall be made within a period of six months from the entry into force of the Treaty of Peace signed this day. The said claims shall be examined at once by the Commission, in order that they may be settled within a year's time at the most from the coming into force of the said Treaty.

In view of the difficulties of a practical nature with which the above-mentioned persons might be confronted, by reason of their absence, as regards their right to dispose freely of their goods, the Greek Government agrees that they shall be able to take advantage, if they so desire, of the services of the above-mentioned Mixed Commission to dispose of their property. It is understood that in this event intervention on the part of the Mixed Commission will entail no obligation for the Greek Government to purchase the properties in question, and that the task of the Commission will be limited to facilitating the disposal thereof.

It is understood that the present Declaration is made on the condition that reciprocity shall be granted to Greek owners of property who have left Turkey before the 18th October, 1912, or who have always resided outside Turkey.

Déclaration sur l'Administration judiciaire.

La Délégation turque a déjà eu l'occasion de faire connaître que le Gouvernement de la Grande Assemblée Nationale de Turquie est en mesure d'assurer aux étrangers devant les tribunaux turcs toutes les garanties d'une bonne justice et qu'il est à même d'y veiller dans le plein exercice de sa souveraineté et sans aucune intervention étrangère. Il n'en est pas moins disposé à faire procéder à des enquêtes et études pour introduire telles réformes que justifierait le progrès des mœurs et de la civilisation.

Dans cet esprit, les Soussignés, agissant en vertu de leurs pleins pouvoirs, tiennent à faire la déclaration suivante :

Le Gouvernement turc se propose de prendre incessamment à son service, pour la période qu'il jugera nécessaire et qui ne sera pas inférieure à cinq années, des conseillers légistes européens, qu'il choisira sur une liste dressée par la Cour permanente de Justice Internationale de la Haye parmi les jurisconsultes ressortissants des pays n'ayant pas participé à la guerre de 1914-1918, et qui seront engagés comme fonctionnaires turcs.

Ces Conseillers légistes dépendront du Ministre de la Justice et auront leur siège, les uns dans la ville de Constantinople et les autres dans la ville de Smyrne. Ils participeront aux travaux des commissions législatives et seront chargés de suivre, sans s'immiscer dans l'exercice des fonctions des magistrats, le fonctionnement des juridictions civiles, commerciales et pénales turques, et d'adresser au Ministre de la Justice tous rapports qu'ils estimeraient nécessaires ; ils auront qualité pour recevoir toutes plaintes auxquelles pourraient donner lieu soit l'administration de la justice civile, commerciale ou pénale, soit l'exécution des peines, soit l'application des lois, avec mission d'en rendre compte au Ministre de la Justice à l'effet d'assurer la stricte observation de la législation turque.

Ils auront également qualité pour recevoir les plaintes auxquelles pourraient donner lieu les visites domiciliaires, perquisitions ou arrestations, ces mesures étant, d'autre part, dans les circonscriptions judiciaires de Constantinople et de Smyrne, portées sans délai, dès qu'elles sont effectuées, à la connaissance du Conseiller légiste par le représentant sur place du Ministre de la Justice ; ce magistrat aura, en pareil cas, qualité pour correspondre directement avec le Conseiller légiste.

Dans les matières correctionnelles, la mise en liberté sous caution devra toujours être prononcée, à moins que la sécurité publique ne soit de ce fait compromise, ou que la mise en liberté provisoire n'entrave la bonne marche de l'instruction de l'affaire.

Tous compromis et clauses compromissoires en matière civile ou commerciale sont permis et les décisions arbitrales ainsi rendues seront exécutées sur le visa du Président du Tribunal de première instance, qui ne pourra refuser son visa qu'au cas où la décision serait contraire à l'ordre public.

Protocol relating to Certain Concessions granted in the Ottoman Empire.

THE BRITISH EMPIRE, FRANCE, ITALY, GREECE, ROUMANIA, THE SERB-CROAT-SLOVENE STATE AND TURKEY, being desirous of settling by agreement questions relating to certain concessions granted in the Ottoman Empire,

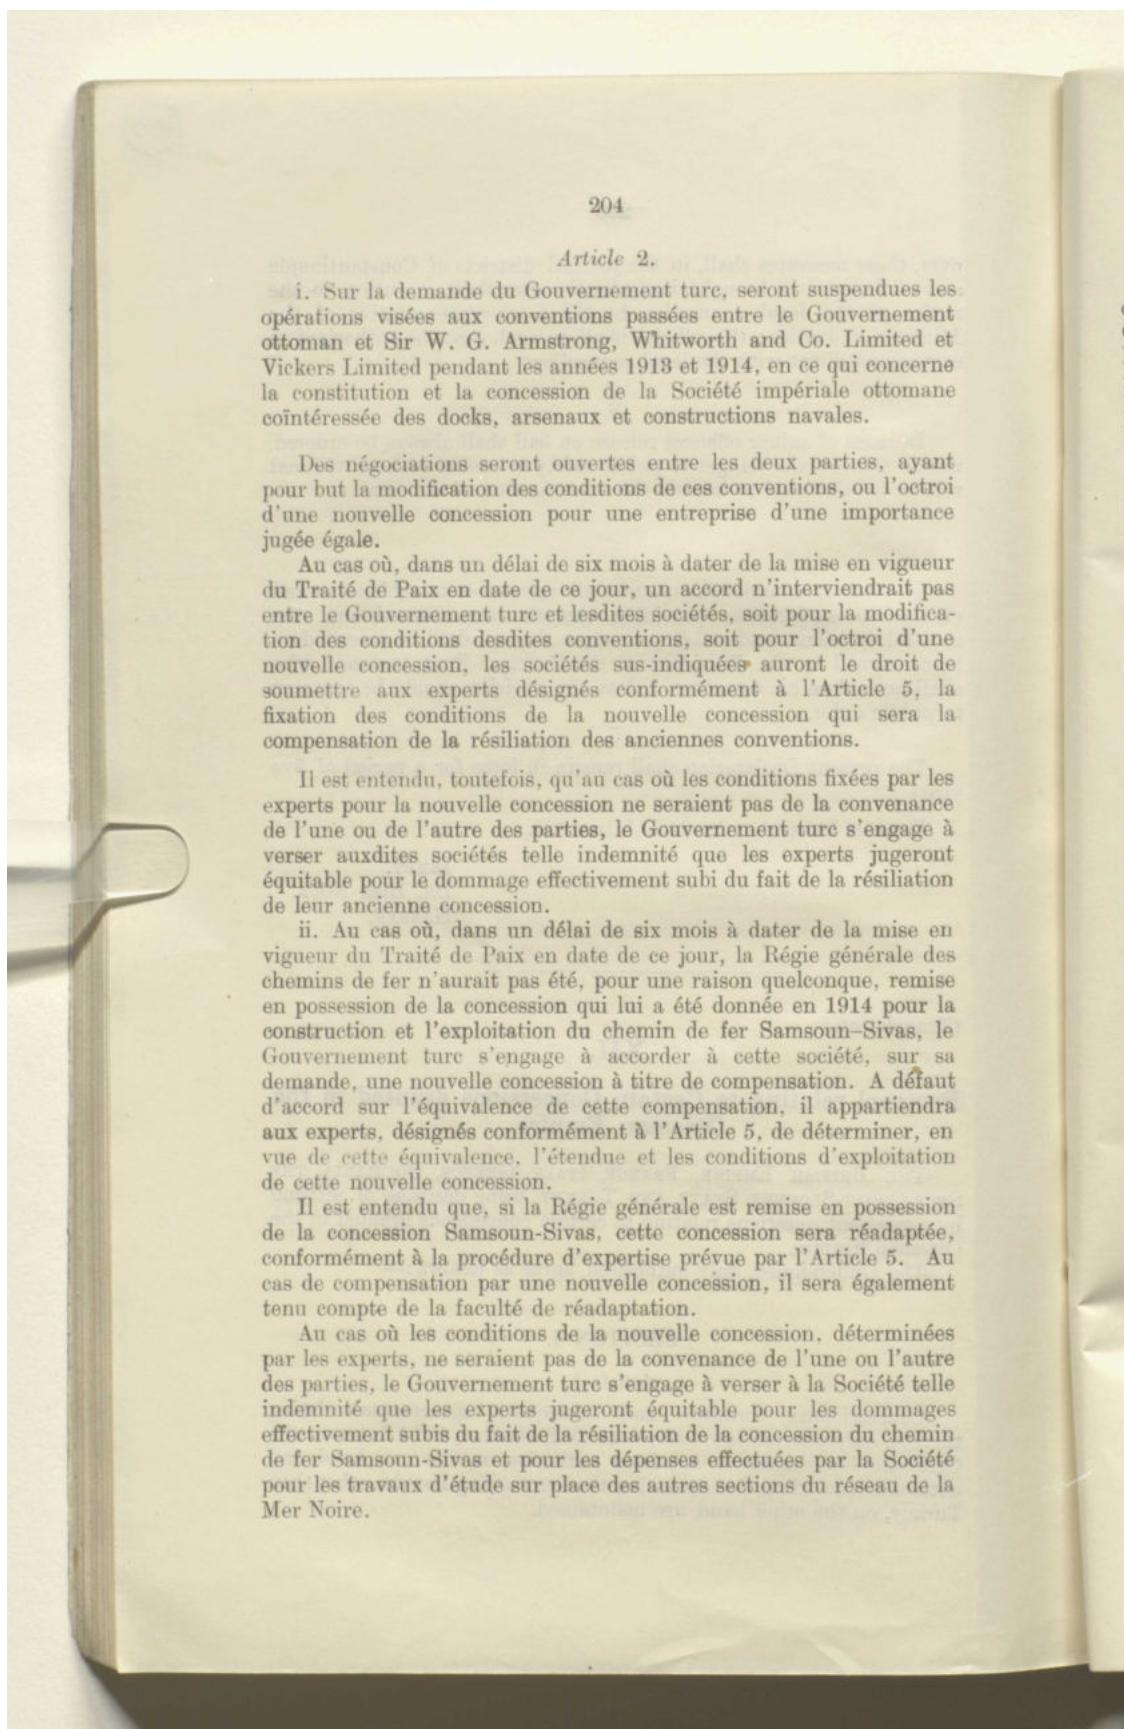

The Undersigned, duly authorised, agree as follows:—

SECTION I.

Concessionary contracts and subsequent agreements relating thereto, duly entered into before the 29th October, 1914, between the Ottoman Government or any local authority, on the one hand, and nationals (including Companies) of the Contracting Powers, other than Turkey, on the other hand, are maintained.

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [105v] (215/260)

'TREATY OF PEACE WITH TURKEY, AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS Signed at Lausanne on July 24, 1923, together with Agreements between Greece and Turkey signed on January 30, 1923, and Subsidiary Documents forming part of THE TURKISH PEACE SETTLEMENT.' [106r] (216/260)

(i.) On the request of the Turkish Government, the operations contemplated in the agreements entered into between the Ottoman Government and Sir W. G. Armstrong, Whitworth and Company, Limited, and Vickers, Limited, during the years 1913 and 1914, relating to the constitution and the concession of the Société Impériale Ottomane Cointéressée des Docks, Arsenaux et Constructions Navales will be suspended.

Negotiations shall be entered into between the two parties with a view to the modification of the provisions of these agreements or the grant of a new concession for an undertaking of equal importance.

If, within six months from the coming into force of the Treaty of Peace signed this day, an agreement shall not have been come to between the Turkish Government and the said companies, either for the modification of the provisions of the said agreements or for the grant of a new concession, the companies mentioned above shall have the right to submit to experts, appointed in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, the settlement of the conditions of the new concession to be granted as compensation for the cancellation of the old agreements.

It is nevertheless understood that, if the conditions settled by the experts for the new concession are not acceptable to one or other of the parties, the Turkish Government undertakes to pay to the said companies such indemnity for the loss actually suffered for the cancellation of their old concession as the experts determine to be equitable.

(ii.) If, within six months from the coming into force of the Treaty of Peace signed this day, the Régie Générale des Chemins de fer shall not, for any reason, have been restored to the possession of the concession which was given to it in 1914 for the construction and exploitation of the Samsun-Sivas Railway, the Turkish Government undertakes to grant to this company, at its request, a new concession by way of compensation. In default of agreement as to the equivalence of this compensation, the extent and conditions of exploitation of this new concession necessary to give compensation will be determined by experts appointed in accordance with Article 5.

It is understood that, if the Régie Générale is restored to the possession of the Samsun-Sivas Concession, it will be re-adapted in accordance with the procedure for settlement by experts provided for by Article 5. In case of compensation by a new concession due regard will also be had to the power of re-adaptation.

If the conditions of the new concession, as determined by the experts, are not acceptable to one or other of the parties, the Turkish Government undertakes to pay to the company such indemnity as the experts determine to be equitable for the loss actually suffered from the cancellation of the concession for the Samsun-Sivas Railway and for the expenses to which the company has been put for the survey and investigation work on the spot in respect of the other sections of the Black Sea Railway system.

La Turquie sera entièrement libérée de tout engagement envers la Société, soit par la remise de la Société en possession de la concession Samsoun-Sivas, soit par l'octroi de la nouvelle concession, soit, enfin, par le versement de l'indemnité, dans les conditions prévues ci-dessus.

Article 3.

Les sommes revenant, après règlement des comptes, à l'Etat ou aux bénéficiaires des contrats et accords visés aux Articles 1 et 2, à raison d'une utilisation par l'Etat, sur son territoire actuel, de la propriété ou des services desdits bénéficiaires, seront payées conformément aux contrats ou accords existants ou, à défaut de contrats ou accords, conformément à la procédure d'expertise prévue par le présent Protocole.

Article 4.

Sous réserve des dispositions de l'Article 6, les clauses des contrats et accords subséquents visés à l'Article 1 seront, d'un commun accord et en ce qui concerne les deux parties, mises en conformité des conditions économiques nouvelles.

Article 5.

Faute d'entente dans le délai d'un an à compter de la mise en vigueur du Traité de Paix en date de ce jour, les parties adopteront les dispositions qui seront considérées, tant en ce qui concerne le règlement des comptes que la réadaptation des concessions, comme convenables et équitables par deux experts qu'il appartiendra aux parties de désigner dans un délai de deux mois à compter de l'expiration du délai d'un an prévu ci-dessus. En cas de désaccord, ces experts s'en référeront à un tiers expert désigné, dans un délai de deux mois, par le Gouvernement turc sur une liste de trois personnes ressortissantes de pays n'ayant pas participé à la guerre de 1914-1918, liste dressée par le chef du Département Fédéral des Travaux publics suisse.

Article 6.

Les bénéficiaires de contrats de concession visés à l'Article 1 qui n'auraient pas reçu, à la date de ce jour, un commencement d'application, ne pourront pas se prévaloir des dispositions du présent Protocole relatives à la réadaptation. Ces contrats pourront être résiliés sur la demande du concessionnaire présentée dans un délai de six mois à compter de la mise en vigueur du Traité de Paix en date de ce jour. En ce cas, le concessionnaire aura droit, s'il y a lieu, pour les travaux d'étude, à telle indemnité qui, à défaut d'accord entre les parties, sera considérée comme équitable par les experts prévus au présent Protocole.

Article 7.

Les accords intervenus entre le 30 octobre 1918 et le 1<sup>er</sup> novembre 1922 entre le Gouvernement ottoman et les bénéficiaires des contrats et concessions visés à l'Article 1, ainsi que les contrats entre particuliers, comportant transfert de concession, conclus pendant cette période, demeureront en vigueur jusqu'à ce qu'ils aient reçu

they have received the approval of the Turkish Government. If this approval should not be granted, compensation shall, if there is ground for it, be paid to the concessionnaires in respect of the loss actually suffered, the amount being fixed by experts appointed as provided in Article 5. This provision shall not prejudice, as regards contracts previous to the 24th October, 1914, the right of readaptation provided for by this Protocol.

Article 8.

The provisions of this Protocol do not apply to agreements entered into since the 25th April, 1920, between the Government of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey and concessionnaires.

SECTION II.

Article 9.

In territories detached from Turkey under the Treaty of Peace signed this day, the State which acquires the territory is fully subrogated as regards the rights and obligations of Turkey towards the nationals of the other Contracting Powers, and companies in which the capital of the nationals of the said Powers is preponderant, who are beneficiaries under concessionary contracts entered into before the 29th October, 1914, with the Ottoman Government or any local Ottoman authority. The same provision will apply in territories detached from Turkey after the Balkan Wars so far as regards concessionary contracts entered into with the Ottoman Government or any Ottoman local authority before the coming into force of the Treaty providing for the transfer of the territory. This subrogation will have effect as from the coming into force of the treaty by which the transfer of territory was effected except as regards territories detached by the Treaty of Peace signed this day, in respect of which the subrogation will have effect as from the 30th October, 1918.

Article 10.

The provisions of Section I of this Protocol, except Articles 7 and 8, will be applied to the contracts referred to in Article 9. Article 3 will only have effect in detached territories where the property or the services of the concessionnaires were utilised by the State exercising authority in such territory.

Article 11.

Any company formed in accordance with Ottoman law and carrying on its business in territory detached from Turkey, either after the Balkan Wars or under the Treaty of Peace signed this day, in which the interests of nationals of the Contracting Powers other than Turkey are preponderant, will have, within five years from the coming into force of the said Treaty, the right to transfer its property, rights and interests to any other company formed in accordance with the law, either of the State exercising authority on the territory in question, or of one of the Contracting Powers other than Turkey whose nationals control the first-named company. The company to société précédente. La société à qui les biens, droits et intérêts auront été transférés jouira des mêmes droits et priviléges dont jouissait la société précédente, y compris ceux que lui confèrent les dispositions du présent Protocole.

Article 12.

Les dispositions de l'Article 11 ne s'appliquent pas aux sociétés concessionnaires de services publics dont une partie de l'exploitation demeurerait en territoire turc.

Toutefois, lesdites sociétés pourront bénéficier des dispositions des Articles 11 et 13, pour les parties de leur exploitation situées en dehors de la Turquie, en transférant lesdites parties à une nouvelle société.

Article 13.

Les sociétés auxquelles seront transférés, en vertu de l'Article 11, des biens, droits et intérêts de sociétés ottomanes, ne seront soumises, sur les territoires détachés de la Turquie, à aucune taxe spéciale du fait de ce transfert ou de leur constitution en vue de ce transfert, s'il n'y est fait obstacle par des conventions internationales en vigueur. Il en sera de même sur le territoire de celle des Puissances contractantes dont ces sociétés prendraient la nationalité, à moins que cette Puissance n'y fasse opposition en vertu de sa législation propre.

Protocol relating to the Evacuation of the Turkish Territory occupied by the British, French and Italian Forces.

The Governments of France, Great Britain and Italy, Allied Powers whose troops at present occupy certain portions of Turkish territory, and the Government of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey, being equally desirous to give satisfaction without delay to the peaceful aspirations of their respective nations,

The Undersigned, being duly authorised, have agreed respectively to take the following measures :

I.

As soon as the ratification of the Treaty of Peace and other instruments concluded at Lausanne by the Grand National Assembly of Turkey shall have been notified to the Allied Powers in the person of their High Commissioners at Constantinople, the troops of the Hauts-Commissaires à Constantinople, les troupes desdites Puissances procéderont aux opérations d'évacuation des territoires occupés par elles.

Ces opérations comprendront le retrait des unités navales britanniques, françaises et italiennes stationnant dans le détroit des Dardanelles, la Mer de Marmara et le Bosphore.

II.

Les opérations d'évacuation seront achevées dans le délai de six semaines.

III.

Au fur et à mesure de l'évacuation, les immeubles et biens de toute nature qui seront dûment identifiés comme appartenant au Gouvernement turc ou aux administrations publiques turques sur les territoires évacués, et qui sont actuellement occupés par les autorités alliées ou en leur possession, seront restitués au Gouvernement turc.

Toutes mesures de séquestration et de réquisition seront levées. Il sera dressé de ces restitutions et mainlevées des procès-verbaux qui vaudront comme quittance entière et définitive.

Les autorités d'occupation fourniront au Gouvernement turc un état aussi complet que possible de tous biens, objets et matières appartenant audit Gouvernement et qui auraient été remis à des tiers, notamment à des sociétés ottomanes.

Les dettes résultant de contrats passés entre les autorités d'occupation et des particuliers devront être payées dans les conditions prévues aux contrats.

IV.

Les bâtiments de guerre, y compris le Yavuz-Sultan-Selim, les armes, munitions et autre matériel de guerre, ayant appartenu au Gouvernement ottoman, dont ont disposé les Puissances alliées en vertu de la Convention d'armistice signée à Moudros le 30 octobre 1918, et qui restent à la date de la signature du présent Protocole entre les mains des autorités desdites Puissances en Turquie, seront restitués, dans le délai prévu au paragraphe II, à la Turquie dans leur état actuel et dans les endroits où ils se trouvent.

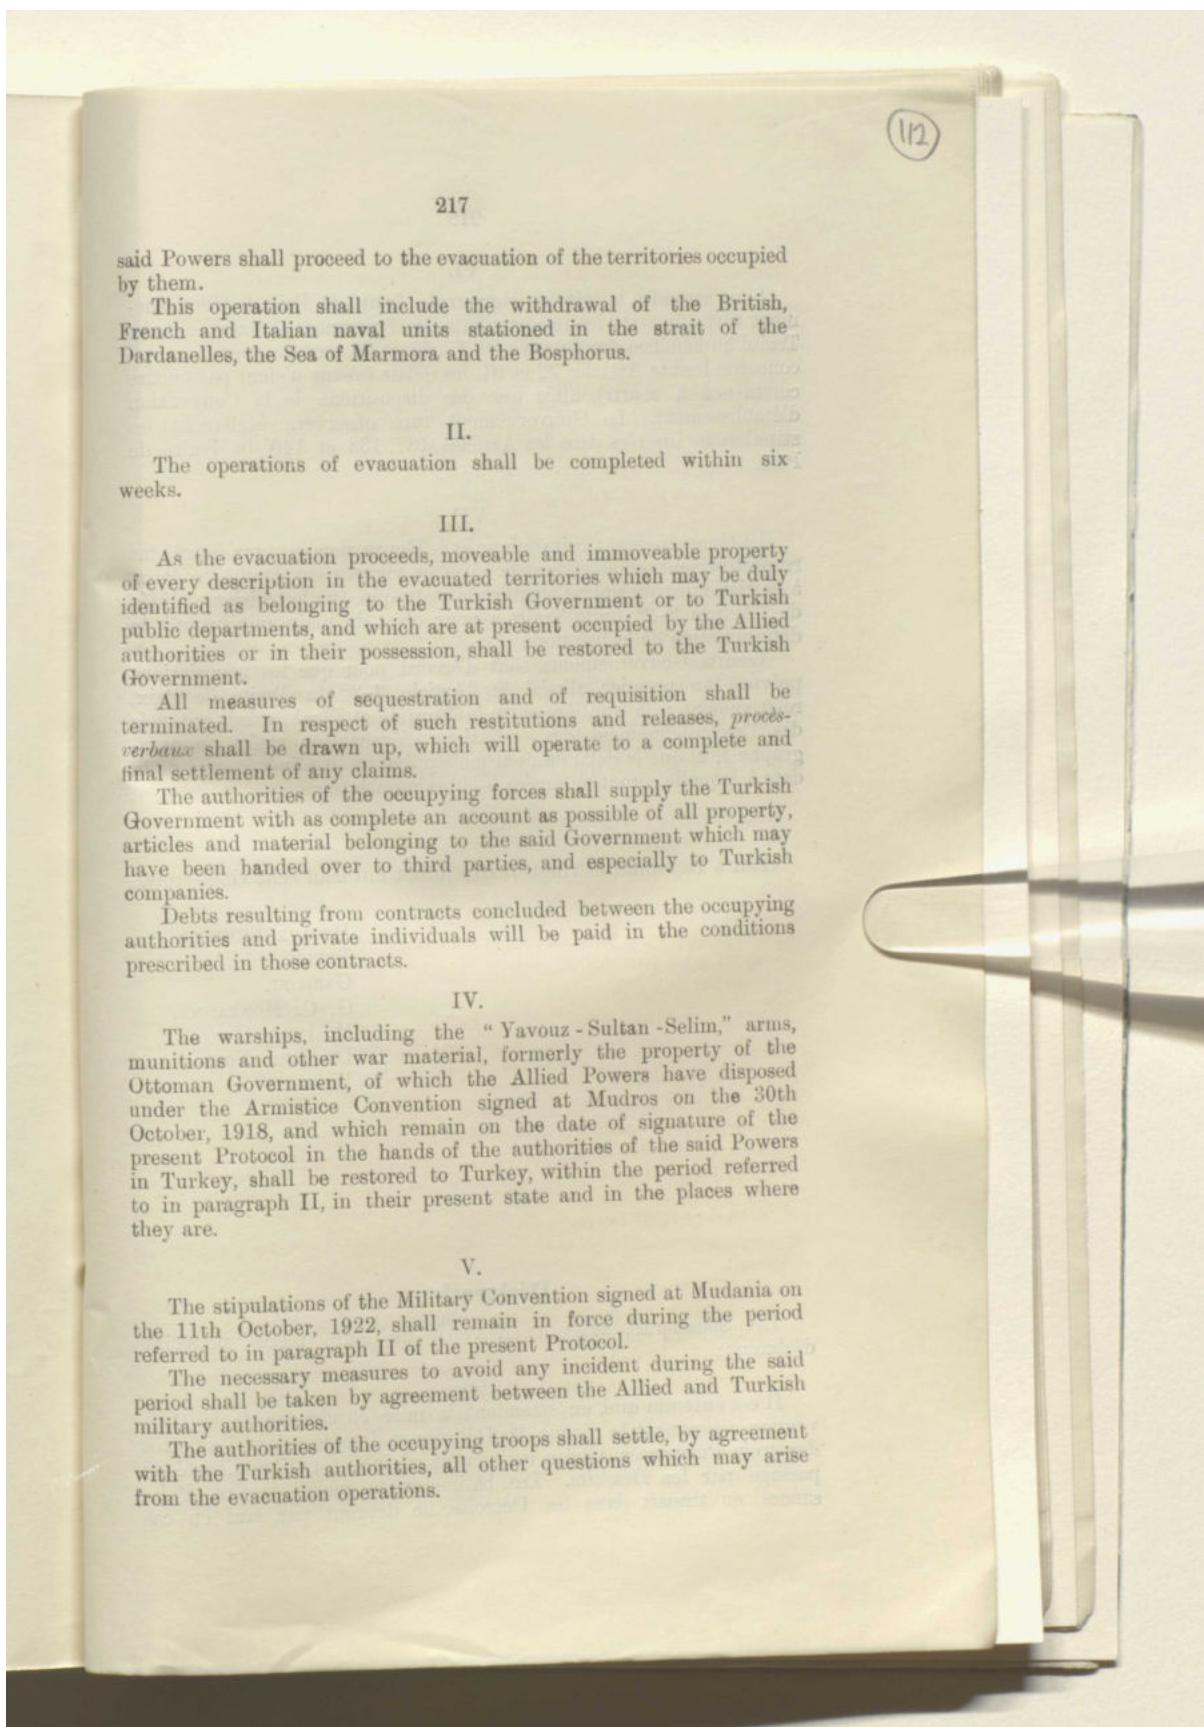

V.

Les dispositions de la Convention militaire signée à Moudania le 11 octobre 1922 resteront en vigueur pendant la période prévue au paragraphe II du présent Protocole.

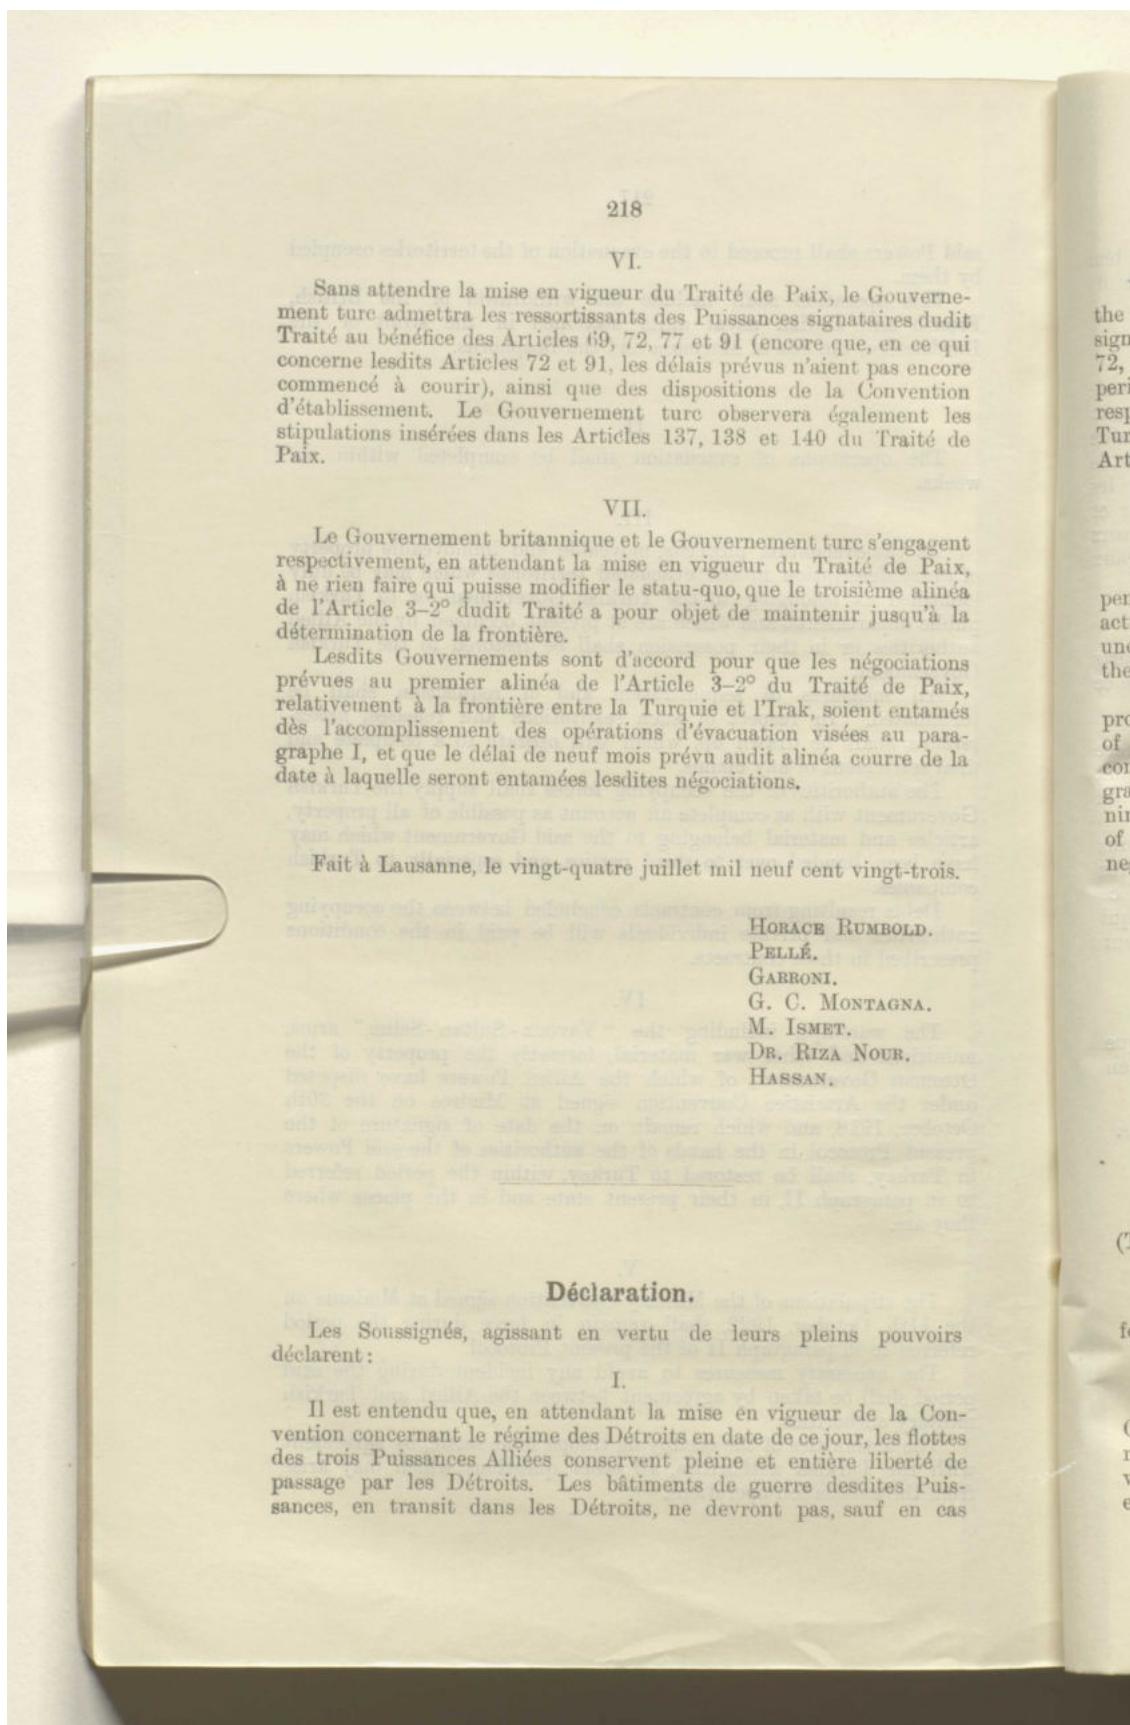

Les mesures nécessaires pour éviter tout incident pendant ladite période seront prises d'accord entre les autorités militaires alliées et turques.

Il appartiendra aux autorités d'occupation de régler, d'accord avec les autorités turques, toutes autres questions que pourraient faire naître les opérations d'évacuation.

d'avaries ou de fortune de mer, y séjourner au delà du temps qui leur est nécessaire pour effectuer leur passage, y compris la durée du mouillage pendant la nuit si la sécurité de la navigation l'exige.

II.

Nonobstant les dispositions du paragraphe I du Protocole ci-dessus, et jusqu'à la mise en vigueur de la Convention concernant le régime des Détroits en date de ce jour ou jusqu'au 31 décembre 1923 si ladite Convention n'est pas entrée en vigueur à cette date, le Gouvernement turc ne fera pas d'objection au stationnement dans les Détroits, pour chacune des trois Puissances Alliées, d'un croiseur et de deux contre-torpilleurs qui pourront être accompagnés des bateaux nécessaires pour le charbonnage et le ravitaillement, lesdits bateaux ne battant pas pavillon de guerre.

III.

Les Soussignés rappellent que le cabotage et les services des ports seront, à dater de la mise en vigueur du Traité de Paix en date de ce jour, réservés au pavillon national ture.

Ils tiennent néanmoins à faire savoir que, jusqu'au 31 décembre 1923, il sera laissé toute liberté de continuer leur exploitation aux entreprises qui, au 1<sup>er</sup> janvier 1923, pratiquaient le cabotage ou exploitaient des services de ports en Turquie.

En tout cas jusqu'au 31 décembre 1923, la Turquie accordera, sans discrimination au profit d'aucune Puissance, aux navires des autres Puissances signataires de la Convention commerciale en date de ce jour, toutes les facilités de navigation, d'accès et de commerce qui sont prévues par la Section II de la Convention commerciale pour les navires, leur chargement et leurs passagers.

IV.

En faisant cette Déclaration, les soussignés expriment l'espoir que le Traité de Paix et les autres Actes signés à Lausanne entreront en vigueur aussitôt que possible.

beyond the time which is necessary for them to effect their passage, including the time of anchorage during the night, if necessary for safety of navigation.

II.

Notwithstanding the stipulations of paragraph I of the above Protocol, and until the coming into force of the Straits Convention signed this day, or until the 31st December, 1923, if the said Convention has not come into force by that date, the Turkish Government will raise no objection to the maintenance in the Straits by each of the three Allied Powers of one cruiser and two destroyers, which may be accompanied by the necessary vessels for coaling and revictualling; the latter vessels shall not fly the naval ensign.

III.

The Undersigned draw attention to the fact that, as from the date of the coming into force of the Treaty of Peace signed this day, maritime cabotage and port services will be reserved to the Turkish national flag.

They desire, nevertheless, to state that, until the 31st December, 1923, those firms which, on the 1st January, 1923, carried on cabotage or port services in Turkey shall be allowed complete liberty to continue this business.

In any event until the 31st December, 1923, Turkey will, without discrimination in favour of any Power, grant to the vessels of the other Powers signatory of the Commercial Convention dated this day all facilities of navigation, access and commerce which are provided for by Section II of the Commercial Convention for the vessels, their cargoes and their passengers.

IV.

In making this Declaration, the Undersigned express the hope that the Treaty of Peace and other Instruments signed at Lausanne will come into force as soon as possible.

Protocole relatif au Territoire de Karagatch, ainsi qu'aux Iles de Imbros et Ténédos, signé par l'Empire britannique, la France, l'Italie, le Japon, la Grèce et la Turquie.

Les Soussignés, dûment autorisés, conviennent des dispositions suivantes :

I.

Le territoire situé entre la Maritza et la frontière turco-hellénique décrite à l'Article 2-2<sup>e</sup> du Traité de Paix en date de ce jour et qui sera restitué à la Turquie, sera remis aux autorités turques le 15 septembre 1923, au plus tard, à la condition que la ratification dudit Traité par la Grande Assemblée Nationale de Turquie ait été, à cette date,通知ée au Gouvernement hellénique par les soins des Hauts-Commissaires alliés à Constantinople. Si cette notification n'a pas été faite à la date ci-dessus visée, la remise dudit territoire aura lieu dans le délai de quinze jours à partir de la notification.

II.

Le fait que la délimitation prévue à l'Article 5 du Traité de Paix n'aurait pas été achevée ne pourra retarder la remise aux autorités turques du territoire ci-dessus visé. Dans ce cas, les Gouvernements hellénique et turc procéderont au tracé provisoire sur le terrain de la ligne décrite à l'Article 2-2<sup>e</sup> du Traité de Paix. Ce tracé provisoire sera respecté de part et d'autre jusqu'à l'achèvement des travaux de la Commission prévue à l'Article 5 dudit Traité.

III.

Les habitants grecs de Karagatch seront soumis à l'échange de populations prévu par la Convention signée le 30 janvier 1923 entre la Grèce et la Turquie; ils bénéficieront des dispositions de ladite Convention, mais ils ne pourront être obligés d'émigrer que six mois après le rétablissement de l'état de paix entre la Grèce et la Turquie.

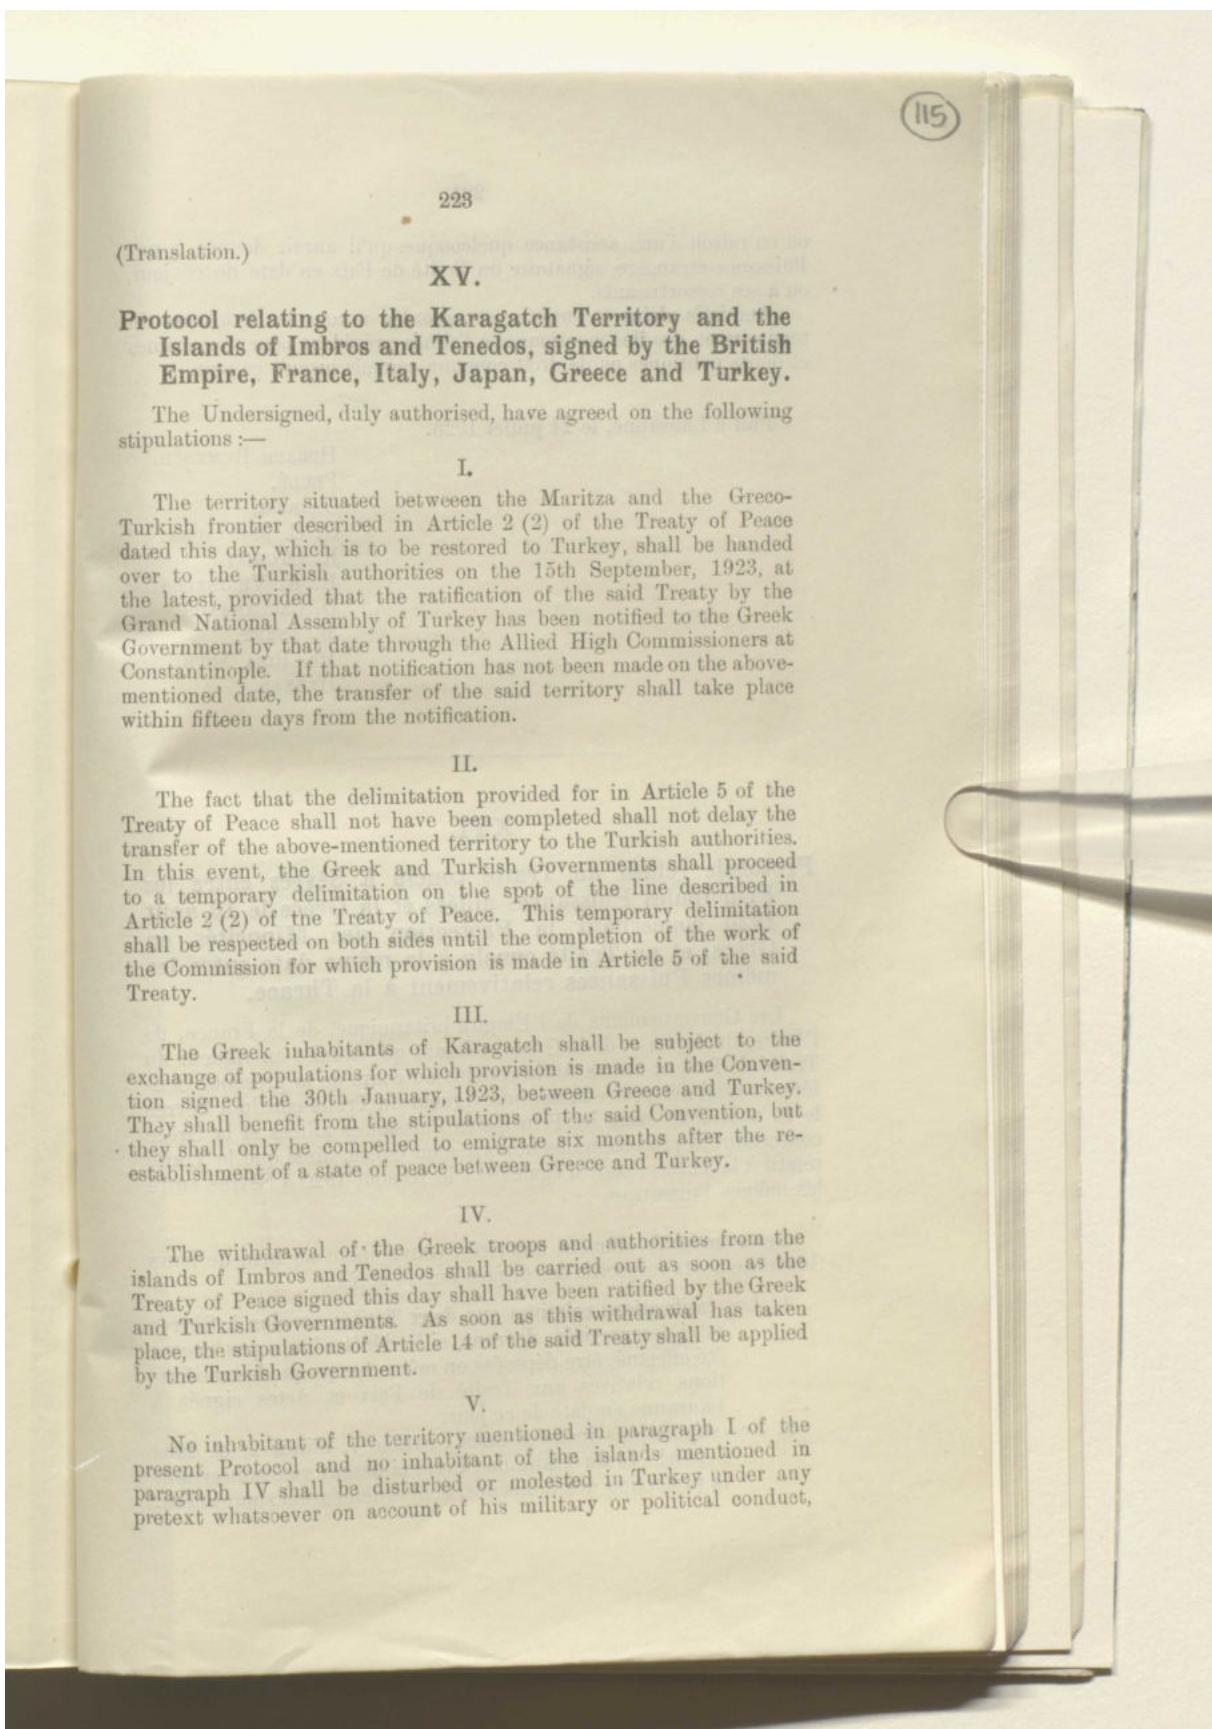

IV.

Le retrait des troupes et autorités helléniques des îles de Imbros et Ténédos sera effectué dès que le Traité de Paix en date de ce jour aura été ratifié par les Gouvernements hellénique et turc. Dès ce retrait, les dispositions de l'Article 14 dudit Traité seront appliquées par le Gouvernement turc.

V.

Aucun des habitants du territoire mentionné dans le paragraphe I du présent Protocole, non plus qu'aucun des habitants des îles dont traite le paragraphe IV, ne devra être inquiété ou molesté en Turquie sous aucun prétexte en raison de sa conduite militaire ou politique,

Protocol relating to the Karagatch Territory and the Islands of Imbros and Tenedos, signed by the British Empire, France, Italy, Japan, Greece and Turkey.

The Undersigned, duly authorised, have agreed on the following stipulations:—

I.

The territory situated between the Maritza and the Greco-Turkish frontier described in Article 2 (2) of the Treaty of Peace dated this day, which is to be restored to Turkey, shall be handed over to the Turkish authorities on the 15th September, 1923, at the latest, provided that the ratification of the said Treaty by the Grand National Assembly of Turkey has been notified to the Greek Government by that date through the Allied High Commissioners at Constantinople. If that notification has not been made on the above-mentioned date, the transfer of the said territory shall take place within fifteen days from the notification.

II.

The fact that the delimitation provided for in Article 5 of the Treaty of Peace shall not have been completed shall not delay the transfer of the above-mentioned territory to the Turkish authorities. In this event, the Greek and Turkish Governments shall proceed to a temporary delimitation on the spot of the line described in Article 2 (2) of the Treaty of Peace. This temporary delimitation shall be respected on both sides until the completion of the work of the Commission for which provision is made in Article 5 of the said Treaty.

III.

The Greek inhabitants of Karagatch shall be subject to the exchange of populations for which provision is made in the Convention signed the 30th January, 1923, between Greece and Turkey. IV.

The withdrawal of the Greek troops and authorities from the islands of Imbros and Tenedos shall be carried out as soon as the Treaty of Peace signed this day shall have been ratified by the Greek and Turkish Governments. As soon as this withdrawal has taken place, the stipulations of Article 14 of the said Treaty shall be applied by the Turkish Government.

At the last meeting of the Second Committee, it was agreed between us that Article 70 of the former draft treaty, regarding certain financial operations carried out at Constantinople after the 30th October, 1918, should be suppressed, and replaced by a letter addressed by your Excellency to the Council of the Debt, a letter the receipt of which the latter was to have acknowledged and with which it was to have notified its agreement. sur le projet de lettre à adresser au Conseil et dont vous nous avez communiqué une copie.*

Nous regrettons de devoir informer votre Excellence que, d'après une correspondance échangée avec le Président du Conseil de la Dette, la rédaction arrêtée ici soulève certaines difficultés aux yeux du Conseil. Le temps manquant pour éclaircir ces difficultés avant la signature du Traité, nous proposons à votre Excellence de laisser en suspens, pour être réglée plus tard, la question des lettres à échanger entre le Gouvernement et le Conseil de la Dette. Il demeure entendu qu'en faisant cette proposition, nous ne voulons nullement revenir sur la suppression de l'Article 70 de l'ancien projet de Traité, et que nous nous en tenons aux principes dont s'inspire le projet de lettre élaboré d'un commun accord, à savoir que les opérations visées ne seront pas contestées et ne pourront d'autre part pas être considérées comme un précédent en ce qui concerne la monnaie dans laquelle les paiements seront effectués.

Veuillez agréer, M. le Président, les assurances de notre haute considération.

We regret to have to inform your Excellency that it appears from correspondence exchanged with the President of the Council of the Debt that the draft agreed upon here presents certain difficulties from the point of view of the Council.
